FITTS WINS BAY CITY

G.O.P. Votes His Indorsement

County Central Committee Censures Young and Ignores Rolph

Action Taken After Court Denies Injunction Suit to Prevent It

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Buron Fitts tonight won the most vital battle of his gubernatorial campaign in San Francisco. He was indorsed by the San Francisco County Republican Central Committee over the candidacy of the committee's home town entrant, Mayor Rolph, and the incumbent Governor, C. C. Young, who won the approval of the committee four years ago but was severely censured by it in a resolution passed several days ago.

When an inkling of the committee's prospective action was given in the Young resolution of censure, court action was resorted to in a strenuous effort to prevent the anticipated indorsement of Fitts. L. W. Hosford, candidate for the State Senate, asked an injunction preventing the committee from indorsing any candidate for State offices prior to the primary election the 26th inst., although the practice has been one of years' standing and Hosford was not in line for disapproval by the committee. No recommendation was planned for the Senate seat he seeks.

Superior Judge O'Donnell threw the Hosford action out of court today as one having no grounds for legal action, and dissolved the temporary injunction Hosford had obtained.

Tonight, the County Central Committee, freed of legal restrictions, went into session and voted Fitts its unqualified indorsement.

The action followed immediately upon the submission of a report prepared by the nominating committee, headed by John S. Phillips as chairman.

In its report the committee said:

"Realizing the importance of selecting as our candidate for Governor only a tried and true Republican, we, the special committee, appointed by the executive committee of the Republican County Central Committee, have carefully analyzed the Republicanism of the three main candidates for Governor, and candidates for other offices, and we find that only one of the candidates for Governor truly represents the Republican party and is entitled to the support of the Republicans of this State.

"We therefore recommend the following candidates for the various offices as the candidates that should receive the support of loyal Republicans at the coming primary."

The name of Fitts for Governor follows as the first of those indorsed.

REVOLT IN RUSSIA TOLD BY RUMORS

Bucharest Journal Says Peasants Rise Against Reds, Led by Czarists

(Copyright, 1930, by New York Times)

BUCHAREST, Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—The newspaper Tasar reports tonight a peasant revolution has been in progress in soviet Russia the last three days.

The newspaper, the accuracy of whose account it is impossible to check, asserts that Russian counter-revolutionaries from Berlin and Paris have been traveling to Ukraine, stirring up the peasantry in the interests of the Czarists.

The peasants, irritated by Dictator Stalin's new confiscations of grain, have responded enthusiastically in wide areas. It was to counteract this anticipated reawakening of Czarist reactivity, says the paper, that Gen. Kutiepoff was recently kidnaped in Paris by Bolshevist agents.

CAROL MAY WED LUPESCU

Rumanians Declare Failure of Reconciliation with Queen will Lead to Morganatic Union

VIENNA, Aug. 18. (AP)—Rumanians in Vienna said today they understood King Carol, in the event he fails at reconciliation with his wife, Queen Helen, is planning a morganatic marriage with Mme. Magda Lupescu, red-haired woman for whom he once renounced his throne.

Their information is based upon word of a foreign diplomat who recently passed through Vienna from Bucharest, who said he shares the convictions of the King's entourage that the breach between Carol and Helen is widening.

Queen Helen, he asserted, would be too proud, not to say religious, to be contented to lead a merely shadowy existence as Queen while a rival held the affections of the King and really wielded the regal powers in the land.

According to the diplomat, Carol is temporizing on the matter of coronation and brought its postponement from October 15 to next spring, because of misgivings as to how the nation and especially the army will take the news that he is planning a morganatic marriage with Mme. Lupescu.

The assertion the postponement is dictated by economic conditions in the country is scouted, it being pointed out that the coronation is planned on the most simple scale.

LEGION MEN ON PARADE

Sacramento Sees Ranks Align

Veterans 25,000 Strong Stir Throngs to Cheers at State Convention

National Commander Tells Progress Made Toward Soldiers' Recompense

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Blaring bugles and rattling drums echoed through gaily decorated Sacramento streets today as 25,000 members of the California Department of the American Legion paraded after opening their twelfth annual convention. Addresses by National Commander O. L. Bodenhamer and Department Commander Clarence L. Kincaid, Hollywood, marked the opening business session of the three-day gathering.

Progress made during the year in national legislation favorable to war veterans was stressed by Bodenhamer. He said a commission has been named by President Hoover, following Congressional action, to study a plan for a universal draft of men and property in event of war. This principle, advocated for eight years by the American Legion, is aimed to distribute the burden of war equally as to man-power and material resources, he said.

AGENCIES MERGED

Consolidation of the United States Veterans' Bureau, Pension Bureau, Old Soldiers' Home Agency and other veterans' welfare branches of the government is being brought about through legislation fostered by the Legion, Bodenhamer declared.

Department Commander Kincaid promised action will be taken in the convention on the problem of unemployment. There are 50,000 ex-service men in California out of work, 6000 of them Legionnaires, he said. "They are looking to us for assistance in the solution of this problem," he declared.

The American Legion in California now numbers 286 posts with a membership of 58,212, Kincaid reported. The State, sixth in population, ranks fourth in strength in the Legion.

The women's auxiliary, 40 et 8 Society and 8 et 40 Society, affiliated orders of the Legion, also met in convention today.

LOS ANGELES BIDS

Los Angeles will make a bid for the 1931 Legion convention at the coming meeting in Boston, a telegram from John C. Austin, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, announced.

Hollywood Post with a percentage of 93.85 won the band contest tonight. Zane Irwin Post, San Francisco, won second place with 93.2 per cent; Karl Ross Post, Stockton, third, with 90.85 per cent, and San Francisco County Council, fourth, with 84.5 points.

The drum and bugle corps of the South Pasadena post defeated the Long Beach corps, last year's winner, to capture the State championship.

South Pasadena's score was 165.45, and that of Long Beach 158. Beverly Hills took third place with 156.95; Riverside and Los Angeles were tied for fourth, with 155.70, and Maywood finished last, with 153.95.

Job Applicant Trampled on by Unemployed

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (AP)—A 56-year-old job hunter was trampled and hurt painfully by a crowd of more than 5000 unemployed who tried to push their way into the city's free employment bureau when its doors were unlocked this morning.

The man, Jacob Snappy, was taken to a hospital and treated for scalp lacerations. Several other persons received minor injuries in the crush, but declined medical attention.

The line began to form outside the employment bureau at 3 a.m. and officials estimated that almost 6000 were waiting when the doors were opened.

Quake Fatality Figures Reduced

ROME, Aug. 18. (AP)—An announcement of the Fascist party said today the total death in the earthquake of July 23 numbered only 1475, in contrast to the previous official total of 2142.

The statement said the reason for the reduction is that many persons have been found who previously did not answer roll call in the stricken towns because they had fled to the hills or to relatives in other villages.

Three States' Censuses Given

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—State population summaries for New Mexico, Montana and Idaho were announced today by the Census Bureau as follows:

HIGH-UP ON ZUTA LIST

Gangster's Data Disclosed

Evanston Police Chief Put in Role of Borrower from Vice Lord

Judges, ex-State Senator, Police and City Editor Catalogued

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive) Two new disclosures from the safety-deposit boxes of Jack Zuta, murdered vice lord and gang leader, were made tonight by Assistant State's Attorneys Charles F. Rathbun and James E. McShane, and Pat Roche, chief investigator for State's Attorney Swanson.

They were:

A letter on the official stationery of the police department of the city of Evanston, signed "Bill Freeman" in which the writer asked Zuta for a loan of "four C's" ($400.) William Freeman, Chief of Police of Evanston, was questioned, and admitted the signature was his. Chief Freeman stated that he did not recall writing the letter, but he admitted having borrowed $300 from Zuta which has not been repaid.

A check for $50, uncashed, made payable to currency and signed by John Craig. John Craig, city editor of the Chicago Daily News, questioned by the prosecutors, admitted that he had written the check, and that Zuta had cashed it. Mr. Craig declared that when the check was not paid through the bank, he sought Zuta out and repaid the $50 in cash.

LIST DISCLOSED

The State's Attorney's aides stated that other evidence found in Zuta's vaults, some of which involves further public officials, politicians and others, is under investigation. A list of the principal persons thus far involved included the following:

William Freeman, Chief of Police of Evanston.

Judge Joseph W. Schulman of the Municipal Court.

Emanuel Eller, former judge of the Municipal, Superior and Criminal courts.

Louis I. Fisher, attorney for various dog-track interests.

George Van Lent, former State Senator.

Richard J. Williams, sergeant of police, recently assigned to investigation work for Albert R. Brunker, chairman of the Civic Safety Commission.

After the check was made public tonight, Mr. Craig was asked in an interview to give his explanation of it.

"I was at the Liberty Inn, and I wanted to cash a check. Zuta was there and he agreed to cash it for me, and did.

"After a month or so, I noticed the check did not come through the bank, so I inquired about it from Zuta. He said the matter was all right. I replied that I did not do

DERBY GIRL GETS LOST

Lands 150 Miles from Goal

Ruth Barron, Forced Down Off Course, Hopes to Join Racers Today

Mrs. O'Donnell Leads with Miss Doig Second at Phoenix

HOLBROOK (Ariz.) Aug. 18. (AP) Ruth Barron, Hollywood (Cal.) entry in the national women's air derby, made a forced landing in a cornfield near Heber, Ariz., forty miles south of here, shortly after 4 p.m. tonight. She said the gasoline line on her plane became clogged. She was not injured and her plane was only slightly damaged in the landing.

Miss Barron said her watch stopped an hour after she left Calexico, Cal., on the third lap of the derby bound for Phoenix, and she did not recognize the night control point in passing fifteen miles north of the Arizona capital.

GOAL MISSED

After flying for more than two hours, she said, she judged by the amount of gasoline used she had missed Phoenix, but "I just kept on flying knowing I would sight a town sometime, and hoping it would be before dark."

After landing the aviatrix walked six miles toward Holbrook, which she had seen from the air, and a rancher gave her a lift in his automobile.

MOUNTAINS CROSSED

In missing Phoenix, Miss Barron added more than 100 miles of treacherous terrain to her assignment for the afternoon under derby schedules. She was forced to cross two mountain ranges with peaks more than 8000 feet high. There are no emergency landing fields between Phoenix and Holbrook, 150 miles southward.

Miss Barron communicated with derby officials in Phoenix, and was told a plane will take off tomorrow to bring her a mechanics and fuel. She said she believed she will be able to join the flyers in the race at Tucson, Ariz., the noon stop tomorrow, or at Douglas, Ariz., the night control point.

FIVE ENTRANTS LAND AT PHOENIX

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Five entrants in the Long Beach-Chicago women's air derby were safely in Phoenix tonight, while the sixth, Miss Ruth Barron of Hollywood, missed her mark and came down forty miles south of Holbrook, Ariz.

Miss Barron, who was five minutes late in leaving Calexico, the midway control point, because of motor trouble, had dropped from sight when C. F. Lienbach, oil company official, traversed the course twenty minutes behind her. She did not appear at the Yuma (Ariz.) Airport, or at Casa Grande or Gila Bend, the chief emergency fields on which she might have landed. When she was an hour overdue, the searching planes took off from Phoenix immediately, in an effort to cover as much of the desert route as possible before dark. It was not until after they had returned from their fruitless quest that they learned she had appeared at Holbrook, 150 miles northwest of here.

MRS. O'DONNELL LEADS

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell of Long Beach led the contingent into Phoenix from Calexico, but lost the afternoon lap honors to Miss Marjorie Doig, Danbury, Ct., by 42s. Mrs. O'Donnell made the 202-mile hop in 1h. 24m., while Miss Doig did it in 1h. 23m. 20s. She left Calexico one minute behind the Long Beach woman, who had beaten her by nearly eight minutes on the flight from San Diego to Calexico this morning. Mrs. O'Donnell retained an elapsed time lead from Long Beach of more than eight minutes.

Official figures for today's two laps, San Diego to Calexico and Calexico to Phoenix, and total elapsed time from the start were announced tonight as follows:

Gladys O'Donnell, Long Beach, 40m. 2s.; 1h. 24m.; 2h. 36m. 53s.

Marjorie Doig, Danbury, Ct., 39m. 45s.; 1h. 23m. 20s.; 2h. 46m. 8s.

Mildred Morgan, Hollywood, 56m. 32s.; 1h. 50m. 32s.; 3h. 32m. 23s.

CAPONE'S NAME IN DEATH PLOT

Chicago Gangster's Lawyer Questioned in Case

Trio Accused of Conspiracy Against Governor

Girl Held in Jail Says She Has "Information"

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.) Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—The name of Alphonse Capone, long a Chicago gangster, today was brought into the reputed conspiracy to assassinate Gov. Doyle E. Carlton of Florida in connection with which three men have been arrested.

A girl, 19 years of age, is held in jail here in connection with the asserted conspiracy, it developed today. She gave her name as Betty Ann Schwartz of Chicago, and intimated that she is affiliated with the Capone gang in Chicago and Miami.

THREE ARRESTED

When the three suspects in the case, Fred O. Eberhardt, publisher of the Tallahassee State News; Frank Ralls, former campaigner for Carlton, and Henry Halsema, Jacksonville real estate operator, were taken into custody, Vincent C. Giblin, Miami, attorney for Capone, was questioned. He is said to have been in Ralls's company when the latter was arrested. The girl, officers said, was with Eberhardt when he was taken into custody.

Eberhardt and Halsema have been released in $5000 bail each. They are scheduled to appear for a preliminary hearing next Monday with Ralls, who still was in jail tonight.

ATTACKS MATRON

Repeatedly questioned regarding what information she may have in connection with the reported plot, the Schwartz girl finally retorted: "I have lots of information, but try and get it." Questioned further she became so enraged that she attacked the jail matron.

Questioning of Giblin has been interpreted in some quarters as an effort to inject Capone into the case. On the other hand, however, it is said that the information which started the investigation originally came from Capone sources.

CHARGES "POLITICS"

Eberhardt today characterized his arrest as "part of a political plot," and a "cheap bid for publicity."

The warrant on which the three men were arrested, charged that they, with "divers other persons whose names are unknown," plotted to hire some one to slay the Governor.

Under the Florida law conspiracy to commit murder without an overt act carries a penalty of only $500 fine or one year in prison. Where the overt act is present the penalty is ten years' imprisonment.

PAIR HELD IN DEATH OF CHILD

Idaho Couple Accused of Murder Eleven Months After Crime Discovery

KING HILL (Idaho) Aug. 18. (AP) Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Miesenzahl, ranchers living near here, were arrested today and charged with the murder September 19, 1929, of their stepdaughter, Marie West.

Immediately after their arrest the couple were rushed to Mountain Home, thirty miles from here, when the arresting officers said they feared mob violence.

The arrest came suddenly after several months of quiet following discovery of the body of the little girl sunk in the bed of the Snake River, where it was weighted down with a stone.

The child was slain some time on the morning of September 19, barely a mile from her home, after she had started along the railroad track to school at King Hill.

The women reported flying conditions over the desert area good, but the heat intense, even in open planes. Those who piloted cabin planes suffered severely from heat, they said, although all flew as high as possible to escape it.

The derby contestants will leave tomorrow forenoon for Tucson, where they will eat lunch. The afternoon lap will take them to Douglas, Ariz.

NONSTOP FLIGHT DAY DEPENDS ON WEATHER

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Executives of the tenth annual National Air Races announced today that the nonstop air derby between Los Angeles and Chicago, scheduled for the 27th inst., may be flown on any except the first day of the races, which open at Curtiss Airport on the 23rd inst.

The day of the race will depend entirely upon the weather, with Dudley A. Steele, chairman of the derby, a government meteorologist and the five competing pilots constituting a jury to make the decision.

Aside from this change, executives announced plans for the great air classic have progressed smoothly to completion.

business in that way, and I gave him the cash.

"I asked him for my check and he said he had torn it up."

CHIEF'S LETTER

The letter signed by Chief of Police Freeman, on stationery headed "City of Evanston, Ill., police department" was undated.

It read as follows:

"Dear Jack:

"I am temporarily in need of four C's for a couple of months. Can you let me have it? The bearer does not know what it is, so put it in an envelope and seal it and address it to me.

"Your Old Pal,

"BILL FREEMAN."

"P.S.: Will let you know the night of the party so be sure and come."

When first questioned by Rathbun, McShane and Roche, Chief Freeman stated that he did not know Zuta, that he had never met him, and had had no dealings with him. He was then asked to write his signature on a blank sheet of paper, and then to write the signature "Bill Freeman." The sample corresponded with the signature on the Zuta letter.

Then Mr. Rathbun folded up the letter and so that only Freeman's signature was visible, and upon showing the signature to Freeman, obtained an admission that the signature was genuine.

YOUNGSTOWN (O.) Aug. 18. (AP) Executors of the estate of Myron C. Wick, Jr., today were substituted as coplaintiffs in the suit to prevent the merger of Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company and Bethlehem Steel Company in spite of an unexpected show of opposition by the defense. Wick, who died a week ago Friday, was coplaintiff in the case with the International Shares Corporation. Plaintiffs' counsel, as court resumed today after a week's adjournment, asked that the four executors of the estate be substituted in the case.

NEW WITNESS AIDS MOONEY

Union Leader Declared on Roof at Time of Parade

Older Target in Prolonged Quiz by Justice Preston

morning, as will Older for redirect examination.

HURLEY TO BE HEARD

An opportunity also will be afforded by the justices to State senator Hurley and John Wilson, electrical union leader, to be heard on their version of accusations made against them at Folsom by Billings. He accused Hurley of hiring him to carry dynamite to Sacramento, which resulted in a prison term, and Wilson of being active in directing sabotage during industrial disorders. Both have denied his accusations.

Redirect examination of Older was postponed at the request of McKenzie, who was so embittered by the cross-examination given Older by Justice Preston he said he "might say things he would be sorry for."

EDITOR'S ATTITUDE

Older's mental attitude was the chief target of Preston's inquiries, but during the course of its exposition Older said he attributes the parade bombing to representatives of the German government attempting to deter other demonstrations of patriotism designed to rouse American feeling for participation in the World War. He explained he was against war and the preparation for it and did not believe the United States should take part in it.

Justice Preston asked him if he is a believer in turning the other cheek when struck on one. Older replied he believes in the love of man for man and Christian ideals of self-conduct but refused to be drawn into a discussion of specific acts. In the course of the questioning along this line, however, Justice Preston obtained from him a statement that he changed his mind about American participation in the war when the Lusitania was sunk.

After that, he declared, he sponsored no articles in his paper, the Bulletin, of which he then was managing editor, which might reflect in any way on the full expression of national patriotism.

NEWSPAPER QUOTED

Justice Preston, however, quoted articles from Older's paper, admitted by him as having been written or sponsored by him, distinctly advocating nonparticipation and distinctly opposing the principles exemplified by the Preparedness Day parade, up to and on the very day of the explosion, which was more than a year after the sinking of the Lusitania on May 7, 1915.

Preston also developed from the editor an admission he interested himself in the fate of the McNamara brothers, dynamiters of the Los Angeles Times, despite the fact that he thought them guilty. He said he had seen the District Attorney, the judge and "everybody concerned" in an effort to get an agreement no lives would be taken.

This despite the fact that twenty persons lost their lives in that explosion and confessions subsequently were made which obviated capital punishment.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Preston also obtained from him the fact he had interested himself on numerous occasions in the defense of men charged with violence in industrial disputes at the behest of the San Francisco Labor Council, and that he had received $1500 from the Chicago Federation of Labor "in this case," part of which, he said, had gone to Maxwell McNutt, attorney for Mooney in the Martinez dynamiting cases, and part of which "was used in running down the story of a strikebreaker who told me the bomb had been made in the Third-street office of Jack Jerome, the strikebreaker. He said the story was that two men took the bomb and were going down to the bay to blow up a ship, but the bomb leaked and they were frightened and set it down."

This investigation, he testified, did not produce any direct results.

CHANGE OF MIND

Older said he once believed Mooney guilty of the parade bombing but changed his mind when the Oxman testimony was discredited. He has worked ever since to obtain Mooney's freedom, as well as that of Billings, he said, even to the point of "suggestionizing" Estelle Smith and Draper Hand, former police officer. In Hand's case, he said, it took two years of "suggestionizing" to obtain a statement favorable to the accused men and in Estelle Smith's case a longer time. He places greatest reliance in Estelle Smith's affidavit made for him denying the Billings identification, he testified. This was refuted by Miss Smith on the witness stand in the current hearing several days ago.

Estelle Smith, he thinks, is a woman of intense "sympathy" for suffering fellow-men. John MacDonald, he thinks, was motivated chiefly by the spur of sharing a reward and obtaining notoriety.

He, Older, has been motivated, he declared, by a "love of his country—and the State of California."

He was asked by Justice Preston if he does not consider himself responsible, in a large degree, for the dissemination of the propaganda which was a factor in the bombing of the parade.

A curt "no" was the answer.

YOUNG CENSURED

Several days ago the committee passed a resolution censuring Gov. Young severely, although he won its indorsement four years ago.

In the current resolution, he is accused of dilatory tactics in the Mooney case, muddling the tax question, letting California contracting equipment lie idle while awarding work on State highways to out-of-State companies, and is charged with "wavering Republicanism" and he is censured for "misleading the people of San Francisco" in the matter of transferring harbor control from State to city, an attitude which won him the indorsement of the committee when he was elected four years ago.

The resolution concludes that "this committee determines, in the interests of San Francisco, to do all in its power to defeat Gov. Young at the coming August primary election."

DROUGHT CRISIS CORNER TURNED

Rains Reduce Emergency in Midwest

Relief Plans, However, to be Rushed

Hoover Committee May be Named This Week

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—Recent rains in drought areas today led Secretary Hyde to say he believes the "corner" has been turned, and at the same time word came from the White House that President Hoover expects to name his national organization for relief this week.

The Agriculture Secretary also announced southern railroads will put into effect emergency rates for the parched belts tomorrow. He said the western railroads are expected to take similar action soon. The rates, amounting to 50 per cent on live stock and feedstuffs, are already operating in the East.

EDGE OFF CRISIS

Hyde was in a genial mood after a call at the White House. He jovially remarked in commenting on general rains that "the Weather Bureau had seen and done its duty." He said he believes the precipitation has taken the edge off the emergency.

President Hoover has been awaiting the shaping of State relief committees before designating the national organization, but reports from the States have convinced him he can name its members before the week is out. The national committee will be composed of representatives of the Federal Farm Board, the Federal Farm Loan Board, the American Railway Association and the Red Cross, together with members of the Crop Reporting Board and the extension service of the Department of Agriculture.

The committee, under the organization outlined at the White House conference last week, will co-operate with State organizations in relief work.

RELIEF PLANS

The Virginia drought relief committee, the first State group to be named, conferred with government officials and proposed the estimated 75,000,000 bushels of wheat held by the Grain Stabilization Corporation be made available to the stricken farmers for live stock feed. The group was headed by Harry F. Byrd, former Governor.

This Byrd contended, would help toward increasing the price of wheat and would benefit farmers who need feedstuffs for stock.

The Virginia group also urged that temporary suspension of payments due farm loan banks be considered.

The Weather Bureau said rains had given "substantial relief" in many sections. Additional rains are forecast for tonight and tomorrow in the wide territory between the Mississippi River and the Rocky Mountains.

ONLY FEW APPEALS

J. B. Kincer, agriculture meteorologist, said pastures in many sections were revived, truck crops and gardens aided, and late corn, particularly in the northern portions of the belt, benefited.

John Barton Payne, chairman of the American Red Cross, told President Hoover only a few appeals had been received from dry sections. He said, however, he believes an expenditure of $5,000,000 will be necessary later for relief.

Secretary Hyde designated more than 150 additional counties in five States, Arkansas, Virginia, Ohio, Illinois and Missouri, as eligible for the emergency freight rates on feed and live stock authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission. More than 300 counties were named last week.

Virginia Dare Memorialized

MANTEO (N. C.) Aug. 18. (AP)—A memorial was dedicated here today to Virginia Dare, the first child of English parentage born in the new world.

Virginia Dare was born seven days after Sir Walter Raleigh's little band of settlers set foot on Roanoke Island after a long voyage from England. Today marks the 343rd anniversary of her birth on August 18, 1587.

The memorial, a gateway erected by the government, stands on the site of Sir Walter's ill-fated colony.

Why Dentistry Is Expensive
By PAINLESS PARKER
Founder of E. R. PARKER system

A great outstanding fact about dentistry today is that it costs too much. The high cost of dentistry is perhaps the most serious obstacle which stands in the way of proper care and treatment of teeth.

Why does dentistry usually cost so much? Because the great majority of dentists have failed to realize that dentistry, like other professions, is a business as well as a profession. Also because dentists are trained in dental colleges, which teach dentistry to the exclusion of modern business methods.

The law permits each licensed dentist to open an office, to treat such patients as they may want and to charge such fees as they may see fit. The result is that one dentist is a "high priced specialist," operating on a individual basis, with his efficiency not very great.

In other words, Parker System dentists work in an entirely different way. Parker System dentistry is not a specialty, it is a system of dentistry. It was invented by a dentist without knowledge of business. This is the reason why Parker System dentistry is so efficient, because the dentists are completely relieved of all business details.

FIELD WEDDED TO MRS. COATS

Chicagoan Married Quietly in London Ceremonies

Couple Elude Reporters in Journey to Church

Merchant and His Bride to Honeymoon via Air

LONDON, Aug. 18. (AP)—Marshall Field III of Chicago, whose grandfather founded one of America's greatest retail mercantile enterprises, and Mrs. Dudley Coats were married here today. Both civil and religious ceremonies were performed before most of their society acquaintances were aware the impending nuptials had taken place.

Mrs. Coats, through the death of her soldier husband, is heiress to one of the many fortunes built by the great English thread manufacturing concern of that name.

REPORTERS ELUDED

With his intended bride, the beautiful and popular friend of the Prince of Wales and other royalty, the young Chicagoan today motored to the marriage registry at Marylebone. Eluding newspaper men after a hurried civil union, the couple proceeded to the ancient church of St. Ethelburga the Virgin, in the old Roman section of London, where a religious ceremony took place shortly after noon.

The two ceremonies, each principally conspicuous for its brevity, lasted together not more than twenty minutes, in strong contrast with the scene of magnificence in which the bride was wed in 1922 to Capt. Coats, an officer of the Scots Guards and a conspicuous figure in London's social life.

FEW FRIENDS PRESENT

Only half a dozen friends attended the wedding. Among them were William Rollo, Mrs. Alexander Faucus, Mrs. Margaret Brassey and Edward F. J. James, youngest brother of the bride, who before her first marriage was Miss Audrey James, daughter of Mrs. William James, a London hostess.

In the official record Field gave his age as 36 and his bride's was entered as 28.

When the religious ceremony had been completed the beautiful Mrs. Field restrained her husband while they posed for many photographs. Most of their honeymoon will be spent on the continent and their journeys will be made largely by air, Field having recently shipped his personal plane from the United States for the purpose. After several months the couple will take up residence in Chicago.

Capt. Eaker Has to Use His Chute

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—Capt. Ira C. Eaker, one of the Army's crack pilots, today joined the Caterpillar Club at Bolling Field when his plane became disabled and he took to his parachute. The plane was wrecked, but Eaker escaped with minor injuries.

Capt. Eaker was in command of the Army plane Question Mark when it established an endurance record in Los Angeles nearly two years ago.

TWO MORE ARRESTED IN BOMBING

Eight Now Booked on Charge of Blasting Coal Field from Airplane

PROVIDENCE (Ky.) Aug. 18. (AP) Two more arrests in connection with the recent airplane raid on Western Kentucky coal fields were announced here today, bringing the total to eight.

Carol Vaughan, 28 years of age, and Angus Merritt, 35, were placed in jail in default of $5000 bail each. They were charged with banding and confederating for the purpose of intimidating and shooting from ambush. Legally the airplane was termed an "ambush."

It was announced search had been started for two more coal miners, Edward Heckelbeck and Raymond Edmond of Ziegler, Ill., for whom warrants have been issued charging them with having brought together the alleged conspirators and Paul Montgomery. The latter is a Murphysboro (Ill.) aviator, confessed to piloting the plane.

SEX RIDDLE PARTLY SOLVED

Female Body Stands Heat Better and Slows Up Less in Metabolism, Offering New Clew

COLD SPRINGS HARBOR (N. Y.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Discovery that the feminine body stands high temperature better than the male has been made at Carnegie Institution.

The finding is said by its author, Dr. Oscar Riddle, to be an important part of the processes of nature that determine sex.

He finds high temperature slows down male metabolism more than female. It was disclosed in five years' experimenting with ring doves and pigeons, but Dr. Riddle quotes experiments of several other scientists to show it probably applies also to humans.

"We are now able to report and fully establish—for the first time in any animal," he says in a report written for the second international sex congress, "a differential response in the sexes to metabolism measurements at higher and lower temperatures."

At 68 deg. the males showed an energy production of 3861 calories; the females 3749. When the temperature was raised to 86 deg. F. the male calory production dropped to 2777, going lower than the female, which dropped only to 2989. The decrease was 28.1 per cent for the males and 20.3 for the females.

MORE RED BLOOD CELLS

Dr. Riddle says the male, including man, has more red blood cells than the female and more of the red pigment that gives the color to blood. This pigment, hemoglobin, is the stuff that picks up oxygen in the lungs and carries it through the body. In ring doves and pigeons the excess red pigment of the male is 7 to 9 per cent.

"Upon and around such general conditions," says Dr. Riddle, "as higher level of tissue oxidations (use of oxygen) in the male, differential sex response to temperature, and extra hemoglobin in the male blood, are suspended the vital functional levels of most or all the parts of the organism. These are the things that most directly determine muscular and all other effort expended in respiration, the work of the circulatory organs, the regulation of heat loss, together with the level and degree of nerve action thus involved; directly or indirectly they calibrate the digestive work, secretory flow and excretory output.

VITAL THINGS

"They are thus deeply vital, internal and functional things. They operate and persist during all stages of life. They are the various facets of basic metabolic difference—each stage of which is easily identifiable and measurable also as a sex difference. They constitute the primary sex difference."

Dr. Riddle says the metabolism differences should lead to better understanding of the work of those scientists who now fix at will the sex of some small animals before birth, and of those who at will cause sex to change or reverse in some living things of very simple structure.

Hello! Friends!

Yesterday Monday, I tried to sit in a tree, not for an endurance record, but for a little rest, the afternoon stream of visitors was so large that I had to come down and greet them.

"What a beautiful garden," they said. Yes, the garden is one of the most attractive in the County of L. A. and I am proud of it.

"GLOOMY DEAN" DISCUSSES SEX

Inge Says Revolt on Against Rule of "Mrs. Grundy"

He Declares Birth Control Cannot be Halted

Suicide Partially Upheld by London Churchman

LONDON, Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—The ethics of birth control, pardonable suicide, sexual morality and the present-day revolt against "Mrs. Grundy," were some of the current problems dealt with outspokenly and provocatively by Dean Ralph Inge, known as London's "gloomy dean," in his presidential address to the modern churchmen's conference at Oxford tonight.

Contrasting the Victorian Age with today Dean Inge declared that the present generation, especially since the World War, has revolted against the rule of Mrs. Grundy.

LUST DISCUSSED

"It is realised that the facts are very different from the Victorian convention which was only kept up with the help of a vast amount of hypocrisy," he said.

"Many people of the present day do not admit there is anything necessarily contaminating in uncontrolled union. They attempt to dignify lust by calling it love, arguing that if a married man or woman felt a physical attraction to a person other than his or her legal "love" mate he or she should be the law giver and give dispensation to all earlier vows," the dean said.

Dean Inge characterised this as repulsive, declaring "the true Christian idea is that for a man or woman to break this most solemn contract is an exceptionally disgraceful act which no decent person should seriously attempt to commit."

BIRTH CONTROL

Dealing with birth control, Dean Inge is of the opinion that "we cannot prevent new knowledge from being used by unmarried persons and selfish couples who do not wish to have children. Some method of checking the natural growth of numbers beyond a means of subsistence has nearly always been practiced everywhere. It is useless to discuss morality and birth control apart from these considerations."

Touching on the question of whether the condemnation of suicide by traditional Christian ethics is not too sweeping, the dean declared, "every criminal condemned to death ought to be allowed to carry out the sentence upon himself in his own way. I should not censure a man who, knowing he was dying slowly of an agonizing disease, wishes to shorten his sufferings."

Concluding, Dean Inge hopes the English people will be on guard against supposing that post-war years represent a permanent change in attitude toward social and moral questions. "For instance, the outbreak of sexual laxity is a familiar consequence of war and revolution," he said.

MODERN WOMEN GET GRAY FAST

Cliffeur Blames Fact Not on Cocktails but Lack of Brushing

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Young women today are turning gray five years sooner than their mothers did and ten years earlier than their grandmothers. The authority for this statement is Otto De Donato of St. Louis, descendant of eleven generations of coiffeurs, the first of which curled the locks of Florentine ladies in the days when Florence was a separate nation.

Asked for his reasons why the gray threads are rushing matters, De Donato gestured expressively with his hands and said:

"No, no; not cocktails, not late hours, not the strain of modern living, but lack of application of the hair brush in the way mother used to use it."

Aviation Output Value Increases

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—The value of aviation products manufactured in the United States in 1929 was placed at $61,973,079 by the Census Bureau.

The output, consisting mainly of 5130 airplanes valued at $38,724,987; engines and parts valued at $8,187,285, and 6186 parachutes costing $1,497,000, exceeded the production in 1927, the first year a census valuation was completed, by 192 per cent.

There were seventy aircraft manufacturing establishments employing 4442 persons in 1927, while in 1929 there were 117 factories employing 9856 persons.

CHANGSHA PERIL BRINGS EXODUS

Foreign Properties will be Left at Mercy of Reds

Standard Oil to Close Plant; British Consul to Leave

Siang River Level Falls and Gunboats Must Depart

SHANGHAI, Aug. 18. (AP)—Many valuable foreign properties at Changsha soon will be left at the mercy of the continually changing Chinese political and Communist factions in the Hunan Province capital which recently was plundered and partly burned by Red armies.

Dispatches today say the Siang River, which connects Changsha with the Yangtse, is falling, necessitating the withdrawal shortly of foreign gunboats from the city.

Shanghai officials of the Standard Oil Company of New York say as a result of unsettled conditions in Interior China, especially Hunan Province, the company has decided to close its extensive storage distributing plant at Changsha and move stocks to other localities.

The British government is said to be planning to close its consulate at Changsha because of turbulent conditions. The American consulate was closed in 1926 during political disorders then endangering property.

Future events in Hunan Province, say Standard Oil officials, are too uncertain to warrant maintaining gasoline, kerosene and oil stocks at Changsha worth $3,000,000 gold. The company's property at Changsha, worth almost $1,000,000 in gold, is to be locked up.

Control Board Works Out Plan of Operation

Task Undertaken in Face of Critical Situation

Building of Firm Foundation for Future Aim

FRESNO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Faced with loss of foreign markets due to industrial depression and to dumping from other countries, with lessened buying power in local markets due to depression and to drought, and with a bumper crop, the Grape Control Board has a far more serious situation to handle in the grape industry than was anticipated, it appears.

Figures of the Grape Control Board indicate that the grape surplus, instead of being the 300,000 tons estimated on the basis of former experience, will be nearer 770,000 tons for 1930. In view of these facts, which growers have had explained to them in the past few days, a threatened "revolt" in the industry against the plans of the Grape Control Board and the Federal Farm Board has subsided and the leading and really responsible growers understand that the maximum which can be done for the industry will be done, though the result, for this year, will be somewhat disappointing.

EXPORT PROSPECTS

The dumping which has disrupted the foreign raisin market has come, it is said, from Australia, from Smyrna and from Greece, where crops have received government subsidiaries. It has been serious enough practically to exclude the possibility of substantial exports of American raisins this year.

Referring to this situation, a Control Board statement declares it comes into existence "at a time when profitable marketing of the first year's crop under its control is in every respect more difficult than the marketing of any crop since long before the war. But in spite of all these facts, the Grape Control Board is prepared to go forward with its responsibility and the Federal Farm Board is offering the maximum of its powers of relief."

CROP ESTIMATES

The 1930 grape crop is now estimated at 2,100,000 tons in figures assembled by the Control Board. There is an estimated carry-over of 40,000 tons of raisins, equivalent to 150,000 tons of fresh grapes, making a total of 2,225,000 tons as the basis of the problem. The board considers that under present conditions, no more than 160,000 tons o raisins (equivalent to 600,000 tons of fresh grapes) can be profitably marketed. About 780,000 tons of fresh grapes, with co-ordinated distribution, can be sold at reasonable profit, the board believes. This leaves a surplus of 770,000 tons to be dealt with, or 2 1-2 times the normal amount.

The Control Board proposes as its first step the purchase of 375,000 tons of raisin grapes in fresh form on the vines, at prices based on quality of the grapes. There will be a payment of $2 a ton on signing the contract, the balance to be paid at the end of the drying season. This purchase will leave the California raisin pool a tonnage which it is believed can be handled by the prospective markets at strengthening prices. The 1929 raisin carry-over will be refinanced by the Farm Board and by commercial banks, and carried forward to be used with the surplus of this year, in a plan to be developed later.

FARM BOARD LOAN

The raisin pool will receive a loan from the Federal Farm Board of 2 5-8 cents a pound for raisins delivered to the pool, of which the grower will receive 2 cents on the average, immediately on delivery, the 5-8 cent being used for pool expenses. The pool will divide, after selling its raisins and repaying its loan, pro rata among the growers and expects to distribute a substantial amount. It will sell at prices that will insure free movement of raisins and which will advance as the market makes this possible. The Farm Board will continue the $4,000,000 loan which it advanced to take up the Sun-Maid bond issue and will loan an additional $600,000 to the Sun-Maid Delaware Corporation to buy raisins and operate plants.

Fresh grapes will be handled through the California Fruit Exchange, the California Vineyardists' Association and the San Joaquin Grower-Shipper Association. A distributing committee will work under the Control Board, determining maximum daily shipments. This plan will insure, it is believed, sale of the entire crop of first-quality table grapes. California Fruit Industries is relied upon to uphold the market for juice grapes, about 60 per cent of its purchases being juice and table grapes and 40 per cent raisin grapes.

FINANCING SOURCES

The financing program will require $20,791,500, of which $4,544,750 will be furnished by banks and $16,246,750 by the Federal Farm Board, the total including amounts already advanced.

By such means, the Control Board expects that "the grape situation in 1930 will be rescued from complete chaos and that firm foundations will be built for the future." It is prepared for some disappointments and some imperfections in the operation of the plan.

"The decreased buying power of our own country and the loss of foreign markets," the statement continues, "places the Control Board in the position of undertaking its work in the face of unprecedented adverse conditions. However, with the continuing support and loyalty of all signers of the contract, and with a thorough understanding of the plan, there is no doubt that the complete collapse that would have confronted the grape growers of 1930 will be averted, and that the future holds great promise."

TEAGUE'S PLAN

C. C. Teague, who worked out the plan with the Control Board and the growers and other interests, receives the thanks of the Control Board for his co-operation and for that of the Farm Board, of which he is a member. It was a difficult task, since the interests of eight different groups, at times conflicting, had to be worked out. These are the Control Board, the fresh-grape shippers, represented by the California Vineyardists' Association; the California Fruit Exchange, the San Joaquin Grower-Shipper Association, the new raisin pool, the Sun-Maid directors and advisers, the commercial packers and the banks.

GROWERS' INCREASE REQUEST TO BE DENIED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—The Federal Farm Board said today a request made by raisin grape growers of California for an increase in the advance from the grape co-operative to 2½ cents net will not be granted. The growers now receive an advance of 2 cents a pound.

AID APPLICATION SENT TO WASHINGTON

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Formal application of the California Grape Control Board for Federal farm relief in the marketing of this year's 2,000,000-ton grape crop was completed here this afternoon and forwarded by air mail tonight to Washington.

The immediate problem of the board is the setting up of a clearinghouse for control of fresh grape shipments and the committee of six representing the fresh grape shippers will meet here to work out the plans. By co-operation of railroads, shippers and terminal operators in the East, the plan is to prevent a market glut and thus maintain a stable price.

DRY AGENTS DISCIPLINED BY DIRECTOR

Woodcock Suspends Two and Warns All Others They Must Behave

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—Prohibition Director Woodcock today served notice on the personnel of the enforcement service that its personal conduct is subject to rigid scrutiny and misbehaviors will be punished.

Returning to Washington after a two weeks' vacation he announced five-day suspensions had been ordered for two agents who became involved with motorists in quarrels over traffic rules.

One of these, Robert F. Myrtle of Milwaukee, attempted to arrest the motorist, William A. French, Woodcock said, and when asked for his authority drew a gun.

The other, Basil N. Quinn of Washington, D. C., struck a motorist after a quarrel over the right of way and took him to the police station, by which, Woodcock said, he exceeded his authority.

The prohibition director said the penalties might be considered inadequate, but, he added, he hopes to obtain results without being too severe.

The prohibition agents, he said, must understand he means business and they must behave like gentlemen at all times.

'Debt Beyond Computation,' He Tells Institute

"Blatant Advertising" Bound to Bring Curb, He Says

TORONTO, Aug. 18. (AP)—The debt of radio broadcasting to the newspaper "is beyond all computation," Dr. Lee De Forest, pioneer inventor, told the annual convention of the Institute of Radio Engineers which opened here today.

Decrying what he described as "the use of broadcast for direct and blatant advertising," Dr. De Forest, delivering his address as president of the institute, stressed the part the daily press has played in popularizing broadcasting.

BEYOND COMPUTATION

"Radio's debt to the newspapers for daily program notices, program reviews and for the generous radio sections is beyond all computation.

"I sincerely feel that the debt will be partially repaid only when certain forms of advertising most obviously ill-suited for radio's medium go to the printed sheet.

"The influence of radio on the press has now become profound. While its inherent limitations will never permit it to supplant newsprint, yet radio has largely eliminated extras on prize-fight results and has shown a curtailment of interest in baseball news. But radio has this limitation—it must present its programs when the broadcasters choose and not when the listeners desire it."

DANGERS AHEAD

Turning to the question of broadcast advertising, Dr. De Forest said that in his inaugural address last January he sought "to point out a very real danger to the fullest usefulness and enjoyment which radio has power to confer, menace steadily growing greater." This, he said, is "the use of the broadcast for direct and blatant advertising in larger and longer doses."

"If we consider the prosperity of the industry alone," he continued, "we engineers, dependent on radio for our livelihood, have ample ground for emphatic protest. But there are higher considerations—the thought that short-sighted avarice is at work to curtail the usefulness, the beneficence of radio in the home, in the school, as a means of entertainment, of education, of uplift generally. Unless the evil is voluntarily cured we are headed straight for government regulation."

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18. (AP)—California's nautical school ship, the Henry County, arrived at her home base here today and proceeded direct to the Mare Island Navy Yard.

She will be decommissioned from the Navy, refitted and presented to the State as a training ship for future officers of the American Merchant Marine.

The Henry County was brought from the east coast in command of Capt. Byron McCandlish, U.S.N., and a crew of navy seamen.

The Japanese liner Chichibu Maru is due here Thursday with a record shipment of raw silk from Japan, 7096 bales, valued at approximately $7,000,000.

Japanese textiles, valued at $2,500,000, and additional merchandise will swell the worth of the vessel's cargo to more than $10,000,000. About 1000 bales of the Chichibu's silk cargo will be transferred to intercoastal vessels, and the remainder shipped to the east coast by rail.

SEATTLE, Aug. 18.—With one of the largest passenger lists out of Seattle for the Orient this season, and a valuable cargo, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha motorship Hikawa Maru will sail on her second voyage westward Wednesday.

The ship will inaugurate the new schedule whereby the three new motorships of the company will make Vancouver the final port of call before heading toward the open sea. Heretofore the vessels have stopped at Victoria.

Two hundred and seventy-nine passengers will be aboard when the vessel clears.

PORTLAND, Aug. 18. — The British steamer Vulcan City has been engaged by Strauss & Co. to load a full cargo of wheat here next month for delivery in Europe.

The Liberia line Haitian motorship Feltra is due here Thursday and will bring Salvador Rivas, members of the president of the line, who is accompanying Capt. Raimundo on a trip to the Pacific Coast to inspect shipping matters. Senor Rivas will visit South America.

The Feltra is to take 300,000 feet of lumber, 5000 tons of wheat and 200 tons of prunes and miscellaneous cargo.

TACOMA, Aug. 18.—The steamship Jefferson Myers, which will inaugurate the Puget Sound-to-Europe service of the Atlantic Steamship Company of Baltimore, arrived here today to load cotton, dried fruit and general cargo on her first trip. The vessel and several others which have been in the Quaker line's intercoastal service will be used on the new run.

From Rotterdam and North Europe ports, the Royal Mail Line steamer Arrived here today to load general cargo outbound. The Portland, of the Hamburg-American line, sailed during the day for Hamburg after loading copper, dessicated goods and general freight here for three days.

Strikers Chase Reds from Town

BESSEMER CITY (N. C.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Striking textile workers today chased out of this village three men whom they characterized as "Reds."

Leaders of 500 employees who walked out at the American Mills' two plants here this morning declared: "We're running this ourselves. We don't want any Reds or unions in here."

The textile workers said their wage scale had been cut 20 to 30 per cent, but Frank Goldberg, president of the local mills and of four others at Gastonia, asserted the reduction was from 5 to 25 per cent, and, in the case of the lowest paid employees, nothing at all.

Bar Group Plans United Efforts

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Closer affiliation of the various State bar associations with the American Bar Association so the latter organization "may become the means of more accurately expressing the sentiment of the lawyers of the country" was planned today by a committee on reorganization of the American association.

The committee meeting was one of several preliminaries to the opening of the fifty-third annual convention of the American Bar Association Wednesday.

A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

TARZAN AND THE LOST EMPIRE

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Shouting their disappointment, the soldiers gazed upward into the foliage, but there was no sign of the barbarian. Several climbed into the tree, and then Maximus Praeciarus, pointing in the direction opposite to that in which his home lay, shouted, "This way! There he goes!" He led his soldiers on a run down the avenue.

Moving silently through the branches of the great trees that overhung the greater part of the city of Castra Sanguinarius, Tarzan halted at last in a tree that overlooked the inner courtyard of the home of Maximus Praeciarus. Below him he saw a matronly woman of the patrician class listening to a tall black who spoke excitedly.

Tarzan recognized the speaker as Mpingu, and, though he could not understand his words, he realized that the black was preparing them for his arrival. Clustered about the woman and eagerly listening to the words of the speaker were a number of black slaves, both men and women. Mpingu was describing Tarzan's battle with Fastus.

He was acting out the scene in exaggerated pantomime when Tarzan dropped lightly to the sward in front of him. The blacks were astonished, but the patrician woman showed no surprise. "Is this the barbarian" she asked of Mpingu. "It is he," said the black. "Tell him then that I am the mother of Maximus Praeciarus and that I welcome him."

AUTO CHASE EXCITING

Santa Paula Officer Pursues Fleeing Machine and Arrests Two Occupants

SANTA PAULA, Aug. 18.—After an exciting chase yesterday afternoon in which Motor Officer Luther Williams fired two shots from his motorcycle at the fleeting car, Jimmy Riesgo, 24 years of age, of Fillmore, was arrested a short distance east of this city when the car which he was driving in an attempt to escape the officer crashed into the ditch at the side of the highway.

Another Fillmore man, Simon Rivas, who was with Riesgo, was arrested, also two other local youths who convinced authorities that they were sober and not connected with the liquor found in the wrecked car were not held.

Motor Officer Williams went after the speeding car when it failed to stop at a boulevard stop on Main street. He stated that instead of stopping when the siren was sounded, Riesgo continued eastward toward Fillmore, nearly wrecking several other cars in the mad dash.

The officer fired two shots, one taking effect in the bumper, narrowly missing a rear tire. The two local men in the rear seat were waving gestures of surrender and shouting madly during the shooting.

When he appeared in Judge Bagnall's court today, Riesgo was sentenced to spend ninety days in jail and had a $200 fine added, as he was charged with reckless driving. Rivas paid a $10 fine for being drunk.

Burbank Elks Ready to Build

BURBANK, Aug. 18.—Hunt Brothers, local contractors, are the lowest bidders, at $34,789, on the construction of the proposed Burbank Elks' Building, which is to be erected here by the Elks' Building Association. Three other Burbank contractors and five contracting firms of Los Angeles presented bids which have just been opened. It is stated that as soon as the Grand Lodge approves the figures work on the new structure will start. The building will have a frontage of 100 feet on Palm avenue, between San Fernando Boulevard and First street. It will be set well back from the street to provide for landscaping.

Plans for the Elks' lodge building at San Fernando to provide quarters for the members of the San Fernando Valley Elks' Lodge have been completed, and it is understood that the building of this lodge also will be started soon. Members of this latter lodge come from all towns in the valley except Burbank.

The wedding will take place the 31st inst. Miss Mildred Peterson and Vernon C. Latson will be bridesmaid and best man.

Tax Rate for Monrovia to be Fixed Soon

MONROVIA, Aug. 18.—Now that the official figures of assessed valuations in this city have been received from the county, the City Council is busy figuring the new tax rate, which will be the finishing touch to the 1930-31 municipal budget to be announced probably this week, according to city officials.

The county report sets forth that land in Monrovia is assessed at $5,274,935. Improvements are recorded at $3,578,150, while personal property and moneys are assessed at $1,630,180. After exemptions of $354,510 for churches and veterans are deducted from the total, the nonoperative value in Monrovia is $9,528,775, upon which figure the Council will base the city tax rate. Unsecured personal property is valued at $2936.50. Stocks owned by Monrovians are assessed at $1,822,-060, and the value of solvent credits is placed at $211,865.

The rate on each $100 of stocks is 20 cents, and the rate on each $100 of solvent credits is 10 cents, of which total the city gets one-third, or a total this year of $1285.35. Assessed valuation of property and improvements is $740,955, less than last year, the report shows.

Youths Sought in Attack on Taxi Driver

CORONA, Aug. 18.—Two young men are being sought by police to explain their connection with a kidnaping case in which C. R. Walker, local taxicab driver, was the victim. About 10 o'clock last night Walker was approached by two young men, said to have been under influence of liquor, who said they wanted to go to Riverside. When they reached Arlington he was asked to turn off on one of the streets in the outskirts of town, explaining that one of the men wanted to see his father who resided near by.

Reaching a lonely place, they commanded him to stop, saying they wanted his car. They tied him up, placed a gag in his mouth, carried him about 500 yards into a barley field and left him.

Walker was able to free himself and immediately made his way to a farm house and called the Sheriff's office at Riverside.

When Walker stopped his car he applied the emergency brake with such force the two men were evidently unable to release it, as it was still there when Walker and officers returned to where it had been stopped.

Crown City's Budget Allows Cut in Taxes

PASADENA, Aug. 18.—Providing for slightly lower taxes, this city's annual budget was approved late today by the Board of City Directors.

The total budgeted cost of running the city for the year 1930-31 is $2,454,619, compared to $2,454,612 last year.

The general tax-rate reduction will range from 1 cent to 18 mills, depending upon location of property.

UPLAND, Aug. 18.—Beware the vigilantes! Smooth-shaven husbands who leave their homes happy and carefree are issued this solemn warning by their wives, because Upland has a vigilant committee that never sleeps; at least it keeps one eye open for any man who dares enter the business district with his hair cut neatly and his chin free from scraggly whiskers.

Upland will celebrate Pioneer's Pilgrimage day here September 9, and, to give proper color to the affair, all the men are growing beards, mustaches and long hair.

On a main business corner an open-air jail awaits all men who have no whiskers on their faces. They are kept there until they have paid for their liberty, the money going into the Pioneer Pilgrimage coffers. Ontario, Cucamonga and Alta Loma men are included in the campaign for enforced whiskers.

Weird and terrible are some of the whiskered faces. Men whose pates are bald as the proverbial egg are still able to raise generous hedges on their chins, and the ornate trimmings to these hedges would do the most skilled artisan proud.

The oldest pioneer in California is sought by the Chamber of Commerce to play the leading role in the day's program, which is to include the various stages of transportation in California from the ox cart to the huge airplane of today.

Several events are planned previous to the Pilgrimage, most of them hinging about the Whiskerino Contest. Prizes are to be awarded the men with the most abundant whiskers, the most colorful and the most intriguing design.

BOY SCOUTS TO SCOUT AROUND FOR MEMBERS

PACOIMA, Aug. 18.—A new Boy Scout troop has been organized in the Stonehurst section near here, it is announced today by Ralph Lee, the new Scoutmaster. The boys who are charter members of the troop are Ben Minton, Robert Minton, Ralph Bertell, Russell Prindle, Edwin Wise, Edward Waddell and Charles Bruno. These boys will do their first "Scout" work in a drive to get twenty more boys in the community to join at the next meeting.

HOBOES RIDE IN, TRUDGE OUT

Score of Bums Commandeers Southern Pacific Freight; Santa Barbara Officers Give Them Breakfast, Baths and Free Ride to Edge of Town

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 18. "Hallelujah, I'm a bum!

"Hallelujah, bum again."

And twenty-two rough, uncouth men, some of them just weary willies, others young men starting out and still others just men out of work, a Coxey's army, who virtually stole a freight train near San Luis Obispo, some 150 miles north of here, were "floated" out of town this morning, after a night in jail.

They were taken from the train in the railroad yards last night by a police riot squad under the command of Lieut. Jess Butts. They were ferreted out of box cars, from off the rods and between cars, and chased up and down the tracks by the police, but most of them were found riding in state on top of the cars in open defiance of the train crew.

According to members of the train crew, the hobos showed their strength a short distance out of San Luis Obispo. Some of the crew attempted to put off a couple of the "vags" riding in a coal car. They defied the trainmen. A struggle ensued and, as the train proceeded, more and more hobos appeared from various parts of the train until nearly two dozen forced the crew out of the coal car and virtually took possession of the train. Southern Pacific officials wired here for assistance and the train was met in the yards by the riot squad.

An assortment of humanity was hauled off the train. Few had money, several had a few cents, some none, while one or two had small change amounting to more than $1. Torn and ragged, unshaven and hungry, they were piled into the riot cars, taken to the City Jail and booked as vagrants.

This morning the motley crew was renovated in the showers. All were fingerprinted and fed and then taken before Police Judge E. A. Rizor. The wholesale trial was a brief one. They were lined up against the wall. Judge Rizor spoke to a few of them. They wanted work, anything to do. Some had been in the State for a few days; some had been here for years.

Judge Rizor ordered the vagabonds "floated." Nearly a dozen cars, carrying police and the vags, made up the procession and, ironically enough, the penniless crowd was taken through Montecito, this community's millionaire colony, where there is more wealth per front inch than there is per mile in most parts of the country.

After the vagabonds were "floated out of town," they stayed together, a meandering line down the railroad track. All Santa Barbara has to remember them by is a list of names: L. Miersky, James T. Black, O. D. Wood, L. McBride, Joseph Ewald, C. Michael, C. A. Meyers, Tom Mooney, J. Bonnyman, Glen Barber, Henry Mattson, L. L. Sebuskie, William Wallace, Walter Rimes, Percy Thomas, D. Wilcox, Fred Chisholm, Joe Varela, Jack Moran, Herman Hauptvogel, L. R. Higgins and Walter Klinger.

"Hallelujah, give us a hand-out,

"To save us from sin."

TWO SUSPECTS OUT OF JAIL

Sheriff Releases Pair Held at San Bernardino

Suicide of Common-Law Husband Proved

Man Shot at Close Range by Shotgun

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 18.—After an autopsy had been held and had substantiated her story that her common-law husband, Fred Rayment, took his own life, in his shack on a homestead in Mesquite Valley, Mrs. Mabel Mix and Marion Weaver were released from the County Jail today. Mrs. Mix and Weaver, an acquaintance, who accompanied her to Rayment's house last week when Rayment was found dead, had been held pending the investigation of Rayment's death.

Mrs. Mix, who had become estranged from Rayment, told officers that she found his body when she returned to the house to get a shotgun which belonged to a neighbor. Weaver had accompanied her.

Bloodstains on the floor indicated that Rayment had walked through the house after shooting himself, or being shot, through the abdomen with a shotgun.

His body was buried by neighbors of the valley near the Nevada line. Deputy Sheriff J. E. Farley ordered both Mrs. Mix and Weaver held until the body was exhumed and examined by a surgeon to determine if he had been shot at close range. This proved to be the case and officers found a farewell note written in Rayment's own hand clearly establishing that he had contemplated taking his own life. Rayment was a wounded World War veteran.

Crash Merely Delays Party in Wedding Plans

ONTARIO, Aug. 18. — Even an automobile accident could not prevent the wedding of Miss Edith Engle, 677 Currier street, Pomona, and Melvin Hobbs, employed at the American Sugar Company office at Chino.

The bride-to-be and her fiance were riding in an automobile that figured in a crash with another car, driven by Mrs. Norman C. Burbank of Palmetto avenue, this city, at Scheaffer and Magnolia avenues. John Pitts, also of the sugar company, was riding with Miss Engle and Hobbs.

All of the injured were taken to the office of Dr. Harold Miller in Chino, and Mrs. Burbank, the most seriously hurt, was taken to San Antonio Community Hospital, suffering bruises, abrasions and probably a fractured left arm. Pitts was the most seriously hurt of the three in the bridal car.

They were treated by Dr. Miller and continued to Pomona, where the wedding took place, with the injured Mr. Pitts serving as best man. The crash was investigated by Constable W. J. Tebo of the Chino department.

Mrs. Aileen C. Hammond and Carl M. Bebelius will continue as principal and vice-principal, respectively. The faculty now numbers fifty-two instructors.

FINE STOCK AT POMONA FAIR

Entry List Larger Than Last Year

Miss Virginia Cahoon and Two Jersey Beauties

The young lady is a very likely contestant in the annual farmerette contest at the Los Angeles County Fair, September 12 to 21. She will present the pair of Jersey heifers shown above as just another proof of her ability to handle stock.

POMONA, Aug. 18.—In a series of statistics just compiled by County Horticultural Inspector Hussey in connection with his work in the agricultural department of the Los Angeles County Fair to open in Pomona September 12, comes the interesting announcement that this year a total of $75,000,000 worth of fruit trees will be drawn upon to supply the magnificent display of products of the soil. More than 40,000 square feet of space will be occupied by these exhibits.

Mr. Hussey declares that the bountiful crops throughout the Southland are largely responsible for this flood of entries this year.

The number and variety of entries in the live stock department are little less than amazing. As the fair advances the displays become larger and larger. This year will find a number of carload lots from single exhibitors. Here in Pomona there will be staged the final battle among the exhibitors. They are now showing their prize animals at the other fairs in the circuit. Some have won there and others have won here. Pomona is almost at the end of the show and it is here that the deciding vote will be cast. Perhaps one animal has been elected as grand champion at one fair and another elsewhere, but the judges at Los Angeles County Fair pin on the ribbons that are remembered throughout the year. Thus it is that competition and interests are keener here than elsewhere.

According to Jay Dutter of the California Dairy Council and superintendent of that department at the fair, the showing by the Los Angeles County Fair has now practically taken the lead in the Coast. Last year this department was almost double the size of the one at the State Fair.

Pair Sought as Leaders of Fowl Thieves

COVINA, Aug. 18.—Police here today were continuing their extensive search for two suspects, residents of Baldwin Park, who are thought to be the major operators in the wholesale epidemic of chicken thievery in the Covina valley.

Ranchers have had entire flocks of fine hens stolen in one night, and the loss of chickens by ranchers and poultry raisers has continued over a period of four weeks, according to local police. Special night patrols have been started and it is expected that chicken losses will be curtailed, Chief Saunders stated.

Police are of the belief that two, or possibly, three men are responsible for the heavy losses in local poultry yards, and that the thieves are transporting the chickens to market in a Ford sedan.

School to be Made Larger

SAN CLEMENTE, Aug. 18.—With the opening of the school here on September 10, next, a new classroom will be ready for the pupils, the room to be constructed costing $4500. Bids on the work will be called for this week, according to Den Acres, clerk of the Serra School District of which San Clemente is a part. Plans are already made as the original school called for four more rooms than the present building contains.

Mrs. Hortense Vernon is engaged as principal of the San Clemente school for the ensuing year. Mrs. Mary Pearl Barnett is listed on the staff again and Caroline Colton has been engaged to take the place of Mrs. Howard Harper, formerly Miss Elisabeth Scott, who will become associated with the Serra school.

Mrs. Nellie E. Land will be principal of the Serra school. Mrs. Edna Allen is retained on the staff. Miss Melissa Burt has resigned to take up work at San Onofre.

BUILDING GIVES WORK TO AN ARMY OF MEN

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 18.—Providing immediate employment for approximately 100 men, work on San Bernardino's new $650,000 Sisters of Charity Hospital was begun today by Frank J. Solt, the general contractor. The hospital is to be a six-story building with rooms to house the nurses' school and home. It will be erected on a site at Waterman and Highland avenues. The general contract was awarded to Mr. Solt last week by the Sisters' organization after San Bernardino had subscribed $100,000 toward the cost of the project.

Towns in Valley will Celebrate Tunnel Opening

SAN FERNANDO, Aug. 18.—San Fernando and the various other towns in San Fernando Valley are preparing to take an active part in the program that is being arranged for the formal dedication of Sepulveda tunnel on September 26, next.

Mayor J. C. Maclay will head the delegation from here. Two parades are being planned, one to motor from here to the tunnel and the other to motor from the beach cities district, to come together at the tunnel that has been bored through the Santa Monica range south of Ventura Boulevard, midway between the Van Nuys and Encino sections.

With the opening of the tunnel and the roads leading to it from the north and south, the distance from the Los Angeles Harbor district and San Fernando will be shortened about twelve miles serving also to unbottle this part of San Fernando Valley from the beach cities area on the south side of Santa Monica Mountains.

The new highway passes through one of the most scenic stretches in the mountain range.

Claimant of Dope Package in Mail Held

VENTURA, Aug. 18. — Arrested with twenty cubes of morphine on his person, Tom W. Scott, 43 years of age, circulation promoter for a Los Angeles newspaper, today told officers he received the dope for his personal use. The man was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Bill Suytar and Bill Clark, when Scott had assertedly just received the special delivery package through the mail.

The twenty white cubes together with the apparatus for their use, a mixing spoon and hypodermic needle, were valued at $100 by officers.

The package was mailed at San Francisco, where Federal officers started an investigation as soon as the arrest here was reported. No mark on the package differentiated it from thousands of others which go through the postoffice every day. Officers are conducting an investigation to determine whether or not any more of the narcotics have arrived here.

No charge has been filed against Scott as officers were waiting word from Federal authorities.

Tree-Sitting Record Broken

PASADENA, Aug. 18.—The national tree-sitting title was claimed today by Leon Hurley, 12 who "went monkey" on July 24, when he climbed into a pepper tree at 151 South Delacy street. At 6 p.m. he had been aloft for 636 hours.

As far as is known here, the previous record was 602 hours, established last week by a Los Angeles tree dweller.

Leon asserts he will "roost until the truant officer comes for me on September 15."

He will celebrate his thirteenth birthday anniversary on Thursday and hopes some one will give him a puppy.

YOUTH GIVES UP LIFE STRUGGLE

Drinks Poison Then Calls Mother on Phone

Leaves Note Declaring He Couldn't Carry on

Four Years of Ill Health Given as Reason

GLENDALE, Aug. 18.—Despondent over ill health, from which he had suffered for the past four years, Maurice F. Widdows, 23 years of age, of 1246 Winchester avenue, last night drank poison and died shortly afterward in the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

Widdows, who was a graduate of the local high school and a former student at the University of Southern California, telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Q. Widdows, who were visiting at the home of friends. He told his mother, who answered the call, that he was seriously ill and wanted her to come home at once. The parents found the youth lying on the floor in the living-room when they arrived, and immediately summoned medical aid, but despite every effort to overcome the effects of the poison he died shortly after his admission to the hospital.

A note, which he left, said: "I had to be done, my loves. I couldn't go on. Carry on for me. Life has broken my spirit. Forgive me. I am happy now. Good-by."

Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, Dr. Worth Widdows of Pasadena. Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, with interment in Grandview Cemetery.

Retired Oxnard Rancher Dies

OXNARD, Aug. 18. — Charles Reiman, 77 years of age, resident of this city forty-seven years, died at his home here yesterday following a lingering illness.

Reiman, who came to this country from Germany at the age of 10, was a saloon-keeper in the days before prohibition, and later became a rancher. He retired last January.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. May Reiman; two daughters, Lucille and Mary, and two sons, Charles, Jr., and Clifford. Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Santa Clara Catholic Church, with burial following in the mausoleum in the El Rio Cemetery.

COURT DISAPPROVES BATHERS IN NUDE

REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 18.—On a plea of guilty of beach bathing au naturel, Frederick H. Vercoe, Jr., son of Public Defender F. H. Vercoe, and Dan W. Stone, 21, of 211 South Russell street, Monterey Park, were fined $100 each by Police Judge Sam G. Austin here this morning. Seventy-five dollars of each fine was remitted by the court, it being shown that the youths had no previous record. They were specifically charged with appearing on the beach near Cliffton at 1 a.m. today without clothing. Police Sergeant Lowell Hopkins and Patrolman O. L. Scrivens made the arrest upon the complaint of motorists.

Both boys believed that they could not be seen from the highway, they told the court. Attorney Vercoe represented his son and young Stone before the court.

RADIO REPLACES TEACHER

Crown City to Take Lead in New Method Being Introduced in Schools

PASADENA, Aug. 18.—Pupils will have less chance to "sass" the school principal if studies undertaken here today prove the practicability of connecting radio receivers in classrooms with a microphone in the administration office.

As a preliminary step in testing the adaptability of the radio for instruction and as an administrative aid in the public schools, orders were given to wire the new Charles W. Eliot Junior High School for radio reception.

Classrooms under his supervision, installation in classrooms of receiving stations would make it possible for the children to hear noted speakers and musicians without the loss of time incident to leaving their study rooms.

Announcement was made recently that one of the large corporations has provided a large fund to carry forward investigations of the educational policies of radio broadcasting.

Business Depression Laid to President Hoover

Representative Tilson Hurls Defiant Answer

Democrats Offer No Remedy, Floor Leader Says

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—President Hoover and the Republican party were assailed tonight in a radio speech by Jouett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, and a bristling reply was issued immediately by a Republican spokesman.

Speaking over the National Broadcasting System, Shouse criticised the tariff bill and the farm-relief program and asserted President Hoover must assume partial responsibility for the business depression.

In a reply issued through the Republican National Committee Representative Tilson of Connecticut, the House Republican floor leader, described the speech as "an amazing collection of half-truths, misstatements, abuse and criticism."

HOOVER'S FAULT

Shouse asserted the price of farm products had steadily declined since passage of the Farm Relief Act and President Hoover had failed to warn against speculation while he was Secretary of Commerce or President-elect.

The speech was interpreted as an indication of the campaign mapped out by the Democrats for the fall elections.

Tilson in reply said: "Save for this abuse and criticism, this spokesman for John J. Raskob, the real directing head of the Democratic organization, stood before the microphone empty-handed.

"He failed to suggest a cure for a single thing which he criticised," he added.

"If the Democrats have a constructive program in this Congressional campaign why did not Mr. Shouse present it? If they have specific remedies, why did not Mr. Shouse let the nation in on the secret? Why did he feel compelled to confine himself wholly to negative, destructive criticism?

"Instead of offering a constructive program as his listeners had every right to expect him to do at this time he presented the regrettable spectacle of the at least verbal leader of a political party literally gloating over the economic distress of the country."

Referring to the stock market decline, Tilson said Shouse "dismisses in a sentence all the great work the President did in cushioning the fall and averting the panic which usually follows such a tremendous crash in security prices."

REPUBLICAN POLICY

He added the Republican party has a "definite, well considered administrative and legislative program which it is carrying forward to completion despite the determined obstructive tactics of the Democrats."

Shouse maintained the tariff bill is bad and revived the contention of his party that the President shared in the responsibility.

The Democratic chairman said the price of farm products has steadily declined since the passage of the Farm Relief Act and the Agriculture Secretary and Farm Board chairman have united in declarations to the farmers they must reduce production.

Mr. Hoover, in speeches during the 1928 campaign, Shouse said, dwelt upon the prosperity in two prior Republican administrations and gave assurance of the continuance of prosperity if he were elected.

"And yet," he continued, "within nine months after Mr. Hoover became President, we witnessed the amazing spectacle of soup kitchens and bread lines in practically every great city of this country and a degree of unemployment and of distress that has not been known for more than thirty years."

SENATORS NAMED AS SHOUSE'S ASSISTANTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—Senator Hebert, Republican, Rhode Island, said tonight Senators King of Utah and Connally of Texas, Democrats, are assisting Jouett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, "in his campaign of misrepresentation."

In a statement through the Republican National Committee Hebert referred to attacks on the tariff bill by the two Democrats, adding King has been absent from the United States and Connally is "about as high a protectionist as there is in the Senate."

Hebert said King "could have only the vaguest sort of notion as to what has been going on in Washington," because of his long absence. King recently returned from Europe.

Hebert added if Connally had had his way "even some things which the Republicans succeeded in keeping on the free list would have been dutiable at high rates, namely petroleum, fuel oil, gasoline and other products of petroleum."

Julian Outlaw Well Checked

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 18. (AP) The latest fire menace to Oklahoma City's south-lying suburbs and industrial sections was choked today by workmen who shut in the C. C. Julian Oil and Royalty Company's No. 2 Houser gusher after it had blown wild for twenty-five hours.

Cement pumped into the hole at high pressure killed the well, enabling workmen to remove connections.

Families in the imperiled area fled their homes, a fire guard maintained a constant vigil, other producing wells near by were stilled and traffic was shunted off the paved highway near the well.

SUSPENSION OF DRY OFFICIAL ANNOUNCED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—Prohibition Director Woodcock said tonight George Golding, prohibition administrator at Albany, New York, has been suspended on charges "involving misconduct with several stenographers in his office extending over a period of a year."

THIS DROUGHT LONG ONE

Scientists of Botanical Congress Discuss Dry Spell on Earth that Lasted Millions of Years

BY DR. FRANK THONE

CAMBRIDGE (Eng.) Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Suppose the drought should extend millions of years instead of a few weeks; what would happen to the vegetation then. This was discussed by two eminent botanists, Prof. T. G. Halle of Stockholm and Prof. A. C. Seward of Cambridge at the Fifth International Botanical Congress meeting here today.

Evolution on a grand scale would be promoted if the drought experienced this summer were stretched to extend millions of years.

IN PERMIAN AGE

The botanists were not just using their imaginations. For something like an extremely lengthy drought happened in the Permian geological age, about 2,000,000 years ago, in the interval of earth history between the luxurious exotic vegetation of the coal age and the beginnings of the age of reptiles when dinosaurs ruled the earth and our present flora had its beginnings.

At that time of drought the myriad of strange carboniferous species were cleared off the face of the earth as with a razor.

Then a new kind of plants, quite different from the vegetation of the coal age and beginning to look really modern began to evolve upward in the precarious struggle for existence.

The layers of earth laid down in the eons between the Permian and the present, tell the story of long periods of great dryness. Few of the plants are preserved in the record of the rocks as fossils but such as are discovered there have leaves and roots adapted to life under conditions of drought.

DESERT PLANTS' FIGHT

While it was one long drought in Permian times the botanists find that it was not necessarily hot then. Sometimes their studies show them that glaciation is an effective aid to plant evolution by sweeping clear large land areas and leaving empty land suitable for rapid development of new types of vegetation when times and climate became better.

How plants today keep house in deserts under conditions like those that occurred in the ancient Permian age was discussed by Prof. N. Maximov of Leningrad and Dr. Huber of Freiburg, Germany, and Dr. E. Schratz of Berlin. Contrary to former notions, plants of the desert often evaporate more water into the air than the plants of moist regions. Their thick harsh skins, often covered with hairs, hold evaporation to a very low value when their leaf pores or stomata are closed. But when rains bring brief and temporary abundance of water, the desert plants open their pores and the evaporation of water is then very rapid. This increased activity on the part of the plants means that it is manufacturing food at a rapid rate while the water is available for this purpose.

Desert plants resemble some human beings in that they work hard and spend freely when times are good, but live parsimoniously when they are broke.

MUTILATION TRIO GIVEN CELL TERM

Lawsons and Patterson Go to San Quentin for One to Fourteen Years

OROVILLE, Aug. 18. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawson and James Patterson were sentenced today by Superior Judge Moncur to serve terms of not more than fourteen years each in San Quentin prison for the mutilation of Charles Randle, Jr. The Lawsons charged Randle with attacking their daughter. They pleaded guilty to a charge of mayhem.

The sentences were indeterminate with the maximum to be set by the prison board after one year. Randle is recovering in a Chico hospital. Erma Lawson, daughter of the pair, is being held for juvenile authorities.

Probation Officer Bybee told the court he would not advise probation. The court refused the Lawsons permission to make statements and Mrs. Lawson became hysterical.

Pilots of 400 Hours Flying Held Safest

HARTFORD (Ct.) Aug. 18. (AP)—In a report issued today by the Acturial Society of America, statistics were cited tending to show the longer a pilot flies the safer it is to fly with him—up to a certain point.

The report said the death rate among licensed transport pilots who had less than 400 hours in the air was seventy-nine per 1000 during 1928. Among those having 400 hours the rate was twenty per 1000.

But the 400-hour mark seemed to mark the peak in the path of perfection. As time mounted above 400 hours, almost no decrease was found in the death rate.

Widow Required to Remain Unwed for Five Years

MINEOLA (L. I.) Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Adele Neff, actress-widow of Lindley Cook who carved out a colorful career as an actor, playwright, producer and fortune teller which he ended by killing himself with chloroform at Rockville Center last July 2, must remain a widow for five years or lose her share of his estate, estimated at $25,000.

The terms of his last testament were revealed when the document was filed for probate here today.

Bloodhounds Hunt Attacker

STONY POINT (N. Y.) Aug. 18. (AP)—State and Bear Mountain police, aided by bloodhounds, today are scouring Harriman Park for William Horrner, 34 years of age, of New York, who is asserted to have attacked a girl encamped near here last night.

The manehunt began after Horrner escaped from Bear Mountain police headquarters under unexplained circumstances.

ORTIZ RUBIO FAVORS AID OF RICH FOR POOR

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 18. (AP)—President Ortiz Rubio, in an address today to a group of farmers at Cuautla, said he is not an enemy of large private property holders, but in his opinion those having large fortunes should sacrifice a part of their holdings in order to aid the needy.

League Group to Study Tax on Foreign Autos

THE HAGUE, Aug. 18. (AP)—A subcommittee of the League of Nations fiscal and road traffic committees met here today to study a draft convention on the taxation of foreign touring cars.

The object of this proposed international agreement is to facilitate international motor traffic by the widest possible exemption of foreign cars from taxation.

A subcommittee of the League's Fiscal Committee will likewise meet here Wednesday to study the possibility of a multilateral convention for the prevention of double taxation as regards the profits made by foreign firms permanently established in a country.

Austrians Honor Ruler's Memory

VIENNA (Austria) Aug. 18. (AP)—Thousands of persons who in Republican Austria still hold dear the memory of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, gathered today in 122 Viennese churches on the 100th anniversary of his birth, to hear a high pontifical mass for his soul.

All day long processions of monarchists trooped into the crypt of the Capuchin Monastery where the body of the monarch is buried.

INCOME OF STATE TO BE AMPLE

Ad Valorem Tax Levy on Common Property Will Not be Necessary

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Announcement was made today by the State Board of Equalization that general fund revenues will be sufficient to meet State government expenditures authorized by the last Legislature for the present fiscal year, thus making it unnecessary to levy an ad valorem tax on common property.

The board's announcement explained that the law requires it to make a finding on the third Monday of August each year as to the sufficiency of general fund revenues, so that a general property tax may be levied if the prospective revenues are less than the approved expenses.

The 1929 Legislature authorized the expenditure of $49,938,850 for the present fiscal year, and the board reports that the general fund revenue for the year will total $43,701,961, of which $42,336,961 will be derived from public utilities corporations and insurance companies taxed by the Board of Equalization. The remainder of the revenues, says the board, will come from inheritance and franchise taxes, interest on State deposits, and miscellaneous items.

VETERANS GET ANTIWAR PLEA

Soldiers Who Fought Spain Hear Secretary Davis

Ex-Warriors Declared to be Peace's Best Friends

Independence Hall Scene of Opening Day Event

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18. (AP)—Secretary of Labor Davis told the delegates to the thirty-second annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans today that if the decision were left to the men who have been on the firing line, there would never again be an armed conflict.

Mr. Davis spoke at a union patriotic meeting at Independence Hall, a feature of the opening day of the encampment. He urged the veterans and members of two score other patriotic organizations to exert their influence for peace.

END OF WAR FAVORED

Several thousand veterans from all sections of the country and members of auxiliary organizations heard the addresses from seats under the trees around the historic shrine.

"I never met a man who had faced death on the battlefield," Secretary Davis said, "who was not in favor of wiping out war forever. Veterans are a powerful force among us and I hope you preach the doctrine of peace wherever you are.

"We are never going to allow our country to be invaded or conquered. Depend upon the American people to see to that by adequate preparation for any emergency. But our business should be to wipe out these emergencies."

BONDS OF TRADE

Mr. Davis, the Republican nominee for United States Senator from Pennsylvania, who was a volunteer when the war with Spain started, said peace is made more certain by the "bonds of trade which are riveting the nations tighter together in the common cooperation of business."

Other speakers included former Justice Edward S. Matthias of the Ohio Supreme Court, and James Hamilton Lewis, former United States Senator from Illinois. A historical pageant, "The Man of the Hour," depicting the American soldier from colonial days to the present time, was directed by Lieut. Frank J. Palmer and Rev. Harold P. Melcher.

THANKS EXPRESSED TO MANILA BAY GROUP

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18. (AP)—Fifty-five survivors of the battle of Manila Bay, members of Dewey Congressional Medal Men's Association, received the thanks of the United States Senate and House of Representatives at exercises aboard Admiral Dewey's flagship, the Olympia, at the Philadelphia navy yard today.

The medal men are attending the annual encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans.

A number of high naval officials were present when the formal expression of thanks for the victory of thirty-two years ago was voiced by E. Clinton Rhoades, former United States Navy lieutenant.

The Cuban republic was represented by Capt. Roman Diaz Del Gallago and officers of the cruiser Cuba, which came here for the exercises.

TWO DROWN AS FINIS OF FIST FIGHT

Fighting Barge Skippers Both Deal Knockouts and go Overboard to Death

PERTH AMBOY (N. J.) Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Battling savagely in a drunken fist-fight on the deck of a barge, in what appeared to have started as a dispute caused by the jealous rage of one participant over fancied attentions of the other toward his wife, two coal barge captains knocked each other overboard today and were drowned.

The scene of the combat was the coal barge George H. Byrd anchored near a wharf at Perth Amboy. Capt. Wilfred Johnson of the coal barge Miles Ryan had come aboard the Byrd to pay a sociable call on the latter's skipper, Capt. Frank Brady.

It did not end so sociably. After Brady and Johnson had battled about the deck for some five minutes, the skippers landed sweeping blows simultaneously. Both, apparently knocked out, fell into the water. Neither rose again, alive.

Amortization of prior years' initial losses at stores was $11,963.25, the same as last year, while Federal taxes were estimated at $19,300, against $20,800 last year.

In his annual report Sidney Hoedemaker, vice-president and general manager, stated that a particularly advantageous purchase was made last February of the physical assets and good will of the Elite Catering Company in Los Angeles. The fixtures, which have been appraised greatly in excess of cost, are being used to equip new units. Furthermore, a high-class and profitable catering business was acquired which is gradually being developed and for which an attractive sales-room has been leased near Bullock's on Wilshire Boulevard.

As of June 30, last, extensive remodeling work was completed at 712 South Broadway, Los Angeles, and in progress at 33 Powell street, San Francisco, the report continued. A store is now under construction in the heart of San Francisco's theater district and another long-term lease has been closed for a sweet shop in Hotel St. Francis.

During the year an amount in excess of $60,000 was charged in respect of maintenance, repairs and the replacement of obsolete equipment. The company is in favorable position to take full advantage of the return of normal conditions, the report stated.

The balance sheet as of June 30, last, showed current assets of $336,049.33, of which $145,652.27 was cash, as compared with $319,399.28 current assets at the end of the previous year, of which $133,031.80 was cash. Current liabilities amounted to $203,464.02, against $171,360.90 last year.

Inventories at $119,442.74 were only 3 per cent greater than a year ago, although six additional units were in operation. The expansion during the past year was handled entirely out of current funds without recourse to additional financing or bank loans.

The latter was actively identified with the staff of Money Markets and Investments before coming to Los Angeles, and is known as an authority on insurance and bank stocks.

VACUUM OIL TO ACQUIRE WHITE STAR

Detroit Refining Unit Stockholders Expected to Ratify Deal

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (Exclusive) An agreement has been reached for acquisition of the White Star Refining Company of Detroit by the Vacuum Oil Company on a basis of 93⅓ shares of Vacuum stock for every 100 shares of the capital stock of the White Star company, according to an announcement by C. E. Arnett, president of the Vacuum company.

In addition, Mr. Arnett said, negotiations have about been completed for purchase of a company similar in size and of operations to the White Star company.

Consolidation of the White Star Refining Company with the Vacuum Oil Company will become effective as soon as it is approved by White Star stockholders, Mr. Arnett said. Mr. Arnett does not believe there will be any serious objection to the merger by stockholders, since the holders of a sufficient amount of stock to assure the union have already signified their willingness to accept the terms.

The White Star Refining Company has 320,000 shares of capital stock outstanding. As of December 31, last, total assets aggregated $9,060,058, of which current assets amounted to $3,226,084. Net earnings of the company in 1929 totaled $2,949,600, equivalent to $9.22 a share on the outstanding stock, against $1,522,456 in the preceding year, or $4.76 a share.

Acceptances of Bankers Reveal Sharp Increases

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (AP)—Bankers' dollar acceptances increased $44,364,084 in July to a total of $1,349,695,306 on July 31, the American Acceptance Council reported today.

The July 31 total was $222,996,501 more than the total for the same date a year ago.

The report showed that the volume of dollar acceptances began the normal seasonal increase last month, but that the increase was wholly due to the gain of $53,000,000 in the volume of acceptances financing goods stored abroad or shipped between foreign countries.

This was to a large extent, the report said, a movement of financing away from London banks, accounted for partly because of lower American rates and partly to a disinclination of British institutions to add to their bill total at the present time. The total of dollar acceptances used to finance these foreign transactions now amount to $495,041,888, the greatest amount ever used for such purposes.

The Acceptance Council survey said the gain was less encouraging than was expected, as it was anticipated new cotton and wheat bills would come into the market in substantial volume by July 31.

Tank Car Net Profits Gain

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive) For the second quarter of the year the General American Tank Car Corporation today reported net profits after charges and taxes of $1,940,782, equal to $2.44 a share on 797,422 shares. In the preceding quarter earnings were $1,709,917, or $2.17 a share on 781,500 shares, while in the second quarter of 1929 the net profits totaled $1,694,173, or $2.54 a share on 665,616 shares.

Earnings for the first half of the year amounted to $3,653,699 after charges and taxes, equal to $4.58 a share on 797,442 shares, compared with $4.06 a share on 665,616 shares in the first half of 1929.

SEABOARD PROFITS LOOK UP

Six Months' Statement Reflects Increased Income from Natural Gas Operations

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Mexican Seaboard's promising financial statement for the first half of the year passed virtually unnoticed in the market, yet it was the first statement to reflect any measure of profits from natural gas sales.

Contrasted with profits of only $14,489 before depletion in the first half of 1929, the six months' report this year disclosed net earnings of $565,666 after charges, equal to 45 cents a share. At this rate the earnings for the full year should run about $1 a share without considering the possibility of greater revenues from natural gas.

OIL DIMMED

Originally the popularity of Mexican Seaboard with the speculators was built on its production of high gravial oil in Kettleman Hills. Since the curtailment pact went into effect the interest in the stock has gradually dwindled, and whatever importance attaches to the output of natural gas at Kettleman has accrued to Standard Oil of California.

Mexican Seaboard, however, fully warrants consideration as a natural gas company. From its Buttonwillow and Kettleman wells it is selling gas to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for consumption in the Bay region, and the earnings from these contracts are running into respectable figures. The Buttonwillow pipe line was completed late last year, and the delivery in 1929 averaged more than 30,000,000 cubic feet daily. A ten-year contract was signed in October, 1928.

Total daily delivery to the Pacific Gas lines at Kettleman and Buttonwillow now is running approximately 55,000,000 cubic feet. Of this amount 15,000,000 cubic feet comes from Buttonwillow and 40,000,000 from Kettleman Hills.

Mexican Seaboard is also receiving revenue from the sale of its high-gravity crude oil to the General Petroleum Corporation, subsidiary of Standard Oil of New York. Present production is only running about 1850 barrels daily as the result of curtailment and restriction of drilling. Because of the outlook for a continuation of the restrictions after the expiration of the existing agreement in July, 1931, it is likely that Mexican Seaboard must continue to stand out as a natural gas company rather than an oil-producing enterprise.

RESERVES VALUABLE

Some day this company will take its rightful place among the producers of crude oil, having valuable reserves in Venezuela and Mexico besides an enviable position at Kettleman Hills. But in the interval Mexican Seaboard is much more fortunate than most producing companies. While others are plodding along under the handicap of low crude oil prices and rigorous curtailment of output, this company is marketing a depression-proof commodity in an industry just hitting its stride.

Marketwise Mexican Seaboard has been a headliner at different times and may conceivably assume this role again when its natural gas possibilities are better understood. Strong groups have at times operated in the stock, including the Fisher brothers of Detroit. C. T. Fisher is still a member of the directorate.

Rail Earnings Hold Steady

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Wheeling and Lake Erie Railway Company earned about $13.75 a share on the prior lien stock in the first six months of this year and paid out in that period $12.25 a share on the same stock as back dividends. For the full year 1929 the company earned $29.38 a share on the prior lien stock and paid out $28 a share as back dividends.

With 1930 earnings probably about $30 a share on the prior lien stock, substantial payments are likely to be made in the second half-year toward reducing accumulations on that issue, which were reduced to $47.25 a share following the payment in June of $7 a share.

Assets of World Bank up Sharply

BASEL, Aug. 18. (AP)—An increase of one-fourth is shown in the assets of the Bank for International Settlements in its second monthly report, giving a balance sheet as of July 31, 1930. Central banks of the various European countries increased heavily their deposits both for themselves and for accounts they handle.

Cash and securities amounted to 1,303,653,650.25 Swiss francs, (about $249,000,000,) almost all of this being out at interest in other banks. The second monthly balance sheet was simplified further to show exactly the source of funds and how they are employed. The "other assets" item is only one-fifth of 1 per cent of the total.

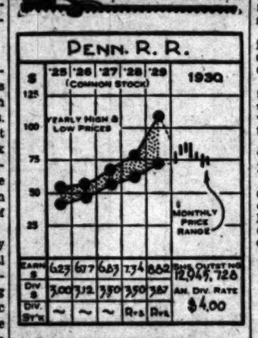
WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

One of the oldest railroad companies in the country, the great Pennsylvania System now includes more than 10,000 miles of road. Lines extend from the important centers of New England as far south as Washington, D. C., and westward to Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago and St. Louis. Directly, or through subsidiary holding companies, the Pennsylvania Railroad owns a substantial or controlling stock interest in several other large railways, including the Boston and Maine, New York, New Haven and Hartford, Norfolk and Western, Lehigh Valley, Seaboard Air Line, and Wabash systems. Should the Interstate Commerce Commission consolidation program be carried out according to the plan announced December 21, 1929, the company's interests in Norfolk and Western, Wabash, Lehigh Valley and the New England roads would be relinquished.

Net operating income for the half year just ended was $45,336,673, down almost 30 per cent from similar returns last year. This relatively poor showing reflects the falling off of manufacturing and other business activity in the industrial area which the Pennsylvania road serves. Prior to the current year, earnings have been steadily upward since 1924.

Bank of Italy Boosts Budget of Advertising

Bank of Italy, under a plan to increase its business during the present business depression, has made a general increase in its California newspaper advertising budget for the current month, which will bring new advertising revenue to approximately 300 papers in the State, A. J. Mount, president, announced yesterday.

The bank explains in a letter to publishers that the use of their space for advertising purposes not only justifies the outlay made by the bank, but amply qualifies the newspapers for the increased advertising expenditure which has been agreed upon.

The bank has found it possible to go through the present period without curtailing its advertising in any respect, the letter said, and has found also that the return more than justifies its faith in the poteney of skilfully used newspaper space.

Salt Company Dividend Looms

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. — When directors of the International Salt Company meet the 20th inst., for action on the initial dividend on the new no-par common stock, in all likelihood the stock will be placed on an annual basis of at least $3. In June the company split the old 60,000 shares of $100 par common into 180,000 no-par common shares and offered an additional 60,000 shares at $36 a share in ratio of one share for every three shares of new stock held.

The company reported for the six months ended June 30, last, profits of $322,901, after charges and bond-sinking fund, but before Federal taxes, against $231,298 in the first half of 1929.

This compares with profits of $861,665, or $1.50 in the same period of 1929.

Upon completion of these negotiations Twin States Natural Gas Company will own and operate more than 57,000 acres of natural gas properties in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, including more than 450 producing wells with a daily production rate in excess of 26,000,000 cubic feet and estimated gas reserves of more than 300,000,000 cubic feet.

BUSINESS PROBLEM STUDIED

Discriminating Analysis of Statistics Urged to Combat Boom and Depression Cycle

This is one of a series of special articles discussing and analyzing the business depression and present economic conditions, with speculation regarding what the future may hold in store.

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Uncertainty and to a large extent alarm describe the feeling of a great many people, high and low, in all walks of life, regarding present business conditions.

The more experienced and penetrating want to know whether we are on the eve of a fundamental change in the economic and social structure. And everybody is interested in finding out what the weaknesses are in the present situation that gives rise to such crises and how they can be corrected, if at all.

Which means, of course, what is the immediate job ahead for the United States as a whole, for each group of people possessing in common a definite, tangible, concrete set of interests, and finally for each individual?

We saw in a previous article how widely the authorities differ on the subject of the business cycle. Clearly we are a long way yet from understanding the nature of this peculiar oscillation in the rhythm of economic life. It seems that about as useful a step as any is to lend intelligent support to every movement and undertaking of a serious character aiming to understand better these rhythmic peculiarities in the life of the business world.

The gathering of statistics intelligently and in a discriminating way, along lines drawn up by people who know very definitely what they are after and how far it is practical to try to gather such figures, will help materially in letting us find out what really gives rise to all this oscillation from boom to depression.

With so little agreement on what ought to be a fair public policy with respect to the control of gold and the movement of capital to and from the great metropolitan credit centers and in and out of the country, it seems as though there is real ground for a thorough-going survey of all the factors that now affect banking policy. By that I mean the principles which govern the movement of capital out of the country, with all its tremendous effect upon domestic industry and commerce; the movement of capital in the country from the farm regions to the metropolitan centers and from these to the great dominant money market of the United States, New York.

I mean, too, the various phases of credit policy that enter so vitally into the acquisition of property and its use for productive purposes, such as, for example, our strange, obscure and chaotic system of mortgage legislation, court precedent, bank policy and realtors' practice.

It does seem that some common ground could be found by the elements that have some larger feeling than the merest self-interest, for an intelligent survey of this problem, which affects the farm and the urban community alike, although in different ways.

Any plans developed which maks for a balanced city and country life are worth while.

(Tomorrow, concluding article—The Future: What?)

Initial Report of Investment Unit Released

Interstate Equities Corporation in its initial report issued yesterday showed net profits of $1,567,833 to June 30, last, and set forth the contents of the company's investment portfolio with a book value of $16,812,753, and a market value at the close of June of about 90 per cent of that amount. The profit for the period is approximately twice the $533,941 disbursed in preferred dividends while the balance of $533,892, equivalent to 42 cents a share on the outstanding common stock, was added to surplus, which now totals $6,773,892.

Applying a value of $50 per share on the preferred stock in the hands of the public on June 30, last, the liquidating value of 1,250,000 shares of common stock was $8.93⅛ per share, according to the report.

BUY BONDS for INCOME

THE supremacy of bonds and preferred stocks from the standpoint of both the size and stability of income is strikingly established by the record of the past five years.

As shown by the chart above, the yield of 60 high-grade bonds and 20 preferred stocks has varied about ½% since 1924, whereas the yield from 90 common stocks has fluctuated approximately 3% in the same period. Since the middle of 1927, the rate of return from the common stock group has been materially below that of choice bonds. This condition still exists today despite the sharp declines in stock prices which have occurred intermittently since last October.

The man or woman dependent upon the income from investment funds will find it both wise and profitable to maintain at least the major portion of capital in high-grade bonds and preferred stocks. Our current list offers a diversified selection of such issues. A copy will gladly be sent you on request.

look for improvement in the last half.

Columbia Graphophone was depressed 3 points to a new low at 12 1-8, and recovered a point. The company is said to be receiving increasing competition abroad, and the stock has been less popular since the merger negotiations with Radio Corporation's foreign subsidiary appear to have been indefinitely postponed. General Theaters Equipment sagged 2 points to a new low.

American Telephone, General Electric, General Motors and United States Steel closed about steady. Coca Cola, Eastman, Hershey Chocolate, Western Union, Safeway Stores and Sears, Roebuck lost 2 to 3. United Aircraft was set up 3 points in a large turnover. Earnings for the year are estimated at a little better than $3 a share. Standard Gas, Jewel Tea and Johns Manville rose about 3. Curtiss Publishing 4, and Ingersoll Rand jumped 7.

Cotton tumbled about $3 a bale to new lows in selling reflecting weakness of the Liverpool market and bearish weather reports.

Foreign exchanges were inclined to sag. Sterling cables again held steady around $4.87 1-8, but the peseta reached another new low, and the Canadian dollar gave up most of its premium.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Moderate receipts and improved quality were the main factors in the fully steady market on the week's opening session. Trade was not overly active, but majority of offerings were disposed of by 1 o'clock. Several loads of dry lot Arizona steers and a few cars of Colorado cows sold readily and with the decreased supply of plain native grass and Mexican type steers, such kinds were in better demand.

Three loads of oaked 968 to 1115-pound California steers brought 7.75@7.90, with several cars averaging under 1100 pounds at 7.50 and 7.60. Several loads of Arizona fed steers and some natives brought 7.60@7.35 and weighed 831 to 938 pounds. A load or two of native grassers brought 6.75, with light Imperial Mexicans at 6.00@6.25, and a load of plain Texas at 6.00. Heifers were scarce with a package of local fed kinds at 6.00 and low grades at 4.50@4.25. A load of 988-pound Colorado cows brought 6.40 and odd dairy type animals reached 6.25. Bulk of common to medium Colorado, imperial and native cows sold at 4.75@4.25, including Coloradan at 5.75@6.25. Low cutters and cutters largely 2.50@4.50, with thin shells down to 2.00. Bulls were very scarce with few common to medium selling at 4.25@5.25.

CALVES—Calves and vealers were fairly active and fully steady. Odd lots of good to choice vealers brought 12.00@13.75, with medium to good kinds at 10.50@11.50, few weights Texas calves sold up to 10.00, with two loads of 268-pound kinds at 9.25. Low grade vealers and heavy weights calves sold down to 6.00.

HOGS—Short receipts and a strong demand brought prices 50@75c higher. Two loads were expected during the afternoon. Two loads of 170 to 180-pound Colorado and Nebraska butchers topped at 12.25 with a load of 180-pound New Mexicos at 12.00. A few 170 to 230-pound locals brought 11.00, with common 143 pounds 10.50. A 460-pound packing sow made 8.50.

SHEEP—No lambs were available early but a few odd decks were due to arrive during the afternoon. Morning sales were about steady with a part deck of mixed island lambs and yearlings at 6.00 and a deck of 80-pound island ewes at 4.50, sorted 40 per cent at 5.00. A deck of 91-pound island bucks brought 2.50. Medium to choice light lambs are quoted at 6.75@8.00.

Bolsa Chica Oil Income Boosted

Bolsa Chica Oil Corporation will be paid approximately $30,000 this month and about $7000 to $7500 monthly hereafter as its share of the money accruing to companies having shut-in wells on the north dome of Kettleman Hills, the company announced yesterday.

This money comes from four wells on the north dome and is compensation to operators owning shut-in wells for oil drained from their lands. With the recent announcement that the United States Geological Survey had declared the Bolsa Chica Ferguson well in the Tembior formation, the committee of operators in charge of the compensation fund voted to pay Bolsa Chica all its share which had been withheld.

Grain Prices Drop Sharply in Chicago Pit

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Grain prices underwent a sharp all-around setback today, influenced largely by rains over corn fields in Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. Besides, big arrivals of newly harvested wheat at Minneapolis, 1250 cars today, led to increased selling of Chicago wheat future deliveries, and the United States wheat visible supply total piled up 8,515,000 bushels additional, as compared with a week ago. Continued uncertainties relative to financing of the 1930 Canadian wheat crop tended also to pull values down.

Closing quotations on corn were unsettled, 2¾@3¾ cents a bushel lower than Saturday's finish. Wheat closed heavy 2¼@2½ cents down; oats 1¼@1½ cents off, and provisions unchanged to 30 cents decline.

About the lowest prices of the day both in corn and wheat were current in the late dealings. An extreme drop of 3¼ cents for corn was witnessed at the outset, but the market afterward showed considerable power to rally, although the price recoveries failed to hold well. Rallying power shown in the corn market was based on buying associated with statements from leading crop experts that rains would be no help in making dwarfed ears larger, or missing kernels more numerous on cobs, or make up in any way for the large amount of barren stalks. It was freely admitted, however, that the rains would be of great help for late grazing and also of some help to fodder in various sections.

Wheat weakness did much at times today to drag the corn market down. Lack of any big export buying was a bearish factor as to wheat. European purchases today from North America being only 200,000 bushels. Oats sympathized with the weakness of other grain.

Provisions averaged lower, strength in hog values being offset by weakness of cereals.

OIL NEWS

BY PORTER FLINT

The Associated Oil Company successfully completed the seventh producer on the north dome of the Kettleman Hills oil field when its Whepley No. 1 on the easterly portion of Sec. 35, 21-17, came in over the week-end for 3200 barrels of 50.5 deg. gravity oil per day, along with 75,000,000 cubic feet of gas from a depth of 7906 feet.

With nine-inch casing set at 6865 feet, Associated's first producer at Kettleman Hills has nearly 1100 feet of oil sand in evidence to draw from. Placing it on production seemed but a minor part of the operations since little difficulty was experienced in turning the flow into the tanks, although the gas pressure was tremendous. Gas pressure on the casing is 1200 pounds and 600 pounds pressure on the tubing.

Associated's first producer in the Kettleman Hills oil field is located on fee land and will be allowed to produce as it does not come under the provisions of the curtailing agreement entered into by other operators and which does not expire until July 31, 1931. It is a direct offset to the Shell Oil Company's Dixon No. 1 on the adjoining section to the east and which is drilling below 4400 feet and is not far from the Petroleum Securities Company's Felix No. 1, a producer, and the operator's Felix No. 2 making progress with the drill. The new completion increases the field's potential from 83,500 barrels a day to approximately 87,000 barrels daily. The other completions previously brought in, belong to Standard, Petroleum Securities, Millham and Continental Oil companies. The Superior Oil Company is expected to add a new completion soon as its Huffman No. 1 on Sec. 29, 21-17 is drilling below 8100 feet, and is the deepest active project in the field. It is located on fee property and will be allowed to produce.

Test of Interest

The General Petroleum Corporation intends to make its Kelly No. 4 in the central portion of the Signal Hill field a deep test to determine what the possibilities are. Its project now is drilling below 6800 feet, and will be carried on down to at least 7500 feet. None of the producers in the same general vicinity have tested that far, and results obtained may prove interesting, according to operators.

Since revival of drilling activities in the southeasterly and northwesterly portions of the Signal Hill field, most of the interest has been attached to those districts, and General's test in the central part is expected to determine if deeper production is possible.

New Recompletions

Several small recompletions were brought in over the week-end. The Standard Oil Company's South Whittier Community No. 28, in the southeasterly portion of the Santa Fe Springs field has been equipped with a pump and is yielding at the rate of 123 barrels of 30 deg. gravity oil per day from a depth of 7928 feet.

The General Petroleum Corporation recompleted Jalk No. 112 at Santa Fe Springs. This project drilled to 8020 feet, and failing to penetrate sufficient oil sand, was plugged back to 4587 feet, where it is producing about 130 barrels of 30 deg. gravity oil per day. It is cutting 27 per cent.

At Poso Creek, General's Hisen No. 32 completed for 200 barrels of 15.5 deg. gravity oil per day, at a depth of 1650 feet. Harry Failing's Coffee No. 1 at Round Mountain, also came in for 400 barrels of 18.4 deg. gravity oil per day at a depth of 1761 feet.

To Test Soon

Having tapped top of the oil sand in Miley-Hobson No. 4 at Seacliff, the Richfield Oil Company is reaming preparatory to running a string of casing and will make a production test with bottom of the hole slightly below 3494 feet. Top of the oil sand was encountered at 3492 feet.

Richfield's Hobson-State No. 3 on a 600-foot pier at Seacliff has cemented a string of casing at 2535 feet with bottom of the hole at 2545 feet and will make a production test within a week. This project will probably be deepened about twenty feet. The company's tests are in the same general vicinity as the General Petroleum Corporation's Ferguson No. 2 on a tideland permit and where General is preparing to offset.

Continues in Oil Sand

Oil sand continues to be encountered in the Belridge Oil Company's No. 15 in the North Belridge district. It is making progress with the drill below 5405 feet and showings are reported to be unusually interesting. Less than two miles northwest of Belridge's deep test, the Richfield Oil Company is drilling below 3735 feet in its No. 1. This project tapped top of shallow oil sand showings at 3203 feet and penetrated thirty-two feet of it.

Nearing Completion

With 600 feet of oil sand and shale sand in evidence the California Ventura Oil Company's Holston No. 1 at Hermosa Beach is expected to be brought in from a depth of 3390 feet. Water string is set at 2765 feet. Storage is up to handle the anticipated flow. Cal-Ven is preparing to drill another well near its No. 1.

SALES DIRECTOR with organization of seventy-five men who have produced $3,000,000.00 of business in past twenty months is open for engagement. Deal must be live, well set-up and ready to go NOW. Reply giving full particulars in first letter. Principals only. Address DAX, box 343, TIMES BRANCH.

We refuse to do things!

WE NEVER FOLLOWED THE FASHION . . of doing things in an ornate, expensive manner . . during the 37½ years that the MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA . . has grown to three California records.

Our building loan philosophy runs against the restless current of the times. But we've been in this business for 37½ years and we can look forward to the future with enthusiasm, because we practice economy and caution.

UP ON THE 10TH FLOOR . . of the I. N. Van Nuys Building in Los Angeles . . we see the people who want to see us . . affecting nothing that we cannot afford . . because we carry unlimited liability back of $3,400,000 paid-in capital, surplus and reserve . . for YOUR protection.

We have no feeling of superiority to our 6% thrift service or for the people we serve—because we love this building and loan work and know our own limitations. A profit in this business calls for strictest economy.

In order to know our own business we keep a continuous, INDEPENDENT audit going, and we publish it monthly. With $15,000,000 resources handled carefully.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (AP)—The curb market began the new week with speculation being kept alive only by the listless efforts of professional traders, and with share prices again pointing downward, particularly the oils. Total sales were only 356,800 shares.

Despite the progress made as to curtailment of crude output and reduction of gasoline stocks, prices have been much too firm, and rumors of a fresh cut in Mid-continent crude prices were widely heard. Humble dropped 5 points and Vacuum 2; Gulf lost one, and Cities Service sagged fractionally.

Bearish pressure against the utilities was generally resisted. Electric Bond & Share was depressed 3 points, but it regained all but ½ of a point. American and Foreign Power warrants lost 2 points, while American Gas and Electric gained nearly as much. Electric Power and Light warrants mounted 3 and Northern States Power Class A stock 2 points.

Franklin Manufacturing sold at 6, compared to the previous sale of 10½. American Hard Rubber sold at 58, 17½ under the previous sale.

Firm spots in the specialty group were Western Air Express up 2, and National Rubber Machinery up nearly as much.

United Founders was firm, while Goldman Sachs eased.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low and both low and close when same as the bid.

Convict Nominee of Reds Fails to Learn of Honor

SAN QUENTIN, Aug. 18. (AP)—Oscar Erickson, San Quentin prison convict, is a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the Communist ticket, but knows nothing of his nomination. A San Francisco delegation which today sought to inform Erickson of his nomination by the Communists Saturday, was denied permission to notify Erickson, who was sentenced for criminal syndicalism.

Warden Holohan said the delegation could visit Erickson, but ft was "ridiculous and nonsensical" to tell the convict of his nomination, because he has lost his citizenship. The warden said the delegation declined to visit Erickson socially and "left in a huff."

THREE YOUNG FOLKS DIE IN BLAZING CAR

VEEDERSBURG (Ind.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Two women and a young man were burned to death when an automobile caught fire after colliding with a tree beside the highway near here today. The dead are Julia May Eckhart, 19 years of age, of Buck Creek; Opan Heinlach, 19, of Frankfort, and Blaze Metzger of Lafayette.

YACHTSMEN RESCUED BY SEAPLANES

Trio Forced Overboard by Craft's Burning Saved by Navy Aviators

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive)—Two naval airmen, cruising 1000 feet above the Great Lakes Training Station with a student pilot each in their seaplanes, sighted a wisp of smoke ten miles out on the lake this afternoon.

Lieut. E. L. Johansen, first to observe the smudge, took the controls from his pupil and skimmed toward it. Ensign Victor Randecker followed in the other plane.

They arrived just in time. The thirty-eight-foot cabin yacht Orion was ablaze from stem to stern and the three passengers were bobbing in the waves, supported by life belts and almost exhausted, with forty feet of water under them.

A mysterious engine explosion had set the Orion ablaze forty-five minutes before, and the flames had scorched the face and arms of the owner, Herman A. Brassert, 56 years of age, Chicago consulting engineer.

Brassert had slipped on a life belt and dived immediately, followed by his son, William, 16, and the boy's companion, Jack Flatley, 17, son of J. E. Flatley, purchasing agent of the Milwaukee Railroad.

INSURANCE MEN OPEN CONCLAVE

Nebraskan Tells of Needless Death and Illness Toll

Good Health Cited as Factor in National Prosperity

Twelve Hundred Delegates Register for Sessions

Economic losses due to premature death and preventable illness in the United States reach the stupendous total of $6,000,000,000 annually, W. E. Straub, president of the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company of Nebraska, of Lincoln, Neb., reported yesterday in an address at the thirty-fifth annual convention of the National Association of Mutual Insurance Companies, held in conjunction with the fourteenth annual convention of the Federation of Mutual Fire Insurance Companies at the Biltmore.

"Probably nothing is more important to the welfare and prosperity of a nation than the good health of its citizens," said Straub. Adding that the financial losses are secondary to the humanitarian aspect of health work, Straub pointed to a health conservation movement launched by the United States Chamber of Commerce, in which, he said, 155 cities and towns, representing about 35 per cent of the urban population of the nation, have been enrolled.

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Approximately 1200 delegates have come to Los Angeles for the convention, which is an outgrowth of an idea broached thirty-five years ago at a board meeting of a mutual insurance company at Des Moines, Iowa, that a national association of mutual insurance companies be organized. Nearly 800 insurance companies now pay annual dues to the association and approximately 1500 others contribute in various ways toward the work and finances of the organization, it was pointed out.

Registration of delegates was the chief business of the morning.

A meeting of the windstorm group was held in the forenoon, followed by a session of the board of directors of the national organization. At noon, Burton S. Flagg, president of the national association, presided at a meeting in honor of presidents and secretaries of the California and other mutual insurance associations.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Flagg opened the first general meeting in the Sala de Oro in the afternoon with a talk in which he declared it the duty of each individual to blend the efforts he is putting into his own company with the efforts which every other man is using to strengthen his organization. He referred to the strength of mutual insurance companies as being determined in great measure by their ability to achieve and preserve unity.

Oscar W. Smith, president of the California State Association of Mutual Insurance Companies of Santa Barbara, followed with an address on "Thirty Years of Mutual Progress." Phases of insurance business then were discussed by leading delegates.

Harry P. Gross, secretary of the Iowa Mutual Tornado Insurance Association of Des Moines and a former president of the national organization, told of the development of plans in Iowa, in co-operation with the agriculture engineering section of the Iowa State College of Agriculture, to establish a student fellowship for investigation of farm-building losses due to fire and wind and to formulate prac-

BOY FLYER SETS JUNIOR AIR RECORD

Schneider Arrives from Jersey City Making Trip in 29 Hours and 41 Minutes

Hatless, coatless, his face chalk white in the glare of powerful flood lights, 18-year-old Edward Schneider crawled from the control cabin of his little Cessna monoplane last evening at Los Angeles Municipal Airport—new junior transcontinental flight air champion with a record of 29h. 41m. from Jersey City to Los Angeles.

Schneider, blond high-school boy with 300 hours' solo flying already to his credit, jockeyed the shiny red monoplane to a landing at 7:13 p.m., clipping four hours and twenty-two minutes from the mark set last May by the late Frank Goldsborough.

"You're sure this is Los Angeles Municipal Airport?" the boy pilot questioned Col. Richard Barnitz, director of the local field.

He was assured it was Los Angeles, but he waited for a verification before he would shut off his motor.

"You see I landed at Long Beach Municipal Airport and waited there for the reception committee nearly two hours before anyone told me I was at the wrong field," the youngster explained.

He had set down at Ontario to take on gasoline and said he was directed to the Long Beach field.

The New Jersey flyer pulled a wrinkled blue coat out of the control compartment, brushed it up a bit and announced he was ready

PADLOCK ASKED ON NIGHT CLUBS

Federal Abatement Actions Sought Against Eight

Peters Declares Move First Step in Campaign

District Chief Brings Word of Policies from Capital

Use of the abatement provision of the national prohibition law to padlock eight of the most prominent night clubs in and around Los Angeles was requested of the United States Attorney's office yesterday by Deputy Prohibition Administrator Peters and at the same time he turned over to the prosecutor's office evidence indicating that these establishments have been persistent violators of the law.

In the absence of U. S. Atty. McNabb, it was said at his office yesterday that it may be several days before the evidence is studied and a decision made as to whether abatement proceedings shall be started. In the meantime, the names of the establishments against which the evidence has been obtained are being kept secret.

FIRST MOVE OF DRIVE

Peters said his present move is the first in a campaign to put out of business cafes, night clubs or other establishments which are permitting and abetting drinking within their doors.

He pointed out that placing of placards on the walls of such places or cards on the tables in which the patrons are requested not to drink intoxicants will not be regarded as proof that the management has not been conscious of the fact that drinking has been going on, if that has been the case. Serving of glasses with cracked ice, charged water or other "set-ups" to the making of highballs or cocktails can be regarded, under a ruling of the Supreme Court, as evidence that the establishment which served abetted drinkers in violating the law, he added.

OFFICIALS ARRIVE

The move was coincidental with the arrival here yesterday of William O. Walker, administrator of the district which includes California, Nevada and Hawaii, and his assistant, Col. George H. Seaver. The former has just come from Washington, where he attended the conference of the twelve administrators called by Director Woodcock, of the Prohibition Bureau of the Department of Justice.

He said his purpose in coming here is to pass on conclusions as to policy reached at the conference in Washington. One of these conclusions is to wage a vigorous campaign to stop public drinking in cafes and hotels by the use of abatement actions, he said.

"Better enforcement will be attained in the opinion of Mr. Woodcock," he said, "if we do not clog the Federal courts with 'petty larceny' liquor cases, but leave them to the local authorities while we concentrate our efforts on the large scale commercial violators."

NO ROUGH STUFF

As already reported in dispatches from Washington, Walker recalled, two men from each of the twelve enforcement districts will assemble September 15 in Washington to receive special instruction and after a month the men will return to their districts and conduct schools for the agents.

"And among the matters which will be stressed in the instruction of the agents," he said, "is that they must not violate other laws in their attempts to enforce one law. The agents will be gentlemen under all circumstances. We will not tolerate any rough stuff."

EIGHTEEN INDICTED IN ASSERTED DRY PLOT

Eighteen persons are under indictment, it was learned yesterday, for what is described by Asst. U. S. Atty. Redwine as a gigantic conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law by removing the denaturants from rubbing alcohol and making it into beverage alcohol.

Since January, 1930, it was said

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

THIS being "greater movie-talking week," there is this to say about the talkies: They are better—and worse—than silent pictures.

They open up enormous vistas as to the superior quality of stories that can be told; also open up new and heretofore unimagined opportunities for bad acting.

The best feature of the talkies is that they offer greater opportunities for writing brains.

CONSOLATION

Henry Ford says we were really richer, financially, a year ago when we thought we had money to gamble than now. This may be so, but it didn't hurt us much.

STABILITY OF CHARACTER

The English are a wonderful people—as you must realize when you read about the taxes levied against the estate of the Earl of Durham—$3,500,000 on an estate of $7,718,000. I doubt if there is another people who could endure such burdens.

AMATEUR STANDING

The award for the silliest remark of the year belongs to the president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association—who is afraid that Senator Phelan's bequest of $30,000 to Helen Wills Moody may have damaged her standing as an amateur tennis player.

GAMBLING WITH SORROW

The Wall-street gamblers who were busted by the rain deserved what they got. It is a rotten thing to sell stocks "short" in the hope that the drought will wreck the farmers and the fruit canners. It is like betting that your country will lose a battle.

CHRISTMAS ALREADY?

Plans are being laid for another great Christmas display on the streets of Los Angeles. The plans run from redwood forests to be constructed on the sidewalks to Oregon firs. I am willing to compromise, for my part, on anything except those freak papier mache atrocities of last year.

WHO ALWAYS WINS?

Ethel Barrymore has compromised with her rebellious daughter who wanted to go on the stage, in the way that we all compromise with them; she has to let her have her own way.

UNDER SUSPICION

While I was out of town for a week the dogs and cat had to live alone on the ranch with only one to feed them twice a day. To guard against further acts of such treachery on my part they have adopted the following severe methods: While I work the Scotty sleeps on my feet, Jupe sleeps on guard in the doorway, and the cat sits in vigilance on the desk. When I move as much as two yards the procession trails me—Jupe in front and Scotty and the cat exactly two inches behind my heels.

NOMINATION OF I. EISNER ANNOUNCED

Mayor Sends His Name to Council for Vacant Place on Water District Board

Mayor Porter yesterday sent to the City Council the nomination of I. Eisner to succeed to the vacancy on the Metropolitan District board created by the transfer of O. T. Johnson, Jr., to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners. The Council referred the nomination to its Water and Power Committee.

Eisner is head of the Sun Realty Company, 727 West Seventh street. He is a long-time resident of Los Angeles, and while he has been prominent in civic affairs has never been identified with political factions.

According to rumors circulated about the City Hall a few days ago, Eisner had been selected by Mayor Porter as a nominee to the Board of Water and Power Commissioners. This nomination contemplated a vacancy. The term of Dr. John R. Haynes, recently re-elected president of the commission, expired July 1, last, while reports have been current that E. M. Scofield, another commissioner, will resign. Mayor Porter is uncommunicative on the involved situation.

Woman Killed by Automobile

...der desire to catch a street car cost the life last night of Mrs. Ida Van Black, 38 years of age, of 1260 Bonnie Beach Place.

She had started from the sidewalk to run across the street to the car at Fourth and Evergreen streets. An automobile driven by Myer Leinow, 16, of 1121 Alma street, was approaching.

The boy driver said he saw the woman, brought his automobile to a stop; the woman retreated, he started his car again, and the woman, confused, ran forward again. This time she was struck by the automobile and killed instantly.

M'GROARTY PLAY OPENS

"La Golondrina" Presented Under Stately Live Oaks of Green Verdugo Hills

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

Mimic drama flourishes just off Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood. Like a far-flung, less-known arm, is Sunset Boulevard in Tujunga, and here, too, is a stage. Last night John Steven McGroarty, California historian-dramatist, presented a story of his State under the live oaks there, its name "La Golondrina," its theme the love of a Spanish girl for a Russian nobleman, its period the early nineteenth century.

Interpreted by an enthusiastic band of actors, "La Golondrina" emerges as a grand-manner depiction of a forgotten era—a pageant, actually, of the days when conquistadors ruled the "lotus-land" of western America. Into the port of San Francisco sails a ship from distant Russia, its officers and crew ignorant of the edict against all foreigners. They have come to seek aid for their starving countrymen at Sitka, in cold Alaska; but their arrival is the signal for consternation among the inhabitants, who see in it a threat against their sunny peaceland.

RUSSIANS MADE PRISONERS

Especially is one Senor Bustamante, fire-eater of the people, incensed. He calls upon a sluggish garrison for action, action! And finally the Russians are made prisoners. Their trial, by the Spanish Governor, and a hurriedly organized council, furnishes the dramatic climax of the first act.

How they are spared; how, as an honored prisoner in the home of Don Jose Arguello, the Russian leader falls in love with Concepcion, Arguello's daughter, and is betrothed to her, is the argument of the second act. But the Russian, Count Nicolai de Resanoff, is recalled by his Czar; and Concepcion is left alone.

The final scene relates the sorrowing of Concepcion, whose sweetheart has never returned. She is now a "beata," living the life of a

PRINT HOUSE CRAFTSMEN IN SESSION

More Than 500 Delegates from All Over World at Double Convention

The eleventh annual convention of the International Association of Printing House Craftsmen and the fifth annual conference of the Pacific Society of Printing House Craftsmen are being held jointly at the Ambassador, where more than 500 delegates from all over the world are assembled. The meeting opened yesterday and will continue until Thursday.

The printing craftsmen were given an official welcome to the city by Mayor Porter and Craftsman H. Lewis Haynes, past-president of the Los Angeles club. A. B. McCallister of Los Angeles told members there now are more chances for the printer than ever before.

Entertainment at motion-picture studios and a dinner-dance at the Deauville Beach Club concluded the activities for the first day. Business meetings and discussions on new developments in the printing industry will be conducted today. Election of officers for the coming year will be tomorrow.

"Share your knowledge," the slogan of the printing craftsmen, is the central theme of the convention.

MYSTERY SHROUDS MRS. McPHERSON'S ILLNESS; FACE-LIFTING, BREAKDOWN REPORTS CONFLICT

Has Aimee Semple McPherson suffered a nervous breakdown or is she having her face lifted?

The reports differ.

And to complicate the Angelus Temple mystery, Mrs. Minnie (Ma) Kennedy, the evangelist's mother, is undergoing some minor repairs to her nasal structure at a sanatorium.

As to Mrs. McPherson's case, she failed to appear personally for a Times reporter who last night located her in a Malibu Beach cabin to affirm or deny that a Budapest face-lifting operation was a failure and that she is having the job done all over again.

Through the lighted window of the beach cabin, however, the reporter observed Mrs. McPherson's surgeon remove bandages from her face and head and again swathe her in white gauze. None would say that it was a treatment for nervousness.

From these vague reports that the two leading women of Angelus Temple were going in for a deal of plain and fancy plastic surgery, a reporter sought to learn the facts along a well-hidden trail.

First, at Brentwood Sanatorium Mrs. Kennedy was located in seclusion—her face laced with bandages awaiting the recovery from a plastic operation on her nose.

Then the trail opened up swiftly behind a physician's automobile speeding to Malibu Beach and Mrs. McPherson was located in a seaside cottage there where the change of bandages took place.

Immediately the reporter stepped to the door and requested to see Mrs. McPherson. There was some flurry about the place and after a bit it was announced that Mrs. McPherson could see no one. And a moment later it was announced by a secretary that the evangelist is suffering a nervous breakdown, and a meeting of the board of directors was to be held at once.

The meeting of the board was apparently held with some dispatch, for within a short time a statement asserting a nervous condition had overcome Mrs. McPherson and "the physician is greatly concerned for her recovery," was issued.

Back of those facts lies the report that about August 4, last, Mrs. McPherson, about to take her annual vacation, became dissatisfied with the results of a face-lifting operation she underwent at Budapest while in Europe and entered Brentwood Sanatorium to have the job redone.

Prior to that time Mrs. Kennedy is asserted to have entered Brentwood with a broken and battered nose, but had recovered and had departed for Olympia, Wash., to dedicate a church.

On her return from the northern city she is reported to have returned to the sanatorium for further work on the nasal structure.

Last Friday night on hearing that her mother was in the same hospital with her, Mrs. McPherson is reported to have hustled bag, baggage and bandage together with her personal servants and made a hurried midnight trip to the Malibu beach cottage. A physician makes daily trips from the Brentwood retreat to attend Mrs. McPherson.

It was his trip last night that revealed the whereabouts of the evangelist, that brought the sudden flurry in the placid seaside household and ended in the issuance of the statement by the board of directors.

After the reporter had watched the physician remove and again apply the bandages he went to the cottage door and announced himself and his mission. Immediately the lights in the place dimmed and it took on the air of vacancy until repeated knockings finally brought response from a secretary.

"What do you want?" demanded a secretary from a dusky doorway.

"I want to see Mrs. McPherson. We understand she is having her face lifted again."

The secretary mumbled something and retired inside for a few moments and there was some whispering and shuffling about until she again reappeared.

"Mrs. McPherson cannot see anyone," the secretary said. "She's had a breakdown. We're going to have a meeting of the board of directors right away."

Some time later, although there hadn't been a great deal of activity in the house, the secretary appeared again with a statement which read:

"It is true that Sister McPherson has suffered a nervous breakdown. It is also true that the physician is greatly concerned for her recovery.

"After twenty-two years of unselfish, unremitting evangelistic work it is no wonder that human strength cannot indefinitely endure the pressure of work entailed by the great organization she has builded.

"We have long wanted Sister to take a rest but she has refused to take a vacation, feeling that the

COMMISSION TO VISIT SAMOA

Congress Group will Sail from Here September 11 to Study Legislative Needs of Islands

President Hoover's commission for drafting new legislation for government of American Samoa will depart from Los Angeles Harbor September 11, next, aboard the U.S.S. Omaha, light cruiser flagship of the battle fleet destroyer squadrons, it was announced yesterday.

The commission, to be headed by Senator Bingham of Connecticut, will visit Honolulu en route, arrive at Samoa on September 28 and depart Pago Pago on October 8, returning here via Honolulu and San Francisco.

Last year, Congress ratified the cession of the six islands comprising American Samoa to the United States and authorized the President to appoint a commission to draw up an organic act, to form the basic law of the islands and which will include a bill of rights. Since the islands were ceded to the United States thirty years ago by a group of native Samoan chieftains they have been governed entirely by the Navy Department from local laws based on customs of the people. The present Governor is Capt. Gatewood B. Lincoln.

In addition to Senator Bingham, members of the Samoan commission sailing on the Omaha will include Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Representative Carroll L. Beedy, Representative Guinn Williams and three Samoan chieftains, High Chief Mauga, High Chief Tufule and Chief Magalei, who have been in Washington making representations to Congress regarding neces-

...of the Los Angeles Audubon Society, its president emeritus, ... Bicknell, a nationally known naturalist, yesterday issued a ... for the election of George H. Barnes as Representative ... South (Los Angeles) District.

Mr. Barnes is opposing the incumbent, Joe Crail, for the Republican nomination at next Tuesday's primary.

In her statement Mrs. Bicknell said:

"More than sixty years ago, a pioneer of Wisconsin, Lorenzo Dow Fargo by name, sounded a warning cry on too much cutting of timber and the detrimental effect it would have upon the annual rainfall and agriculture; but few heeded the warning.

"Mr. Fargo put into practice what he preached and saved the virgin forests on his own land and while the farmers in that vicinity suffered from drought, injurious insects and poor crops, his woods brought local showers and his birds destroyed the marauding insects.

"These same timber lots still stand as living monuments to his far-sighted interest and zeal in the preservation of our forests, and the old farm still produces the best crops in that township.

"A lesson like this is proof positive in favor of the conservation of our forests and of reforestation, and should be passed along to the doubting Thomas of the present day. But what a man can accom-

...Now Has "The Best Health in Fifteen Years"

Abundant health and deliverance from suffering for time to come has been the happy reward of thousands who have put Sargon to the test. Read the enthusiastic statement recently made by Mr.

MRS. C. H. KELLER

C. H. Keller, 1569 Catalina St., Los Angeles:

"Sargon has brought me glorious health and I bless the day I started taking it! I suffered off and on for fifteen years from a sort of neuritis condition that affected nearly every part of my body. The pains were so severe and I was so nervous that many nights I would walk the floor for hours. My appetite was so poor, I hardly ate enough to keep me going, and the little I did eat disagreed with me. I was always more or less bilious, and I was so weak and rundown from head to foot that life just seemed like one day of misery after another.

"Sargon was the first medicine to bring me lasting benefit. I've only taken seven bottles and now my nervousness has been entirely overcome, and every pain has left me. I have a grand appetite and digest everything without the slightest trouble. I've gained five pounds, sleep good every night, and feel stronger and better in every way than I have in fifteen years.

"I must speak a word of praise for those wonderful Sargon Pills, too. They overcame my biliousness and regulated me perfectly without even a suggestion of the operation effect so noticeable in other laxatives. Nothing is too good to say of Sargon!"

Sargon may be obtained at all Owl Drug Stores and Liggett Drug Stores in Los Angeles and other cities.—[Advertisement.

YOUTH ESCAPES IN JUSTICE HALL

Bailiff Eluded in Run Down Seven Flights of Stairs

Another Prisoner Attempts to Flee but Gets Caught

Deputy Sheriff on Trail of 17-Year-Old Fugitive

One youthful bandit suspect escaped from the custody of a bailiff yesterday while he was being taken to court, and another fled down several flights of stairs in the Hall of Justice only to be captured as he was about to leave the building.

The escape, which threw the hallways into an uproar for several minutes, occurred just outside of Superior Judge Blake's courtroom, where the youths were scheduled to appear for trial. As the prisoners neared the courtroom door, Albert Basey, 17 years of age, shouted, "There's my mother." When Bailiff George Olds turned his head in the direction the youth pointed, Basey leaped to a stairway.

Despite efforts of bystanders to overtake the youth, he succeeded in negotiating seven flights of stairs and escaping to the street.

Meanwhile Bailiff Olds took his other prisoners into the courtroom and started to pursue Basey. John Crawford, another prisoner, then slipped from the courtroom and fled down another stairway. He was captured on the third floor of the Hall of Justice by Deputy Sheriff Joe Coyle.

Basey faces trial for attempting to rob a service station at 1038 Sunset Boulevard on July 25, last.

Provided with photographs and descriptions of the escaped prisoner, deputy sheriffs under Capt. Stensland last night were ordered to apprehend Basey.

GEORGE BARNES RECEIVES HELP

pitch single-handed or at the head of an organization, no matter how strenuous his work, will not meet the demands of the present-day activities.

"We need such a man at the seat of our United States government where the wheels of industry are regulated, where the serious side of conservation may be presented and acted upon, where strong, untiring efforts may be put forth to save our remaining forests, where the startling picture of drought and desert as results of timberless areas may be forcefully presented to all the people from a national background.

"Such a man we have right here in our midst whose heart and soul are in this work! George H. Barnes is no politician; but he is a man who not only has made a profound study of the mission of trees as forests, as hillside coverings, as ornamental shade trees, but more important still—as nature's own agents in conserving and conserving moisture. He has studied conditions and knows whereof he speaks. Our United States is fast becoming a treeless country and unless work instead of words stems the tide, much of our otherwise fertile lands will go back to desert.

"The Los Angeles Audubon Society and other local organizations are well acquainted with the work done by the American Green Cross Association under Mr. Barnes's supervision, and can vouch for the success of his efforts and the sentiment in favor of conservation of our natural resources which he has aroused. They can vouch for his sincerity and trustworthiness also and that conservation means a serious business with him.

"The society has long recognized the gravity of the reckless cutting down of the old landmark shade trees and the unnecessary denuding of our foothills and canyons, leaving bare, dry areas where once our elfin forests, wild flowers and native birds preserved the verdure and added beauty and song to the landscape. In this rapid onward march of development, men with far-seeing vision and unselfish aims should stand at the head of every department. This is certainly true with our Congressmen.

"Only those with initiative and minds strong enough to stand by their convictions are the ones to occupy these important positions.

"As candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative from the Tenth District, George H. Barnes is hampered by no political wires. He will represent the best interests of the people by loyalty and honest effort, for he is a free agent ready to serve them with untiring endeavor and hard work. The Los Angeles Audubon Society will support him and his conservation program by casting a unanimous vote for this man whose work in the American Green Cross Association is so well known and the highest recommendation he needs."

Firemen Use Inhalator on Victims of Ship Fumes

Pulmotor Squad on Deck of Tanker

TANKER GAS FATAL TO TWO

Thirteen Others Overcome While Painting in Bottom of British Vessel at Bethlehem Yards

A Coroner's inquest will be conducted at Wood's Mortuary in Wilmington at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow over the bodies of two men fatally gassed while painting in the bottom of the British tanker Tascaloosa at the Bethlehem shipyards, San Pedro, early yesterday. The men were: Jack Montoya, 24 years of age, of 105 South Mesa street, and Guadalupe Escalante, 29, of 262 West Third street, San Pedro.

Thirteen others also gassed were taken to their homes about the harbor, out of danger unless pneumonia sets in. Several required inhalator treatment from fire department details under Assistant Fire Chief Baly, who summoned surplus equipment from Los Angeles.

The tragedy came soon after Montoya, foreman for the Martin Ship Service Company, led the gang through a small manhole into a long, dark tank in the bottom of the ship, and started spraying the tank with Bitumite paint.

Blowers usually preceding such operation, it is said, had been delayed in clearing the tank, and as the sprayed paint vaporized the men breathing it became weakened or sank into unconsciousness.

A few were able to drag themselves out of the hole, but it was not until the blowers cleared the tank and torches cut another exit that the rescue of others was effected, mostly by crews of the ship and the ship yard.

A heroic effort in vain was that of Lee Montoya, brother of Jack. Scrambling, gasping out of the dark hole, Lee learned his brother had not come out. He fought his way back into the hole twice, each time to be overcome. The last time he got his brother to the exit, only to collapse again when he apparently knew Jack was dead.

Firemen and police worked over the bodies of Montoya and Escalante, two hours before Police Surgeons Langan and Empie pronounced the men dead. All of the injured were treated with ammonia inhalants. They are:

L. Martinez, 211 South Gaffey street; F. Munoz, 871 Upland avenue; M. Barossa, 451 West Eighth street; L. Noyola, H. Durango, 1327 Palos Verdes street; R. Morales, 331 West Sepulveda; P. Moreno, 323 West Sepulveda; J. Peuyo, 370 West Sepulveda; P. Gonzales, 721 West Fourth street; O. Lopez, J. Ciarsi and I. Candoval, 134 South Harbor Boulevard, all of San Pedro, and G. PADLOCK ASKED ON NIGHT CLUBS

by Redwine, at least 100,000 gallons of the rubbing alcohol have been subjected to the refining process and made into at least 1,000,000 quarts of beverage alcohol.

Eleven of the persons named in the indictment have been apprehended since the indictment was returned secretly by the Federal grand jury July 25, last, and they are now at liberty under $2500 bail each. Among the seven who have not yet been caught is the asserted leader of the conspiracy, one Max I. Katz, who owned the Acme Wholesale Drug Company at 443 South San Pedro street. After Katz fled, the so-called drug company went out of business.

ALCOHOL IMPORTED

The operations which led to the wholesale indictment have been under investigation since last September by two special agents of the Internal Revenue Department, W. E. Dresser and Daniel J. Lawrence, working under the supervision of Jesse E. Flanders, chief special agent.

The evidence collected by the two agents indicated that the Acme Wholesale Drug Company was importing huge quantities of a bona fide rubbing alcohol from the factory which manufactures it in Brooklyn, N. Y. The manufacturer was selling its product in good faith, it was said by Special Agent Dresser.

After the rubbing alcohol reached the local firm it was distributed among the owners of five or six stills in or near Los Angeles, Dresser said, and there subjected to a special refining process which was supposed to remove every trace of denaturant. The process was not entirely successful, Dresser added. Nevertheless this stuff was then distributed as beverage alcohol throughout Southern California, the special agent said.

STILLS SEIZED

All the stills used in furthering the asserted conspiracy have been found and seized, the agents believe.

In addition to Katz, the chief figures are William Sinaberg, alias Billy Berg, who is said to be Katz's partner; Sam Leonard, a book-keeper at the office of the Acme firm, who is charged with having arranged for the delivery of the alcohol to the stills, and Edward Hirschfeld, a chemist brought here from the East, who is said to have been the originator of the refining process used. The latter two are under arrest, but Sinaberg has not yet been apprehended.

All the other defendants are either owners of stills or truck drivers who were employed to transport the alcohol to and from the stills, according to the indictment. They are:

Ralph Wiser, alias Ralph Hodson; Daniel E. Jackson, alias Danny Williams; Only Creasap, Louis G. Simons, L. L. McKeever, Morris Rabinowitz, K. P. Shrock, Manuel Lewis and Josephine Lewis, all of whom are under arrest, and the following, who have not yet been caught:

ALIENISTS TO APPEAR

According to the prosecution three alienists appointed by the court, two for the prosecution and nearly a score of other witnesses will be called by the State. At least two alienists will testify for the defense, together with a number of other witnesses who will tell of Keaton's early life and a number of head injuries he received years ago.

The facts which will be presented by the prosecution to the jury will show, according to Burgess and Russell, that Keaton lost most of his small fortune speculating in the stock market, but that he never owned any Julian Petroleum Corporation stock and made money on some bank stock of the banking group in which Flint was interested.

Testimony will be presented, intended to show that Keaton, brooding over his losses, took a revolver from his trunk one morning after he had read in the newspapers that Flint was to give testimony in Judge Collier's court and going to the courtroom, shot the former banker to death. The testimony also will develop that Keaton had to ask some one in the courtroom to point Flint out to him.

It was at Central Police Station where Keaton was taken for questioning after the killing that police say a Shuler booklet known as "Julian Thieves" was found in his pocket. The booklet branded Flint as having had a part in the wrecking of the Julian company. Keaton later denied that he had the booklet on his person.

Keaton, dressed in a light gray suit and wearing white shoes, sat at the far end of the counsel table with his eyes closed and never once looked in the direction of the jury box. He displayed no interest of any kind in the court proceedings and did not even speak to his counsel. When court adjourned he had to be prodded out of his seat by the court bailiff who returned him to his cell in the County Jail.

CRUELTY TO BABY CHARGED

When baby cried, her husband emptied the milk from the infant's bottle and hit the child in the face with the empty bottle, Mrs. Mildred Heckler asserted yesterday in seeking a divorce from Floyd Heckler, a salesman. She also accused her husband of beating her. Superior Judge Marion gave her a divorce.

Kidnaping Charge Made in Davis Marital Row

Woman Recently Arrested on Perjury Complaint

Offspring Vanish on Eve of Custody Hearing

Charging that his divorced wife, with the aid of two of her brothers, kidnaped his two children from him while they were picnicking on the beach at Long Beach Sunday, John C. Davis appeared at the District Attorney's office yesterday asking aid in regaining their custody.

The request disclosed a new controversy between Davis, El Monte seed merchant, and his former wife, whom he caused to be arrested a month ago with Eugen Van der Rieque on a charge of issuing a false affidavit concerning the paternity of John C. Davis, Jr. The felony charge was dismissed in Municipal Court.

HEARING SCHEDULED

Today Davis is scheduled to appear before Superior Judge Myron Westover under a writ of habeas corpus with his two children, John C. Davis, Jr., 10 years of age, and Virginia, 3, to show cause why the mother should not have their custody.

But he charges he cannot now produce the children in court because the mother already has taken them from him.

Davis asserts that under a San Francisco court order his former wife was given custody of the girl but not the boy. It was at that time, the merchant asserts, that Mrs. Myrtle Davis and Van der Rieque endeavored to get custody of John C. Davis, Jr., by drawing an affidavit declaring Rieque to be the father. Davis asserts that this affidavit is not true.

Blayney Matthews, chief of the District Attorney's bureau of investigation, announced that he has no power to aid in the return of the children until their custody is decided in court.

THREE-DAY STYLE SHOW ANNOUNCED

"Modes of Autumn 1930" Opening September 11 will be Colorful Event

More sumptuous and colorful than any similar display before presented, "The Modes of Autumn, 1930" will be unveiled in this city September 11, 12 and 13.

With virtually every store in downtown Los Angeles participating, under colored arc lights, and with motion-picture stars and civic leaders in attendance, the three-day premiere is expected to advance the city much farther toward becoming the world's fashion leader.

Gorgeous examples of wearing apparel and furnishings, as well, will be revealed in settings of autumnal beauty.

"However, 'The Modes of Autumn, 1930' will be more than a fascinating pageant of fashion," said E. C. Mitchell, secretary of the Retail Dry Goods Merchants' Association last night. "It will be a means of giving visible evidence of the leadership of downtown stores as interpreters of style.

"More and more the public is coming to look to Los Angeles for new creations. Stars of the studios surrounding the city have been setting the standards, and their influence is helping to spread the city's fame.

"While overshadowed by femininity, men are not forgotten in the displays, and will find smart and dignified models which will be correct and harmonious for fall wear."

Former Sheriff Arrested as Liquor Suspect

Charles M. Applestill, former Sheriff of Imperial county, and also one-time Chief of Police of Huntington Park, was arrested last night at Seventh and Union streets by officers of the police vice squad and Federal agents in an asserted liquor transaction. He was booked at Central Station for violation of the Wright Act.

The officers say they found five five-gallon tins of alcohol which they asserted were in Applestill's possession. The former police officer declared he had been lured into possession of the liquor through the machinations of a Federal dry agent. Applestill, who lives in Lemon Cove, gave bail shortly after his arrest.

MARRIAGE HELD INVALID AFTER SCORE OF YEARS

The couple married December 24, 1903, twenty-one days after the husband obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from Bertha E. McDonald. BABY IDENTITY LAW PROPOSED

Women Band to Put End to Hospital Mix-ups

Uniform Procedure for All Institutions Sought

Aim of Judge Hardy Takes Lead in Movement

[illegible]ment of legislation creating uniform procedure in firmly establishing the identity of new-born babies in the hospitals of the State is the ambitious aim of a committee of club women, the existence of which was announced yesterday by Judge Curtis D. Hardy, wife of Superior Judge Hardy.

[illegible]ough it has been at work [illegible] two weeks the group already has conducted preliminary investigations and compiled a fund of data on the subject preparatory to [illegible] it for official action shortly after the November elections.

SURVEY BEGUN

The committee, of which Mrs. [illegible] is organizer and chairman, [illegible] of Mrs. Arnold Burkelman, [illegible] Dr. Burkelman of St. Vincent's Hospital; Mrs. Ralph Buckner, [illegible] Hospital; Mrs. Bucknam of Hollywood Hospital, and president of the Wo-Wan Club; Mrs. A. J. Blackmer, director of child welfare of the Ebell Club; Mrs. Fred[illegible], president of the 'Roundabout' Club; Mrs. F. C. B. Wilson, president of the Women's Club; Mrs. Tom Miranda, [illegible] of the Film Welfare League, and Mrs. Jean Bersholt, [illegible] motion-picture women.

[illegible] with the committee are Victor Parkin, allenist; Dr. R. [illegible] Anthony, physician of the Federal courts, and Charles A. Buckner, general counsel for Fox West Coast Theaters, Inc.

[illegible] the committee, Judge Hardy pointed out that its [illegible] is to be constructive, not [illegible] and that it hopes to reveal [illegible] the hospitals that all woman[illegible] is vitally interested in the subject of infant-identification. To [illegible] she stated, all hospitals within the city have pledged co-operation in the movement. This is [illegible] in the fact that they have [illegible] inquiry conducted by the committee members to date.

MEMBERS NAMED

[illegible] investigation thus far, Mrs. [illegible] states, has disclosed the [illegible] by which each hospital [illegible] may be presented with another woman's infant on her discharge from the institution. And [illegible] methods, she declares, are [illegible] at variance, no two being identical in detail.

[illegible] several weeks ago, in hope of substantiating the claim of a young [illegible] mother that a certain man [illegible] the father of her child, Superior Judge Hardy put the problem up to science, requesting pathologists to make blood tests of defendant and baby. The tests failed to link the pair so Judge Hardy exonerated the man. Next day Mrs. [illegible] was deluged, she says, with [illegible] from women in all walks of [illegible] pleading with her to start a movement by which the recurring [illegible]-up in babies may be prevented. [illegible] committee is the result.

'Viola Dana' Wants to be Viola Dana

Mrs. Viola C. Flynn, known on the screen as Viola Dana, and sister of Shirley Mason, another motion-picture [illegible] yesterday filed a petition to change her name to Viola Dana, her [illegible] name, which she says she has used for [illegible] years. Mrs. Flynn, who recently divorced "Lefty" Flynn, football player and film [illegible], is the daughter of Emil [illegible] Fitzgrath, [illegible] Argyle [illegible]. Her address is 1034 Stearns Drive. She was born June 28, 1897, according to the petition, which was filed by Attorney Walter S. Coen.

ELDERLY PAIR ON HONEYMOON

Newlyweds Actually "Soar in Clouds"

Sprightly at Seventy
Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Crowell preparing for aerial wedding trip.

THEIR airplane honeymoon concluded, Mrs. Lizzie O. Hook, 70 years of age, and her husband, Charles S. Crowell, also 70, have settled down to married life in confident expectation of many years of happiness.

Mrs. Hook and Mr. Crowell were wed last Saturday by Rev. E. W. Mecum at his residence in West Los Angeles. The happy couple determined that notwithstanding each had reached the biblical threescore and ten their honeymoon should be as modern as possible. They went to Jim Granger's hangar at Clover Field, Santa Monica, and chartered an airplane for a flight over the city and the ocean.

Mr. Crowell carefully adjusted the bride's goggles and his own, assisted her into the cabin, and taking the seat beside her, told the pilot he could start the flight as soon as ready. When the 70-year-old newlyweds returned from the journey "into the clouds" they announced they had gotten a big thrill out of it.

Mrs. Crowell's father was Maj. David M. Wood, Indian agent under President Cleveland. She has lived in West Los Angeles several years. The bridegroom is a native of the State of Washington.

Rev. and Mrs. Mecum and Jesse Wooster, a friend of Crowell's, accompanied the newlyweds on their air journey.

OIL WELL FEE SCHEDULED

Council Orders Efficiency Director Knox to Prepare Draft of Ordinance

Efficiency Director Knox yesterday was directed by the Finance Committee of the City Council to draft roughly an ordinance levying a license fee, amounting to 1 per cent of the value of the oil produced, upon all oil wells operating in the city.

The ordinance then will be submitted to City Attorney Werner to whip into legal form.

While there are many ancient oil wells, still pumping in various parts of the city, the action of the Finance Committee is directed chiefly toward the new Venice field, where a considerable production has been attained since the first of the year, and where the Council has permitted the erection of more than 200 derricks.

Last week Knox submitted a report to the committee, recommending the imposition of a tax or fee on the wells. He suggested a drilling fee of $500. He drew the attention of the committee to the fact that the discovery of the field has imposed upon the city government the necessity of providing fire protection, protection against pollution of the bathing beaches, police and traffic control and the repair of pavements injured by excessive truck traffic. He also advised against any scheme of leasing the submerged lands for drilling purposes, under the impression that advantage can be had by buying unpolluted beaches to replace those injured.

work needed her. We are praying continually that God may soon restore her rested and refreshed to the pulpit of Angelus Temple.

"The physician, a nerve specialist, will issue bulletins daily, which will be posted at Angelus Temple."

The secretary, who refused to give her name, said there is no truth in the report that Mrs. McPherson is undergoing a face-lifting operation, nor, she said, is it true that Mrs. McPherson and her mother recently had a lively tiff at Angelus Temple over an employee.

So the latest case of Mrs. McPherson was left in the air for the night. Whether she's having her face lifted or has a nervous breakdown she will see no one and there are plenty of physicians, secretaries, maids and housemen about to speak publicly for her for a while.

Man Convicted as Store Robber

Tried without a jury in Superior Judge Aggeler's court, William Myers yesterday was convicted of first-degree robbery on a charge of having robbed C. V. Dall, proprietor of a chain grocery store, of $57 on March 26, last.

Miss Violet Parsons, 22 years of age, who was tried as a co-defendant, was found not guilty of the charge. Officers accused Miss Parsons of driving the automobile used in the robbery. She took the witness stand and insisted that she did not know that Myers was committing a robbery.

"I'm traveling light," he explained. "May buy a few things here and take a look around at the film studios. But I want to be on my way back. I'll go as soon as the weather looks good.

"I had enough bum weather coming out. Once it forced me down so low over Pennsylvania that I ripped off the bottom of the fuselage on some trees. That was a close one."

FRANK ASKS NEW TRIAL

Filing of an oral motion for a new trial yesterday delayed the sentence of Russell Frank, former Burbank police officer, convicted of grand theft. Judge McComb fixed Thursday as the date for hearing arguments on the motion.

ATTIC MURDER DEFENSE OPENS

Mrs. Oesterreich May Give Own Story of Slaying

Plea for Directed Verdict of Acquittal Denied

Witness Says Accused Had Not Been Drinking

Mrs. Walburga Oesterreich, charged before Superior Judge Hardy with the murder of her husband, may take the witness stand today in her own defense.

This was indicated by Defense Attorneys Jerry Geisler and Le Compte Davis last night after Judge Hardy yesterday afternoon had denied their motion that the jury be instructed by the court to bring in a verdict acquitting the defendant.

The motion was made immediately after Dep. Dist.-Attys. Costello and Russell had rested the prosecution's case yesterday morning and was argued at length through the day.

GEISLER'S PLEA

In an impassioned address to the court in the absence of the jury, Geisler declared there is no legal evidence connecting Mrs. Oesterreich with the actual commission of the crime, but that the jurors might be swayed by prejudicial matter that has crept into the record. He said Mrs. Oesterreich might be guilty of immoral conduct and of having been an accessory after the fact in the killing of her husband, but that these conditions do not prove her guilty of murder.

Showing the first signs of emotion she has displayed since the trial began, Mrs. Oesterreich cried while her attorney talked.

DRINKING DENIED

Their motion for acquittal denied, the defense began the presentation of its case, calling as the first witness Fred H. Keune, 416 Cloverdale avenue, former friend of the Oesterreichs. Keune testified that early on the day of the murder—August 22, 1922—he and Mrs. Keune met Mr. and Mrs. Oesterreich and remained with them until nearly 11 p.m. that night. He said Mr. and Mrs. Oesterreich appeared to have been on friendly terms and that they had not been drinking.

The defense attorneys declared last night they expect to call today five more witnesses, most of whose testimony will be brief and that then Mrs. Oesterreich will probably take the stand. They asserted, however, that the matter of her testifying has not been definitely determined and that a last-minute decision to submit the case without her testimony might be made.

tical construction standards whereby farm buildings may be built to offer greater resistance to the two perils.

Gross reported that the insurance business of his company has increased 25 per cent in the last nine months. His company he said, has about $800,000 in farm mortgage loans and that not a dime of interest is delinquent. He declared observers are not alarmed over farm conditions in his State.

Last night, Dr. S. S. Huebner, professor of finance, Wharton School of Finance and Commerce of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, spoke on "A Definite Educational Program in Property and Casualty Insurance." He said continued study is a necessity for the professional man if he is to be creative in his work and if he is to become enthusiastic in his efforts and to love his calling.

Group meetings will be held this morning. A sightseeing trip under the auspices of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce is the chief event on the afternoon program. Business sessions will close Thursday. The convention is to conclude Friday with a trip to Catalina Island.

Opening of Film Trial Delayed Until Thursday

On motion of Albert J. Law, special assistant to the Attorney-General of the United States, who has come here to prosecute the indictments for conspiracy in restraint of trade against West Coast Theaters, Inc., and ten motion-picture companies, United States District Judge Cosgrave agreed yesterday to postpone the opening of the trial until Thursday.

The trial, which results from indictments returned in January of last year, was scheduled to begin yesterday morning.

HIT-RUN DRIVER'S VICTIM SNCCUMBS

A man believed to be John McMahon of 938 Sunal Drive, Whittier township, was fatally injured last night by a hit-and-run driver at San Gabriel River bridge, near Jimtown. Constable Way of Whittier found the man in the roadway and had him removed to Murphy Memorial Hospital, where he died.

ATHLETE'S LOSS OF LEGS FAILS TO DAUNT SPIRIT

Charles Meakin, Jr., celebrated his twenty-first birthday yesterday in his wheel chair in Ward 780 of the Los Angeles General Hospital with a party to his nurses, doctors and other friends. The day also marked his release from the hospital, where he has spent the greater part of the last three years. He has undergone six operations, having had both legs amputated close to the hip and his right arm is still in a cast.

Meakin was close to graduation at Fairfax High School, prominent in athletics and at the head of his classes. Participating in sports he suffered an injury to his foot which resulted in a circulatory infection and his life since then has been one operation after another. His father, Charles Meakin, is a screen actor while his mother was for seventeen years on the stage. Charles, Jr., also showed talents as a writer and cartoonist. He appeared to have every prospect of a brilliant artistic career.

With all this cut off, Charles has wasted no time in regrets or complaints. He has faced every operation like a soldier going over the top and has come through with no diminishment of spirit. When he realized he would never walk again except by artificial means he set about turning his gift for writing to account. He has written dozens of short stories and articles and keeps them going through the mails, firm in the faith that some day a new career will open before him.

ACCOUNTING OF CHARITY TO CHANGE

Supervisors Order Audit of County Welfare Books Preparatory to New Set

An audit of the welfare department of Los Angeles county charities with a view to changing the business system of this branch of county government was ordered yesterday by the Board of Supervisors on motion of Supervisor Shaw, chairman of the Committee on Hospitals and Charities.

With more than $2,000,000 being handled annually by the department the business system has become obsolete and inadequate, according to W. H. Holland, superintendent of charities, who asked that a new one be installed.

Figures for the fiscal year ending June, 1930, show that $2,469,516 was paid out by the welfare department to indigents of Los Angeles county.

PRISONER FLEES ROAD CAMP

Sheriff's office investigators yesterday were searching for Thomas McCarthy, 24 years of age, who escaped from the county road camp near Saugus Sunday night. McCarthy, a chauffeur, was committed to the road camp on the 8th inst., to serve a year's term for forgery, according to jail records.

CHIROPRACTORS IN SESSION

Mothers Paid High Tribute by Speaker Who Says Life Span will be Lengthened

Mothers were paid a high tribute yesterday at the opening session of the National Progressive Chiropractic convention in Los Angeles College of Chiropractic auditorium, when Dr. George Kenagy of Albany, Or., declared the women of today will add years to mankind's normal span of life.

Intelligence of this era's women, he said, has enabled them to cope with the ailments of children to such an extent that the healthiest youth of world's history are those of the present generation.

Dr. Kenagy declared that seemingly minor conditions are the great things that influence nerve temperament and personality, all of which tend to make children healthy, vigorous specimens, or nervous wrecks.

Afternoon sessions were opened with Mayor Porter extending a welcome. He referred to chiropractic as an art of high proportions.

Business sessions, including election of officers, will take place today. Speakers for the afternoon meeting will be Dr. George Berson, Dr. W. L. Lynch and John A. Holland, Los Angeles attorney. A banquet and dance will be held tonight in the Alexandria.

One of the speakers last night was Dr. Phillip Lovell, who discussed health publicity. Dr. Lovell, health editor of The Times, declared that the widest possible publicity should be given to new proven health measures, with a view to obtaining their immediate acceptance by as much of the public as possible.

The convention will continue until Saturday night. All sessions, except the business meeting this morning, are open to the public.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN LAID TO LAST REST

The Woman's Relief Corps, assisted by Bartlett Logan Post and Helen Greene Christie Tent, No. 17, yesterday conducted funeral services for Joseph H. Luke, veteran of the Civil War, and for many years prominent speaker at Memorial Day celebrations. Interment was made in Inglewood Park Cemetery. Mr. Luke died Friday afternoon at his home at 1026 West Fiftieth street, at the age of 89 years.

SETBACK LINES FIXED

The general ordinance establishing setback lines in Canyon Drive between Franklin avenue and Hollywood Boulevard was adopted yesterday by the City Council.

JAILER GETS OPINION ON SICK RULES

Federal Physicians Have No Authority Over Men in County Prison

Federal physicians have no authority over United States prisoners in the County Jail, according to an opinion handed down yesterday by County Counsel Mattoon for Clem Peoples, county jailer. They are subject to the same regulations as State prisoners confined in the jail.

It is believed the opinion was sought by the jailer to forestall any efforts of Jacob Berman, broker, now in the Julian stock fraud case, to be transferred from a jail cell to the jail's hospital.

The opinion, which was drafted by Deputy County Counsel McAllister, held that in the absence of a specific contract with the Federal government, Federal prisoners are to receive the same medical and other attention as State prisoners.

"Physicians employed by the Federal government as such have no authority over the Federal prisoners confined in the County Jail," the opinion stated.

Today's Bible Text

God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.—2 Tim. i, 7.

NURSERY RHYME WEATHER

In the East, "Some like it hot and some like it cold," but they have to take both ways. Southern California is the happy medium.

POINTED STORY

Our choice for long-distance tree sitter is Lawrence Peters of Yuma, Ariz. He has been perched in the crotch of a huge giant cactus out in the desert. We have a feeling that after the sitting marathon is over, he will then be a candidate for a standing-up contest during which his mother will pick the spines out of his pants.

BABY GOLF

Old Pa Golf is certainly multiplying and replenishing the earth with midget courses. And like most other fathers of large families, he finds the best place to raise his offspring is in Southern California. They thrive better in the open air all the year around. Next winter when back-East sports are loafing around the store stove, we shall still be posting on our miniature greens.

CHASING A SEAT

Heywood Broun, critic and columnist, is having some fun in New York. He is running for Congress on the Socialist ticket and his chief opponent is Mrs. Ruth Pratt, who now fills the seat in her own right. There is no use in Broun's seeking to dispossess her, but he can at least feel how it is to chase after a Congressional chair. He is a highly competent writer, but cuts no bacon as a legislative candidate.

ROLL ACROSS THE SEA

A team of Brooklyn mechanics is arranging to cross the ocean in a huge rubber ball. The sphere will be about fifteen feet in diameter and the food and supplies for the trip will be placed as ballast. The ocean has been crossed in many ways and by various devices, but never has been negotiated in a rubber ball or on roller skates. These Brooklyn adventurers are now having their craft prepared for the journey. They are figuring on some sort of sail power and will have a rock and storm-proof window for light. May good luck attend them.

SUPPRESSING NOISE

They are having a real campaign in New York for the suppression of unnecessary noises and the city fathers are giving it whole-hearted support. For one thing they have done a lot in curbing the radio blasts. The radio dealers may no longer have their instruments in front of their stores. The radio is supposed to be a strictly indoor affair and if any private broadcasting is too noisy or becomes a nuisance a complaint to the board of health will bring an official prepared to put a muzzle on the instrument. Other noises are being judged along similar lines and it is predicted that the old city will become so quiet that a crash in the stock market will sound like the battle of the Marne. Any guy from Connecticut who tries to whistle "Silver Threads Among the Gold" will be rushed to the hoosegow.

TENEMENT STILLS

It was recently reported by Federal agents that there were many hundreds of stills in operation in the tenement districts of New York. Following the receipt of this information and in accordance with a spasmodic clean-up campaign, Mayor Walker ordered raids on these stills and about a hundred of them were seized by the police.

As an example of the treatment of prohibition enforcement by the wet press of New York there appeared in the World of that city the curious editorial comment on the seizure of the stills that it was a highly commendable act because of the danger to life and property of their operation in the congested districts. Overlooking all other considerations, the World pointed out that stills thus operated were likely to explode, and for this reason their existence greatly increased the fire hazard, as had actually been done in several cases.

Not a word about the far greater offense of the violation of the Volstead Act! One gains the idea that it would have been perfectly proper, if not advisable, for the stills to have been operated on the Palisades of the Hudson or in the wilds of eastern Long Island, ___

A BOOM IN VACATIONS

Whatever depression there may be in some lines of business, there is one business that is flourishing. There are more tourists this year, both those who are going to Europe and those who are "seeing America first" or second, than there were in the boom year of 1929. And, as customary since the All-Year Club began its advertising campaign, California is getting its share. An amateur checker during a ten-day period recently spotted automobile license plates from forty-five States on the streets of Los Angeles and no doubt the missing three could have been found by search.

Recent border inspection figures released by the State Director of Agriculture show that July entries of automobiles into the State far surpassed those of July, 1929, reaching a total of 109,073. The same month last year the total was 91,454. These machines carried 313,795 passengers, while the cars of July, 1929, carried only 256,745. Of the machines 47,137 entered from Nevada, 40,439 from Oregon and 21,497 from Arizona.

Figures of the Immigration Bureau show that in the first six months of 1930, 198,120 American citizens went abroad as passengers, while in the same period of 1929 the number was 188,755. The increase was 5 per cent. Alien residents returning to their home lands, or touring, numbered 107,871 in the first six months of the current year; in 1929 the number was 78,549, and the increase was 30 per cent.

The Department of Commerce estimates that these travelers will spend abroad approximately $500,000,000, or double the amount paid by European nations each year on account of their war debts. The average American who goes to Europe spends $2060 if he travels first-class, $1200 if second and $700 if third, according to department figures.

There is a similar increase in travel in the United States, if the number of visitors to the national parks can be considered a safe criterion. It is at least a useful index. In the week ended July 12, last, there were 1,297,933 checked at the entrances of the various national parks, excluding Bryce Canyon, for which no 1930 figures were given. This is an increase of nearly 12 per cent over the 1,163,243 of the same week in 1929.

Our own Yosemite continues to be the favorite national park, with nearly twice as many visitors as Rocky Mountain National Park, the second in the list. Yellowstone Park is third, Mt. Rainier and Platte fifth, and Bryce Canyon and Hot Springs, Ark., about tied for sixth.

It will be noted that the number of Americans touring in America is vastly greater than the number touring in Europe, which, of course, is as it should be.

It has been estimated that the average automobile tourist in the United States spends $7.50 a day if he uses hotels and $3.30 a day if he uses tourist camps for sleeping accommodations. Of the tourist's dollar, other estimates indicate that about one-fourth is spent for merchandise, one-fifth for food, one-sixth for lodging and slightly more than one-tenth for gasoline, oil and accessories. The balance is unaccounted for, except as miscellaneous.

All in all, tourist business is big business and an important item in the economic structure of any region favored with it. It is evident that if 1930 is having its business troubles, the tourists are doing their best to provide a cure. The fact that so many of them have so much money to spend is a pretty good indication that business depression is due in large part to psychological causes and undue timidity and that the principal thing needed is restoration of confidence. Plainly there are large numbers whose income and spending power have not decreased.

OWLET ATHEISM

A Society for the Promotion of Atheism has a branch in the University of California at Berkeley for proselyting among the students and is said to follow up its personal appeal with literature—probably with an atheistic magazine. According to current news comment, the faculty and students' journal seem "to accept the event with complaisance—going even so far as to declare that tolerance in this matter should be observed in a public institution of the character of the State university."

Possibly no great harm may come of it; for back in the early days of the republic many institutions of learning where shot through with rationalism and atheism. These schools shook off the virus later on. Churches established their own schools and this reaction brought all the schools around by competition. So the nonreligion threat became a spur and quickened culture in its morals.

Nor must we allow intolerance to creep into our system. Tolerance is an index of a great mind. However, it can be used and abused. Tolerance can easily slip into indifference. Tolerance can become carelessness and may be a makeshift for laziness. The loafer may be tolerant because he is worthless.

Then there is a suspicion that atheism is being financed and taught in both our public schools and colleges by Russian money. This makes tolerance bristle up. For Red atheism is the most intolerant system in the world. And when sovietism is caught red-handed advocating and plotting the overthrow of our government, here is something else again and tolerance ceases to be a virtue.

America is not a Godless nation. It was founded by religious refugees. They came to live and let live. They were largely Christian. And while hardly half the population of the country today is definitely connected with any religious body, yet in time of crisis, the vast majority would align itself with organized religion.

So a large question is whether the University of California can afford to offend the vast mass of its supporters for a paltry few. If a society for the promotion of Methodism, or Presbyterianism, or Protestantism any of its denominations, or of Catholicism, or Judaism, were to be established, what a hullaballoo would arise! These various sects are co-operating in their foundations on the campuses to look after their own, and the fact that they are all housed together indicates that proselyting is far from their purpose.

These religious faiths and their sympathizers are the main support of the State school. It is safe to assume that the parents of the student body are interested in matters of religion and are jealous of any attempt to lead their youngsters from the faith of their fathers.

For the word to go abroad that atheists have a sort of preferential foothold in the institution will not do it any good. It has too good a history and reputation to be allowed to suffer. And without jingoism, the blood warms up with the thought that Red influence may be back of it.

ON TO OREGON

Oregon is engaged in a campaign to lure travelers to her beauty spots and possibilities. Its journals are summoning its citizens to shake off their inferiority complex and lethargy and do as Californians do—boost their State; point out that, after tourists have done California, they are not through—they have something yet to see—Oregon. So "On to Oregon" is the slogan to pull them up the Coast.

The Pacific States are all tied up together. Heretofore, California has been rather lonely in its boosting. Other States have criticised and cajoled her optimism. But the tide has turned. They begin to see the fruits of it. Even back-East cities like New York are urging their citizens to wake up and boost like California.

Sometimes we are accused of passing over little things like earthquakes and droughts. We do not hesitate to admit occasional disabilities; but we do not capitalize them. There are plenty of pessimists to hunt up the unpleasant features. Why wear the seams of your breeches on the outside? And then California has fewer drawbacks than most sections!

We may need water at times; but our long hauls in aqueducts show the genius and spirit of the people. And besides it is the sunshine that makes the need after all and we prefer the sun. Sometimes the earth does wake up and shake itself; but then so does anything that is alive. And California is no dead one. And our Lassen is the only live volcano in the country.

So "On to Oregon" appeals to us. Two are more than twice one. If the great Northwest will unite with the Golden State in a boosting campaign, we can be heard around the globe. With her peerless Crater Lake, snowy Hood rising in solemn, lonely, grandeur and the matchless Columbia River Highway Oregon has something to tell the world.

Our Yosemite with its waterfalls, our Tahoe set like a gem in the high Sierras, our Mt. Whitney, the highest peak in the land, our Death Valley and its Dante's View of the lowest-down place at Uncle Sam's feet, and our big trees unrivaled on the planet, all keep us from any jealousy. Each State has its marvels, so we are for "On to Oregon," or on to the Grand Canyon in Arizona, or on to every other spot that lures in the West. We are all a part of the most colossal drama of nature in the world. Ring up the curtain, let the orchestra strike up and the show begin! Let no act be omitted!

AN OPEN FIGHT

With the two Helens out of the women's national tennis championship England has a good chance to cop the title with her Betty Nuthall. But the American girls will give her a tough battle, with the California lasses conceded the best chance to keep the home fires burning.

ON A TOM THUMB GOLF COURSE

By James J. Montague

"Father, dear Father, come home with me now,
The clock is just striking eleven.
You told dear mamma if she'd not make a row,
You'd be home to your dinner at seven."

"Be quiet, my child, take this nickel and skip,
I am getting the hang of these sticks,
Somebody just taught me a fancy new grip
And I made the last fairway in six."

"But Father, the Joneses are coming to-night
To tell us about their new car,
And they surely will think you are hardly polite,
If they ever find out where you are."

"Now don't interrupt me, you chattering brat;
I am trying to lower my score,
Tell mother that I will show up at the flat
When I have played eighteen holes more."

"Hark, father, the neighbors—we heard them last night—
Say you're leading a dissolute life
And even the janitor thinks it ain't right
For a man to run out on his wife."

"I tell you I'm learning a new follow through,
That putt I just made was a bird,
And you'll certainly get what is coming to you
If you utter one single more word!"

"But father, poor mother cried all afternoon,
She says it's a sin and a shame,
And she told me today she'll be leaving you soon
If you don't quit this terrible game."

"Say, kid, go and tell her to pack up tonight,
And travel, I don't care how far,
If it wasn't for these interruptions I might Get around this blame golf course in par."

LEE SIDE O' LA

By Lee Shippey

LEESIDE: Since your readers seem to take interest in signs, let me report a few I noted on my vacation. One was on a lunch stand operated by two dashing blonds, and read:

HOT WEANERS.

Driving along a road which religious zealots had "signed" in many places, I was startled by this warning:

DEATH IS ON YOUR TRACK!

And then, just as I started to step on it, to escape, I read the next one:

GO SLOW!

SPEED LIMIT 15 MILES

A little farther on we came on an embarrassing question:

Where Will You Spend Eternity?

But just below it was another sign which read: "Reducers' Friend Tavern. Rooms and Board."

We went there—and it did seem like eternity. But it's asking too much to expect gas Arabs to spend eternity anywhere.—A. T. C.

Job Must Keep Him Traveling

N. W. K. sends us the business card of A. Mossbach, who represents the "Co-operative Apartment and Hotel Association," and suggests that it seems his name ought to be changed to A. Rolling Stone.

Quaint America

Dr. Giorgio Abetti, famous Italian astronomer now spending a few months in Pasadena, as part of a tour he is making for the Rockefeller Foundation, tells us that he never saw a monkey and a hand organ until he came to the United States. Mrs. Abetti, who is with him, was so interested when she first saw the combination New Yorkers consider inevitable—an Italian organ grinder accompanied by a monkey—that she clapped her hands and wished they had brought their son Antonio to this land of quaint sights, instead of leaving him in London. It is Mrs. Abetti's first trip to America, though Dr. Abetti has been here three times, once as a member of the Italian mission during the World War. He is greatly impressed by the growth of the California Institute of Technology, which was comparatively a small school when he was here before.

"Yes," said Dr. Abetti, "Italian visitors are much impressed by the quaintness and strangeness of many things they see in America, especially Italian organ grinders and the remarkable combinations sometimes served as Italian dinners. We know Italy pretty well, but we never saw an organ grinder there and surely we never saw such Italian restaurants as you have here. We are fond of novelties, so often we get quite a 'kick,' as you say, out of dining at Italian restaurants here. We find the food very good—and so different from anything we have been used to."

Dr. Abetti lives within sight of towers in which Galileo made observations and sometimes works in them himself, but he had to come to America to find quaintness.

Sidelight on Mussolini

About a year ago we mentioned Mrs. Laura H. Stevenson, who operates a school for American girls in Florence, Italy, chaperoning her pupils back to America every summer, visiting here a couple of months and chaperoning other students to Italy every fall. Mrs. Stevenson knows the Abettis in Florence and tells us that Dr. Abetti's friends half-seriously call him the modern Galileo.

Mrs. Stevenson is much surprised by the opinions she hears some Americans express of Mussolini. She says Mussolini has worked miracles in Italy and that he is far from being a self-seeking politician—that he is all for Italy and not at all for Mussolini. Not long ago, while she was chaperoning her pupils on a trip to Rome they attended a theater which was attended by the King. As the royal party entered, the orchestra played the national anthem and everyone arose and applauded. In a box on the opposite side of the theater sat Mussolini. After the King was seated the orchestra leader turned toward Mussolini's box and the orchestra struck up the Fascist anthem. Mussolini, though, refused to accept the compliment usually paid only to royalty and the next day's papers made it known that he did not wish anything like that to happen again. In other words, Mrs. Stevenson says, Italy does not feel that there is any danger that Mussolini will usurp too much power for himself. Italy feels that he is working only for Italy.

BOYHOOD OF FAMOUS AMERICANS

WALTER S. GIFFORD

[This is the eighth of a series of eighteen articles on the boyhood of famous Americans and telling how they got their start in life.]

BY J. V. FITZ GERALD

[Copyright, 1930, by the North American Newspaper Alliance]

College students, if they are ambitious and need to make their way in the world, begin to hunt jobs in the spring before their graduation. Walter S. Gifford was in this class. He decided, in his senior year at Harvard, that he wanted to work for the General Electric Company.

He sought no friends to find an opening for him. Instead, he sat down and wrote a letter applying for a job. He directed the envelope to the Western Electric Company by mistake. He received an application blank from that company in reply. While embarrassed by his error in writing a letter to General Electric and then sending it in an envelope addressed to Western Electric, he forgot about it when he was hired as a clerk by the latter company. His pay was $10 a week.

His letter of application might well serve as a model to young men today who are seeking to get their start in the business world. He wrote, in part:

"It is my wish to enter some good business as soon as possible after I leave here. Now if there is only some position (no matter what, provided there will be a fair chance for a rise if it is deserved) in the General Electric Company, I should like to try it and would endeavor to suit.

"The fact that for two years out here I studied a great deal on the mechanical side (mathematics, chemistry, etc.) may help as to the kind of a position I could fill. I began with the intention of becoming a mining engineer, but for several reasons have abandoned it.

"If you wish any references, etc., I think I could get them, for of course, you know nothing about what sort of a fellow I am."

Walter S. Gifford was born in Salem, Mass., in 1885. He wrote his letter of application in 1904, the year he was graduated from Harvard. His early education was received in the public schools of his native city. He was a bright student and was able to enter high school when he was 11 years old. He completed his course at Harvard in three years.

The future head of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company was not a very husky and robust lad. When his companions were playing baseball, football and other games he was generally off getting his exercise and recreation by collecting butterflies and other insects. He had a notable collection when he was a high school pupil. They were all catalogued under their Latin names.

His mother had been a schoolteacher before her marriage. While she had other children, she was able to devote much time to teaching her son Walter. The lad's memory was not of the best when he was a schoolboy and as a result he learned early to dig out the facts. He was able to remember them by not attempting to clutter his mind with non-essential details.

It was an excellent lesson for the youngster to learn. Perhaps much of his success in the business world can be laid to his ability to eliminate unimportant details and get down to the bed rock of a proposition.

His college course was a success. It didn't give him an inflated idea of his knowledge or ability, as his letter of application for his first job shows. He had learned that a man has to begin at the bottom to be of real value to himself or to a business. He was willing, as he wrote, to take anything, as long as it offered an opportunity for advancement if he made good.

He could have gone to work in a Salem bank when he was graduated. His father would have obtained him a position, but the youngster had other ideas. He wanted to stand on his own feet. He did so when he took the $10-a-week job with the Western Electric Company.

His first job called for him to make the trip to Chicago. He borrowed money to pay his fare rather than to accept it from his father. He was determined to make his own way from the very outset of his business career.

Wages of $10 a week didn't go very far even in 1904. Young Gifford managed to make it do somehow. He lived at Hull House in Chicago, where he had comfortable and congenial surroundings at little expense. Needless to say, on his meager wages, he had little chance to do anything but work.

He rose from a pay-roll clerk to a position as assistant treasurer in a short time with a good increase in salary. It wasn't long before he was chief statistician of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. In that position he attracted the attention of Theodore N. Vail, then head of the concern, and gained further promotion.

When Mr. Vail retired the man, who as a college boy had made the mistake of misdirecting his letter of application for a job, was made the head of one of the world's greatest utility organizations.

The Hidden Church

One of the quaintest and most interesting buildings in all Jugo-Slavia is the little Servian church in Serajavo, built in the sixteenth century after the Turks had overrun the country. It was sunk below the level of the street so that its roof would not be visible from without and hidden behind a high wall in order to avoid suppression by the Mohammedans. In spite of its persecution it has preserved many old treasures, among which is a beautiful silver lamp which hangs before the altar and a wooden screen decorated with Byzantine paintings in which the angels have wings of solid silver and the saints have silver halos.

Christianity ranks third among the religions of India, there being now 5,000,000 of the faith in that country.

NATURE'S REPRESENTATIVE

BY LANNIE HAYNES MARTIN

If by some strange fantastic scheme nature could come to imitate the intricate political system of man the tree would be the most astute, judicial and beneficent leader of all the vegetable kingdom.

It would be head of the world's board of equalization, because it distributes the moisture in the air, equalizes the air currents, conserves the soil, and makes a more even distribution of the sun's heat.

It would be governor-general, because it controls the water supply, aids in flood control, furnishes shade and shelter for the birds of the air, the beasts of the field and the less hardy vegetation of earth.

And it would be speaker of the house in nature's congressional body, for it represents the needs of all other living, growing things.

The tree is the one living thing in nature most closely allied to all of the four elements. And it is also the one thing which is man's greatest benefactor. Besides its more obscure services, which man is just beginning to recognise, in the great part which the tree plays in climate and the resultant food supply, the tree gives man almost everything he has.

Man sails the sea in a wooden ship. He skims the air in a plane of spruce wood. He crosses the continent over crossties of oak in wooden cars propelled by oil or coal, both products of trees. The farmer walks behind a plow of oak. The poet writes with a cedar pencil. The violinist is dependent on the maple, the pine and the ebony tree. The artists paint from a wooden palette with a spruce-handled brush. The pipe organ gets its deep tones from the California redwoods. The banker sits at a mahogany desk.

Columns of statistics could be written merely naming the commodities, big and little, which are in daily usage as a result of the tree's prodigal generosity, and man, as yet, has no conception of his tremendous debt of gratitude to his vegetal brother.

All of California should be proud that the State has produced one champion of the tree, George H. Barnes, vice-president of the National Green Cross movement and candidate for Congress from the Tenth District of this State. For the things which Mr. Barnes is fighting for will not only benefit this district, this county and this State, they will be of immeasurable advantage to the entire country, the whole world.

Cause of Auto Accidents

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Mabel P. Ashley, writing for an international journal, gives eighteen attributes of bad driving, which causes so many automobile accidents. As my daily work brings me in close contact with many kinds of people, I don't hesitate to say that the biggest item causing accidents in her list of delinquencies among automobile drivers is moral irresponsibility.

Even the editor of the Saturday Evening Post recognises the deplorable conditions of the present day, when in a recent editorial he states that "multitudes of people now grow into manhood and womanhood without ever learning the meaning of respect for anybody or anything, etc., etc." These are the people who are causing many of the tragic automobile accidents and they will continue to be reckless until the end of the chapter.

ALICE CUTLER, M.D.

Where Accidents Occur

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 2.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In line with Judge Valentine's propaganda to minimize the number of traffic fatalities, I suggest the following:

Since the major part of accidents occur at points other than the downtown congested district it would seem that by placing more policemen on duty at intersections throughout the residential area that results favorable to the reduction in the number of deaths would accrue.

While policemen are tagging the harmless shopper for parking a car a few minutes beyond the prescribed time limit there are motorists tearing through stop signals, making turns without giving the hand signal, etc., in the outlying districts. Why not concentrate upon these reckless drivers, thus saving life and property, instead of bravely confronting the meek shopper who parks overtime?

Engagement News Broken at Luncheon

[Lansing Brown studios]
Miss Ellen Pearson

ONE of the lovely affairs given in honor of one of the season's popular brides-elect was the garden party and bridge-luncheon with which Miss Ellen Pearson entertained at her home, 2922 Budlong avenue, honoring Miss Dorothy McCall, fiancee of Douglas Moore, whose wedding will be an event of October. At this affair Miss McCall announced her engagement in a rather unique manner, the five card tables being arranged in the vicinity of an immense pepper tree, from which many-colored balloons were sung, and when the cord was broken the balloons were found to contain cards with the names of the betrothed.

FIRE RAZES OLD CHAPLIN FILM STUDIO

Watchman and His Family Flee Just Before Flames Reach Their Home

Either defective wiring or spontaneous combustion, investigators stated last night, probably caused the $75,000 fire which yesterday morning razed the historic old Chaplin studio at 651 Fairview avenue, Hollenbeck Heights, and menanced the lives of a watchman, his wife, and three children. The exact origin remains undetermined pending investigation.

The flames were discovered by a workman who, at about 6 o'clock, entered the antiquated structure, scene of Charlie Chaplin's earliest productions. At about the same moment Fred Shaw, watchman, was aroused from sle in his bungalow home, which was part of the studio property. He awakened his wife and children and with difficulty led them away from the danger zone. A moment later his home also was a mass of flames.

Occupying about half a block, the studio was used first about fifteen years ago after the Essanay company had signed Chaplin as a star following his appearances in some Keystone comedies. There it was that he produced "Shanghaied," "A Night at the Show," "The Woman," "The Rink" and "The Bank," all short subjects, and a burlesque of "Carmen" in four reels. Following these productions the studio was abandoned until recently, when it was leased by Panchon and Marco for the building of elaborate scenery and creation of costumes used in their stage presentations. Included in the loss caused by the fire was a $15,000 set intended for use later this week.

Mendell Pleads Not Guilty to Federal Charge

Loren W. Mendell, formerly a joint holder with "Pete" Reinhart of the endurance flight record, pleaded not guilty yesterday before United States District Judge Cosgrave to a charge of conspiring to violate the immigration laws by smuggling Japanese into the United States from Mexico. He made his plea after the judge had denied his motion, made last month, for a bill of particulars.

Judge Cosgrave set September 7 as the date on which the aviator must appear for setting of the trial date. The necessity for a court appearance on September 7 would interfere with Mendell's plans to make a new attempt on the present endurance record, as he is planning now to take off on or about the 27th inst. His attorney, Richard Cantillon, said that he is confident, however, that this difficulty can be obviated, as he believes in view of the circumstances that the government will have no objection to a request he will make within the next few days to have the setting date placed still further ahead.

Health and Diet ADVICE

by DR. FRANK McCOY
Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

DANGEROUS PERITONITIS

After a series of meals the abdominal organs are rounded during a fast they are flat. If you push them around under the X-ray you will find that they have an astonishing capacity for movement and yet they stay in place. Did you ever wonder what holds them in their adjustable position? They are held in position by the peritoneal membrane, a smooth, strong, serous membrane lining the abdominal walls by covering most of the internal organs, and the folds of this membrane act as "guy ropes" to suspend the organs. The movement of the organs over each other and against the wall of the abdomen is made smooth by a serous fluid which lies between the two layers of this lining and acts as a lubricant.

The space between the two layers is the peritoneal cavity. There are three such cavities in the trunk, the other two being around the heart and lungs. An inflammation may occur in any of the three. However, the peritoneal cavity is more often inflamed than the other two, probably due to the presence of food and waste products in the abdomen, which offer a readily infective area to invading bacteria.

An infection of any of these cavities is alike. When it occurs, it may spread rapidly through the rest of the cavity. Large quantities of serous fluid are quickly poured out, which may be absorbed in a remarkably short time, but a tendency remains to form adhesions of fibrin to wall in or localize the infecting agent.

Peritonitis or inflammation of the peritoneal membrane may arise from a wound or from a surgical operation, but more usually it is secondary to an inflammation of some of the organs coming in contact with it. It is frequently inflamed following a perforation by an ulcer. If the tone of the membrane is lowered by disease it may be torn by a sudden pressure from gas or the pressure of accumulated pus which may back up from a near-by organ.

The starting point for most cases is the appendix. After this comes the intestine, excluding the duodenum, then inflammation of the female organs, and then ulcers of the stomach and duodenum. Other diseases causing it are liver abscesses, typhoid ulcers, impacted gall stones, or, in fact, any acute inflammation of either the abdominal or pelvic organs may cause peritonitis. The fluid thrown out is clear. Later it becomes cloudy and filled with pus. With the development of deposits of fibrin, the intestines and peritoneal membranes may become stuck together to such an extent that it may be impossible to tell where one begins and the other ends. A band of adhesion tissues may coil around the bowel, causing constriction. The appendix may disappear in a tangle of scar tissue.

Since the aim of this membrane is to allow the internal organs to work smoothly on each other, it can readily be seen that when it becomes roughened and bound up with fibrous adhesions, the main purpose is destroyed. For this reason, it is important to begin the treatment of peritonitis in the early stages before the serious adhesions have had a chance to form.

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions perisining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, colds, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need, if your particular problem is not covered in the above list. Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

GOOD HEALTH PROMOTES GOOD DISPOSITION

Fatigue May Be Cause of Inexplicable Behavior Problems

We discuss frequently the misbehavior which appears regularly in most families where there are children at the negativistic stage (between 18 months and 4 years,) that of reverting to bad toilet habits after good ones have been established.

To the mother the reversion to wetting beds and wetting and soiling clothes is even more odious because she knows the children to be capable of doing otherwise. Her efforts to retrain them, her suggestions of their "awfulness" make for an unhappy and acute family situation which very often prolongs the habit instead of ending it.

We offer a leaflet called "What to do When Baby Says 'I Won't'," which suggests ways of handling this negativistic period, self-addressed and stamped envelope being all that is necessary to send with a request for it.

Mrs. L. O. D. also has a real contribution to make on this subject. She writes: "I have just solved a problem, a fatigue problem I call it. Sister is 28 months of age and weighs thirty pounds. This spring and summer she suddenly began to wet her bed again, resist discipline and her face showed some eruptions. Her appetite was good but she slept poorly. I decided that the causes were overstimulation from too much outdoor playing, from sleeping in the same room with her 4-year-old brother, and a long railroad journey necessitated by a death in the family.

"Certain of this, I put the children in separate rooms, insisted on a daytime nap, and kept her with me as much as possible to prevent too strenuous play. She stopped wetting the bed, is using her chamber in day time without my aid, and climbs out of bed (by ladder) in the morning to go to the bathroom herself.

"The boy is sleeping longer hours, taking a nap sometimes, and has a better color, and no morbid desire for sweets.

"Next to feeding, rest seems to me most important. I have notice that children with excellent nurses often have little resistance to disease and offer behavior problems. The paid delegate takes the lines of least resistance (unless otherwise trained) and permits the child to stay up after bed or nap hours and overstimulates it with play to keep it amused.

"It seems like such a simple prescription to say 'Give the child more rest,' as an aide to a better appetite or to better behavior, but it has worked wonders in my experience."

MRS. L. O. D. IS WISE

It is always these simple, obvious things which people find hardest to do. Mothers prefer to find some complicated reason for behavior problems which, when rooted out, will end the disturbance. The simple, sensible procedure of insuring the child better food, more rest and prevention of irritation is too undramatic to be appealing, and yet it is by following a healthful regime in every particular that we make not only healthier children but better dispositioned ones. The two things go right together.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

The Times' free cooking school conducted by Chef Wyman has been discontinued for the summer. Date for resuming has not been set but will be announced later.

WAFFLE SHORTCAKES

Sift two cupfuls of flour, with four level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and a half teaspoonful of salt, beat the yolks of three eggs, and add to them one and one-half cupfuls of milk, and four tablespoonfuls of melted butter, beat well, place the batter in a bowl, and allow to stand in the ice box for several hours, then add the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, bake in a hot waffle iron, spread generously with butter, cover with sweetened berries.

BAKED PEACHES

Peel fresh peaches, cut in half and remove the stone, place a layer of them in a buttered baking dish, sprinkle heavily with brown sugar, cover with bread crumbs, and dot with bits of butter, repeat the layers until the dish is filled, make a syrup of one cupful of white sugar, and one-half cupful of water, pour this over the peaches, place in the oven, and bake until the peaches are tender, remove, cool, then cover with a meringue, return to the oven and slowly brown.

WHITE SALAD

Shred a small head of cabbage very fine, and marinade it in one cupful of French dressing, for at least an hour, allowing it to stand in the ice box, drain, and mix with it in the proportion of two cupfuls of cabbage to two cupfuls of white, seedless grapes, one-half cupful of chopped blanched almonds, one cupful of finely shredded and chopped cocoanut, chill as long as possible before serving, and serve on lettuce-covered plates.

RAGOUT OF VEAL

Cut into small evep-sized pieces, two pounds of lean veal, cut into cubes, a half a pound of lean bacon, place in the saute pan four tablespoonfuls of shortening, and when it is hot add the veal and bacon, and allow to fry until the meat is brown, remove the meat, and place it on a warm plate, add to the pan, eight or ten small, peeled onions, cook for five minutes, sprinkle over them two tablespoonfuls of flour, and stir until the flour is a light brown, and gradually add two cupfuls of meat stock, two tablespoonfuls of sherry wine flavoring, and bring to a boil, skim off the fat, add the bacon and veal, and cook slowly until the meet is tender, season with salt and pepper, then add one small can of mushrooms that have been cut in slices, place these on a hot platter, surround the edge with points of fried bread, cover with a sauce, and sprinkle with chopped parsley.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

Jail Road Camp Cited in Divorce

Jail road camp experience turned her husband cruel and embittered, Mrs. Edna Marchant testified yesterday in asking a divorce from Lloyd O. Marchant.

"On October 19, 1928, he was convicted of possessing a still," Mrs. Marchant testified. "Superior Judge Aggeler gave him three years' probation, with the provision that he spend one year at the county road camp. When he returned home he was in a bad humor. He subjected me to cruel and inhuman treatment." Superior Judge Morton granted her a decree.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

IMPY HAS A WARNING

Youth is confident and shows it;
Age is wiser far and knows it.
—Old Mother Nature.

Impy the black Chipmunk was getting the habit of staying out until after the coming of the Black Shadows each night. All the rest of the Chipmunk family took care to be safely in their beds very soon after the approach of the Black Shadows. They were afraid to be out after dark. You see, their eyes are made for daylight seeing. It is just the same with Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel and Chatterer the Red Squirrel and Rusty the Fox Squirrel. All are afraid to be out after dark. There is but one of the Squirrel cousins who is not afraid at that time. This one is Timmy the Flying Squirrel.

"No good will come of staying out so late," declared Striped Chipmunk, who is, you know, the father of Impy.

"But," protested Impy, "I like it when the Black Shadows come. I feel a lot safer then. I cannot so easily be seen."

"No, and you cannot see as well yourself," retorted Striped Chipmunk. "When jolly, round, red Mr. Sun goes to bed it is time for a Chipmunk to go to bed. No good will come of being out after dark. One of these days you will be picked up by Hooty the Horned Owl or Spooky the Screech Owl."

"Who are they?" asked Impy, who, quite naturally, never had seen them.

"They are feathered enemies who fly by night and see by night, and who would like nothing better than a tender young Chipmunk. It surprises me that you have not been picked up before this. They have wonderful eyes and wonderful ears."

"What good do their ears do them?" demanded Impy.

"Their ears give them a chance to use their eyes," replied Striped Chipmunk.

"I don't see any sense to that," said Impy. "What have their ears got to do with their eyes?"

"A very great deal," replied Striped Chipmunk. "Their ears are so wonderful that they can hear the tiniest rustle of a leaf. They can hear it at some little distance and they can tell just where it comes from. Then they fly right to that spot and their wonderful eyes do the rest. Some hunters, like the members of the Hawk family, do all their hunting with their eyes; but the members of the Owl family use both eyes and ears. You may think yourself quite safe when you are sitting in the middle of a Black Shadow, but if Hooty the Owl should startle you with his terrible voice so that you move ever so little, and in moving rustle a leaf or made the least little sound with your claws, Hooty would have you before you knew he was about."

I guess I could hear him coming," said Impy. "My ears may not be wonderful like his, but they are perfectly good ears. I have never had any difficulty in hearing the Hawks."

"Don't make the mistake of comparing Owls with Hawks," replied Striped Chipmunk. "You wouldn't hear an Owl if he passed so close that his wings almost touched you. An Owl makes no noise when he is flying. That is what makes him so dangerous. That is one reason why Chipmunks who are wise retire before it is time for Owls to be out. Owls do not like bright light, so they do not start hunting until the coming of the Black Shadows. I have given you fair warning, Impy. If you are a wise Chipmunk you will be in bed with the rest of us."

"No good will come of staying out so late," declared Striped Chipmunk

Impy said nothing. Striped Chipmunk had no way of knowing whether or not his warning would have any effect.

Chevrolet Man Finds Business on Coast Good

With sales holding up well and prospects good for autumn sales in all lines, the belief that business conditions on the west coast are as good if not better than in any other section of the country was expressed yesterday by H. J. Klingler, general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company. Klingler, accompanied by R. K. White, advertising manager, arrived yesterday.

After long shut-downs operations are being resumed in many mills and factories throughout the country," Klingler said, "which means that many of the unemployed are returning to work. The overproduction of 1929 in many lines resulted in slowed sales during the first part of this year, but practically all of that merchandise has been absorbed and replacements will be necessary in the near future."

One of the results of the business depression will be improved merchandising methods in all industry, according to Klingler, who during his stay here is conferring with W. M. Packer, zone manager for Chevrolet.

M.-G.-M. SIGNS STAGE PLAYER

Walter Catlett Directs Satirical Comedies for R.K.O.; James Cruze gets Long Term Tiffany Contract; Paramount Buys Story for Harry Green

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

A California boy who comes to Hollywood and films via the long detour of New York and the stage is Lester Vail, who has just signed a long-term contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, following several seasons in the metropolis.

Lester Vail is a graduate of Stanford University, is dark and six feet tall. He was a leader in university dramatic affairs up to his graduation in 1922. After that he refused a job selling bonds in San Francisco in order to tour the Orient with the repertoire company of the venerable T. Daniel Frawley. After this experience he went to New York and has played there steadily ever since, of late as leading man.

The actor has appeared in male leads of a long series of New York plays, including "Top of the Hill," "Gypsy," "Makropoulous' Secret" and "Congai." His first M.-G.-M. vehicle is not yet announced.

WALTER CATLETT TO SIGN WITH R.-K.-O.

No less brilliant an actor and director than Walter Catlett has cast his lot with R.-K.-O.

Catlett has just signed a long-term contract with R.-K.-O. to direct a series of short satirical comedies for the organization, to be known as "The Celebrities." It is quite likely that he will also star in one or two of them.

The comedian was long identified with star roles in New York musicals, including Ziegfeld's Follies. He likewise played in a number of notable musical comedies, including "Sally," "The Prince of Pilsen," and others. He is a great favorite in London as well as in this country.

JAMES CRUZE SIGNS TIFFANY CONTRACT

Tiffany seems bent on securing the best directors available. The first big name announced was that of James Whale, director of "Journey's End."

And now comes Tiffany with the announcement that James Cruze has just signed a long-term contract with the organization to direct and produce his own pictures. Which means that Tiffany will release his product.

Just what picture Cruze will direct first is not yet settled, as he is considering several stories. All his pictures are to be specials.

Paramount Buys "Poppa"

Harry Green is going to be a very busy young man from now on. The comedian is leaving for New York tomorrow, to make personal appearances at the Publix Theaters.

Following that he will come back to Hollywood and resume his film activities. Paramount has bought "Poppa" for Green's use as star. The play is by the Spevaks, who wrote "The Warrior" for Georgie Jessel.

Green is to produce, in conjunction with Joseph Schenck, a picture for United Artists. After that he is scheduled to star in a picture for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and in one for Fox.

Warners Remake Film

Either Warner Brothers or First National will remake "The Patent Leather Kid," this time as a talker, it was learned yesterday.

This was a Richard Barthelmess starring vehicle, and a very successful one. We hear that it is quite possible that Mollie O'Day, who has returned from her tour of vaudeville looking slim and full of pep, may again play the role she originated in the silent version of the story.

Ann Roth With Paramount

Blood sisters became screen sisters yesterday when Ann Roth was added to the cast of Jack Oakie's current Paramount starring picture.

Lillian Roth, Ann's sister, plays the leading feminine role in the film as a naval captain's daughter, Ann was selected to play another of the same captain's many daughters.

The sisters have appeared together on the stage in vaudeville, separating when Lillian went into New York musical shows. Ann is the younger of the two.

Helen Ware In It

Turning down a tempting offer to appear with Ethel Barrymore in her forthcoming New York play, "Scarlet Sister Mary," that admirable actress and former star of the New York stage has turned her face resolutely to the West and elected to cast her lot with Hollywood.

Miss Ware has just been signed by Columbia to play the mother role in "Tol'able David."

Eleanor Boardman Takes Test

It looks as though Eleanor Boardman were not to be allowed to enjoy her retirement from the screen.

We learn that she has just taken a screen and voice test for "The Great Meadow," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is to produce.

Wife Divorces Police Officer

A policeman's wife's lot is not a happy one, Mrs. Angelene B. Corliss complained yesterday in getting a divorce from Bert Corliss, a police officer. She complained that Corliss chose dark rooms for living quarters, in apartments where the noise at night kept her awake. Although his police duty ended at 1 a.m., she added, he would not come home until much later. When she protested, he told her it was none of her business what time he arrived home, she continued.

"He would keep me awake the balance of the night," complained Mrs. Corliss. "My health suffered. He took my pay and spent it."

Superior Judge Needham gave her a divorce and ordered Corliss to pay $50 a month for her support.

SPICILY CLEVER IS "WISE CHILD"

Gay and Piquant Comedy Comes to Belasco

Original New York Company Presents Play

Audience Responds to Mirth of Attraction

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

A full-fledged New York cast is presenting the comedy hit of the season at the Belasco Theater. The new offspring of entertainment is yclept "It's a Wise Child," and the parent of the divertisement is none other than David Belasco. He it was who produced this play in New York, and who has sent forth the original company. It may also be mentioned that Laurence E. Johnson wrote it.

For puritans, if there are any going to stage shows nowadays, this new humorous affair would be designated as naughty. It might even be censorable as a subject for the movies, though I imagine its innuendoes might be glossed over in that medium. Really it is a naughty but nice play, with an environment of perfect small-town respectability, and its spiciness half fabricated, and half very far in that distance which lends enchantment.

I wouldn't recommend this play for infants in arms, or mere fledglings. It is distinctly an adult comedy, and those especially who like piquancy will become immensely delighted with what eventuates.

Indeed, this play has some of the old farce qualities. You might say that it is the farce idea brought up to date, with the note of modern repression. There are the same continuous series of mixups that used to occur in that type of stage piece. The only thing is that what happens, which is preposterous in a way, is rendered human.

Briefly, it is a servant who actually induces most of the complication. She is in some slight difficulty, which ere the play opens, has necessitated her temporary retirement from service. One never sees her during the play, though much is said pro and con about her particular—shall one say maternal?—problem.

Her fate also becomes something of a shadowing influence. There is a girl in the play who is faced with the perplexity of an unhappy marriage. She doesn't want to keep the bargain of an engagement to a rich old codger. So she gives false testimony. Out of her imagination she conjures for herself a maternal problem. It causes the breaking of the engagement, but it also results in everybody in the play being kept in a more or less distracted state of mind until the finish.

So it may be a "wise child" that know its own father, but it's a wiser girl who knows her own mind about marriage. This is what the comedy demonstrates by the time it reaches its culmination.

I don't know that a play of this sort accomplishes anything for the welfare of the nation, and I don't know that this matters a bit either. The main thing seems to be that "It's a Wise Child" is downright amusing, and that it is exceptionally well presented, and finally that it has both a gentle and sympathetic quality that somehow reaches agreeably into one's consciousness.

Such a play could be the veriest trash, were not all the characters on the stage a rather enjoyable lot, and some of them even grandly bighearted. The hilariousness of the situations in this comedy is almost unsurpassed. There has been no stage piece funnier this season, and in its elements of the risque "It's a Wise Child" is hardly to be compared with certain other theatrical fare. Belasco is always reckoned to be gentlemanly about his dramatic paprika, and this comedy seems to prove it.

One might spend considerable praise on the excellence of the casting, the balance of the playing and the good stage direction. Running through the list of players, there are Helen Lowell, Olga Krolow, Leila Bennett, George Walcott, Joseph Striker, Mildred McCoy, Minor Watson, Harlan Briggs, Sidney Toler and Porter Hall. With possibly only one exception, it was the same company as seen at the Belasco Theater at Forty-fourth street and Broadway, Manhattan.

I don't know of a single person in this company who isn't at some time highly effective, and here are the outstanding hitters of the popular fancy in order, I would say: Toler, Watson, Hall, Miss Bennett, Miss Lowell and Miss Krolow. Roles have something to do with this.

Personally I would make my order about as follows: Toler, despite probably the best role; Watson, Miss Krolow, Miss McCoy, Miss Bennett, Miss Lowell and Hall; but I swear even that order could be changed with nearly everybody coming out about even in the finale.

It's a winner—this comedy, and, even if it seems a little slow in getting started, you won't hold that against it before it is over. That is, if you want comedy with the grain, and a large grain at times, of naughtiness.

Bacon Plays Bit Part in Own Picture

Lloyd Bacon, who directed John Barrymore in "Moby Dick," current at Warner Brothers' Downtown Theater, always appears in a bit part in pictures he directs. This is the one superstitution which Bacon allows himself, it is said.

The director is no novice at the business, having been on the stage at various periods in his early life with his noted father, Frank Bacon.

In "Moby Dick" Bacon plays the bit part of a rough sailor who sells Ahab the rotten old whaler Shanghai Lady, which the crazed man uses to chase the white whale about the earth. Bacon is an ardent sailor and owns two seagoing boats of his own.

ACTRESS FINISHES

Lita Chevret, Radio Pictures featured player, has completed her part in "Losing Game," which was directed by Lowell Sherman.

Film Collegians Will Frolic

Bessie Love

Who plays all types of screen roles with ease and a fine show of ability, is one of the leading characters of "Good News," the M.-G.-M. picture starting Thursday at Loew's State Theater.

NORMA LEE CAST IN PLAY

Norma Lee, remembered locally for her performance with Grant Mitchell in "The Hero," is one of the members of the original cast of "The Poor Nut" to support Elliott Nugent in the campus comedy that opens at El Capitan Sunday.

With the exception of her appearance in "The Hero" and in a talking picture, "Wise Girls," adapted from J. C. and Elliott Nugent's play, "Kempy," Miss Lee's work has been confined to New York, where, during an unusually short period, she rose to theatrical note, culminating in her creation of the part of Margie Blake in "The Poor Nut."

Miss Lee first gained recognition on Broadway in "Dulcy" and later was selected for the feminine lead in "Kempy." Then came engagements in "The Wild Westcotts," "A Clean Town" and finally "The Poor Nut."

In addition to Miss Lee, other members of the original cast of "The Poor Nut" who have been engaged to support Elliott Nugent are Ruth Nugent, Percy Helton, Cornelius Keefe, Russell Scott and Eric Kalkhurst. Other principals include Velsey O'Davoren, Kernan Cripps, William H. Turner, Edward Seabrook and Donald Campbell.

Former Stage Notable Plays 'Holiday' Role

While both film producers and their directors are always on the alert for new faces and talent that possess ability, they insist on the individual proving himself first, an immediate example, it is said, being Monroe Owsley, the young juvenile who is seen with Ann Harding in "Holiday," showing at the Carthay Circle Theater.

Although recognized as a versatile actor who scored in several stage productions on Broadway, Owsley found the demands for his services rather few following his arrival from Gotham. While the apparent need for his type was acute, casting directors insisted on motion-picture box-office names, it is reported.

However, E. H. Griffith, who directed "Holiday," remembered having seen Owsley's performance as the juvenile star in a Broadway production and sent for him to make a test; with the subsequent result that the young men was given the coveted part of the brother.

Store Girls See Current Film at Fox Criterion

More than 2000 Los Angeles department-store girls have seen "Our Blushing Brides" at the Criterion Theater, according to the management.

Questionnaires distributed to audiences show that the girls in the large department stores are greatly interested in the adventures with wealthy young men of the three shop girls in "Our Blushing Brides." As a matter of fact scenes in the M.-G.-M. picture were sound-filmed in a local department store.

Joan Crawford, Anita Page and Dorothy Sebastian take the roles of department-store girls in the picture, one being a fashion model, another in the blanket department and the third a clerk at the perfume counter.

Robert Montgomery, Raymond Hackett and John Miljan are the three leading men.

Novel Furnishes Basis for Next Artists' Film

Harold Bell Wright's novel, "Eyes of the World," will have its premiere showing at the United Artists Theater starting tomorrow. This is the first of the noted author's works to come to the talking screen.

"Eyes of the World," with its plot of a love-starved girl who grasped at a moment of love, has a talented cast. In the leading role is Una Merkel, until recently a stage actress, but now known as D. W. Griffith's latest find. Miss Merkel was acting in the cast of the stage play, "Coquette," when the director engaged her.

Outstanding in the supporting cast of this Henry King production are John Holland, Nance O'Neil, Fern Andra, Hugh Huntley, Brandon Hurst, Frederick Burt and William Jeffery.

HAROLDE IN TWO

Ralf Harolde, Radio Pictures' featured player, is testing make-ups and costumes for the two roles he is to play simultaneously. The films are "Babes in Toyland," which Luther Reed will direct, and the first Amos and Andy film vehicle, directed by Mel Brown.

FILM STAR RETURNS TO STAGE SOON

Basil Rathbone Chosen by Arch Selwyn for Part in "A Paris Divorce"

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (Exclusive) Supplementing his recent announcement on the forthcoming theatrical appearances of Colleen Moore, Vilma Banky, Rod La Rocque and Mary Pickford, Arch Selwyn said today that he had engaged Basil Rathbone who has been acting in the talkies for more than a year to return to the Broadway stage in November. His play will be "A Paris Divorce," an adaptation by Arthur Hornblow, Jr., of "Monsieur Stobin" by Andre Picard and Tristan Bernard. There is a possibility that Gloria Swanson also will be seen in "A Paris Divorce," if negotiations are successful.

Concerning Miss Pickford's play Mr. Selwyn said that the motion-picture star had not yet made her choice of three plays under consideration. According to indications she will probably decide upon "The Course of True Love" by Paul Kester and William Lewers. Charles Dillingham, who is interested with Mr. Selwyn in the production, has asked Otto Kahn to try to persuade Max Reinhardt to come here from Berlin to stage the Pickford play.

The role of Catherine Barkley in Laurence Stallings' dramatization of Ernest Hemingway's novel, "A Farewell to Arms," will be played by Elisha Landi, a young actress who has never appeared in America. Rouben Mamoulian who will direct the play recently saw Miss Landi in London and A. H. Woods completed the arrangements for her to come here.

'LA GOLONDRINA' PLAY IN OPENING

nun without having taken the vows; an angel of mercy.

Throughout "La Golondrina" runs the recurrent theme of the old Spanish melody from which it takes its name—a sad song of a bird with a broken wing, and a lover with a broken heart.

Music, indeed, plays no small part of this drama. The fiesta in Act II provides opportunity for various solo and ensemble interpretations, all under the direction of a strange master of ceremonies of 1807 called a bastanero. Among them—and they are many—may be found a picturesque minuet; a song, "La Nortena," by the Ramblers, male quartet, and such dances as "Las Orotolas," "Pandero," a "contra danza" and a tarantella. A gayly strumming quintet provided the tunes for them; and also, at intermission, for the audience.

Most capable of the players was Hanley Stafford as the Russian Count. La Verne Mohr was a darkly attractive Concepcion. Juanita Vigare, as the chatelaine, pleased the spectators. The trouble-maker, Bustamante, was emphasized by Malcolm Jelks; and in the large cast appeared Jean Jostyn, James Ryan, William Petrie, Douglas Williams, Harold Hodge and numerous supernumeraries and incidental types.

"La Golondrina," highly colored romance, will run through the week. It will be followed, next Monday evening, by "Osceola," a narrative of the Seminole Indian.

Players Chosen for New Drama

Casting for "The Missing Witness," the new mystery play to be presented at the Egan Theater starting on the 28th inst., has been completed. Gayle Evers is the latest addition to the cast. Others chosen are Lilya Vallon, Lucille Beavers, Ruth Cherrington, Maude Pealy, David Graham Fischer and Gloria Grey.

"The Missing Witness" was written by Ramon Romero and Harriet Hinsdale.

New Revue for Mayan Planned

The next stage attraction at the Mayan Theater will be in the nature of a revue extravaganza, according to announcement by Franklin Productions. The new show will be opened about September 22.

Over 350 girls have already made application for ensemble work and small parts in this new musical, it is said. As there will only be forty-eight girls and dancers used in the production, the management feels certain of showing local playgoers the most beautiful girls ever seen here.

NOTED PAIR TEAMED IN NEW FILM

Ruth Chatterton, Clive Brook Play Chief Roles in "Anybody's Woman"

The embattled lovers who stormed their way through "The Laughing Lady" and "Charming Sinners" are again teamed in "Anybody's Woman," starting Thursday at the Paramount Theater.

Ruth Chatterton and Clive Brook were selected again, according to reports from the Paramount studios, because they are an ideal couple for the leading roles in the story. Miss Chatterton is seen as the woman scorned by other women, insulted by men, trying to find love by a trick. Brook plays opposite as the young lawyer.

Directed for Paramount by Dorothy Arzner, who also directed Miss Chatterton in "Sarah and Son," "Anybody's Woman" was adapted from the story, "The Better Wife," by Gouverneur Morris.

Included in the supporting cast are Paul Lukas, Huntley Gordon, Virginia Hammond and Tom Patricola.

"For the Defense" is the current picture at the Paramount.

'Romance' Next Boulevard Film

"Romance," bringing Greta Garbo to the screen in a new characterization, will start Thursday at the Boulevard Theater. Miss Garbo appears as an Italian opera singer.

Gavin Gordon, who plays opposite Miss Garbo, has never before appeared on the screen, his theatrical experience having been confined to stage roles. Others in the cast are Lewis Stone, Elliot Nugent, Mathilde Comont, Henry Armetta, Clara Blandick, Florence Lake and Countess Nina de Liguoro. Clarence Brown directed.

SUIT DISCLOSES REALTY VALUES

Downtown Rentals Figure in Fight Over Real Estate

Cunningham's Daughter to Regain Legacy

Mother Bought Her Share at Sheriff's Auction

Values of important downtown business property figured yesterday in the testimony of Mrs. Rose Murray's suit to regain a one-twelfth interest in the $2,000,000 Daniel Cunningham estate. The suit is being tried before Superior Judge Yankwich. As originally bequeathed, one-half the estate went to the widow, Mrs. Margaret Cunningham, and one-twelfth each to the six children, held in trust. Mrs. Murray's share was sold at a Sheriff's sale, her mother buying it.

Evidence introduced yesterday showed that on an application for action the value of the ground rent of the Jewelers' Building, part of the estate, was placed at $1,214,700.

WIDOW'S EXPLANATION

Testimony was given to the effect that the trust also owns the Birch-Smith Furniture Company lease, on which $150 a month rental is received, and a lot on Main street which yields $1000 a month rental.

Mrs. Margaret Cunningham, the widow, testified she ordered her daughter's interest bid in to protect the trust. She said Mrs. Murray owed her $43,000.

DISTRIBUTED MONEY

"From 1911, when my husband died, I transacted all the business," testified Mrs. Cunningham. "When the income came in I distributed to the children their shares."

After Mrs. Murray went through bankruptcy E. A. Lynch, trustee in bankruptcy, was substituted for her as plaintiff in the suit. Attorney Myron Levinson represents him.

Auto Squabble to be Renewed

BIBLE FIGURES IN WILL FIGHT

Family Record Pages Before Court

Mrs. Alice Smith and Book in Evidence

DECLARING that Mrs. Ethel L. Christman was only an adopted daughter of the late Mrs. Etta Billings, Ernest, Mrs. Alice Smith, contestant in a $40,000 will case, yesterday pointed to the birth records in a family Bible to prove that the inscription "Ethel Lenore Smith, Wednesday, January 1, 1890," had been written in the wrong place, in a handwriting not that of Mrs. Ernest, owner of the Bible.

Mrs. Izora Goodman, a nurse, testified yesterday that Mrs. Ernest had declared she wanted her three grandchildren, Violet, John and Berenice Smith, to share in her estate. In the will offered for probate she cut them off with $10 each. Mrs. Smith, their mother, asserts this was because Mrs. Ernest was told false stories of attempts to poison her.

Attorney Sol Rehardt, for the contestants, will summon handwriting experts today, he said, to classify the handwriting in the Bible.

The stay in the South Sea Islands will take approximately five weeks.

COUNTY BUDGET CUT REQUESTED

Taxpayers' Association in Appeal to Board

Supervisors Asked to Make Further Reductions

Graves Declares New Rate will be Kept Low

A request for reduction in the preliminary budget of Los Angeles county, which lists proposed expenditures for the fiscal year 1930-31, as an aid to commercial enterprise during the present economic conditions was made of the Board of Supervisors yesterday by the local division of the California Taxpayers' Association.

The association addressed the Supervisors with a communication at the opening of the hearings on the budget which are held prior to the adoption by the board of the county's new tax rate for general purposes on September 2, next. The letter was signed by Rex Thomason, secretary of the taxpayers' organization.

LETTER DISCUSSED

The letter was the principal topic of discussion at the first meeting, and Sidney T. Graves, chairman of the board, announced that it is to be given careful consideration before adoption of the new rates.

The association asserts that under present economic conditions a deal of private enterprise has found it expedient to recede from annual policies of expansion until such time as normal conditions again prevail.

The association suggested a conservative program of public expenditure in consonance with existing circumstances, and advised allowance of only such appropriations for the various departments of government as represent the strictly irreducible amounts necessary for the economic maintenance of a proper standard of service and to safeguard against loss.

CO-OPERATION PLEDGED

The association pointed out to the Supervisors that they are in a preferred position to make the reductions without hampering or restricting governmental operations and to guard against withdrawal of money from the taxpayers other than is required by absolute necessity. The organization pledged co-operation with the Supervisors in the matter.

Following the reading of the letter Secretary Thomason of the Taxpayers' organization declared:

MORE CUTS PLANNED

"We naturally feel that the budget can stand considerable slicing in addition to what already has been done. The Supervisors are in a position to know where this cutting can best be done and we do not propose to try and take the credit for bringing about reductions which the Supervisors of their own accord will see fit to make."

Chairman Graves replied that he is sure all members of the board join with the views expressed by the Taxpayers' Association and that the budget is due for further reductions as members are determined this year to keep the tax rate as low as possible without impairing in any way the efficiency of the county government.

ROLPH ON LAST TOUR OF SOUTH

Bay City Candidate for Governor to Use Plane in Keeping Itinerary

Mayor Rolph of San Francisco, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, is making his final tour of Southern California this week. His campaign in the Southland will end next Friday with a business men's luncheon for men and women at the Biltmore at noon and a Rolph-for-Governor rally at 8 p.m. on the same day.

The final speeches of his campaign will be made next Saturday night at an Alameda county rally in Oakland and Monday night in San Francisco. Mayor Rolph's itinerary this week includes visits to San Bernardino, Orange and San Diego counties, where rallies will be held under the direction of Al G. Faulkner, Southern California campaign manager, and various chairmen and committees conducting the campaign in the Southland.

After his speeches during the day and in the evening before business groups and at rallies in Los Angeles Harbor, Huntington Park and at Kimball Hall on Whittier Boulevard, Mayor Rolph took a plane at 11:45 last night for Santa Clara county, where he will make speeches until 2 p.m. today, when he will fly back to San Bernardino for a combined Riverside and San Bernardino county rally tonight.

HONOR PAID TO PIONEER CLERGYMAN

Rev. J. M. Schaefle Made "Pastor for Life" by Pico Heights Church

Forty years ago, in a little red schoolhouse on the site of the present Hyde Park Grammar School buildings, Rev. J. M. Schaefle, pastor of the Pico Heights Congregational Church, preached his first sermon. Before a crowded church in Hyde Park last night prominent citizens honored the veteran pastor and gave him his credentials as "pastor for life."

Reminiscences were in order. Dr. Schaefle told his hearers that he began reading The Times soon after coming here and that the section "At the City's Gates" contained all the news of that part of the city as well as of the other corners of Los Angeles.

Organized April 22, 1888, in Inglewood the Hyde Park Church was later merged with the Pico Heights Congregational Church and Schaefle became the pastor. Three new churches have been built since. From a membership of ten the church has grown to be one of the most important in this city.

Douglas Cruickshank, head of the Young People's Society, offered resolutions outlining the "remarkable career of our pastor." These were adopted unanimously. Mrs. Schaefle, whom he spoke of as "that rosy-cheeked girl I met here in Los Angeles" was also signally honored.

AUTO LICENSE RULE UPHELD

Judge Holds Requirement for Authorization on Bureau Service to be Legal

Only the State has the inherent right to exercise State functions, Superior Judge Yankwich held yesterday in an opinion denying a new trial of the case of Lee J. Ellis against Frank G. Snook, chief of the Division of Motor Vehicles.

The suit sought to have declared unconstitutional the provisions of the 1929 amendment to the Motor Vehicle Act requiring persons who obtain license through a license bureau to get authorization from the department.

This provision was attacked as an unwarranted interference with legitimate business. Superior Judge Oates last December held the law unconstitutional and granted a temporary injunction. Judge Yankwich dissolved this injunction and held that the law is constitutional. He wrote:

"The fact was overlooked that there is no inherent right to engage in the business of license service. It is true that a law which enables a public official to refuse arbitrarily to another the right to engage in a lawful business is unconstitutional. But the issuance of a license under the Motor Vehicle Act is the exercise of a governmental function. No individual could acquire the right to engage in a business which aims to aid in the performance of this function . . . No private rights can accrue to an individual from the performance of a State function."

MOTORCYCLE PLEA WINS

The sum of $18,000 for the purchase of fifty additional motorcycles for the police department will be recommended by the Finance Committee to the City Council, it was decided yesterday. No additional policemen will be placed on the force, the new motorcycle officers being drawn from the present personnel.

REMOVAL OF POLICEMEN APPROVED

Board Backs Steckel in Dismissing Trio Accused of Transgressions

Removal by Chief of Police Steckel of three officers was approved by the Police Commission in a special session held yesterday and restoration to the department of Harry R. Maxwell, removed in 1925, also was approved.

The Mayor's investigating squad was responsible for the removal of two of the officers, Charles H. Pythian and Kenneth M. Ward. The squad reported that its investigations disclosed that the officers, despite warnings, had been found in the company of a woman whom the squad claims has been convicted twenty-nine times under vice laws.

The third officer removed was David Barnett, whom officers of the Venice division reported as being intoxicated at his home, 11420 Braddock street, after he had obtained leave on the plea of illness.

NEW LAURELS FOR HARBOR

Port Trails New York in Foreign Export Tonnage; First in Intercoastal Trade

The port of Los Angeles is second in this country in foreign export tonnage, neck and neck with Buffalo and Baltimore for third place in total foreign imports, according to a foreign-trade compilation just completed by the marine exchange, Chamber of Commerce, giving a revised line-up of American ports in in international business. The local harbor maintains its position as first in intercoastal commerce.

Figured in long tons, New York with 11,444,981 tons is the leader in this country for foreign exports for the 1928-1929 fiscal year, the compilation shows. Los Angeles comes next with 4,664,745 tons, while New Orleans is third with 4,201,603 tons. Houston, with 3,437,281 tons, is fourth; San Francisco, with 2,062,724 tons, fifth; Toledo, sixth, and Galveston, seventh. Duluth is twenty-sixth with 566,351 tons. In total foreign commerce tonnage New York tops the list with 28,528,314 tons for the fiscal year ending in 1929. In the preceding year Los Angeles was in third place, but the margin between its total foreign commerce tonnage and that of the two cities ahead of it for the 1928-1929 span is comparatively small, the figures being: Los Angeles, 6,310,555 tons; Baltimore, 6,290,164 tons, and Buffalo, 6,971,600 tons. New Orleans with 5,516,520 tons is in second place.

In one year's time Los Angeles Harbor has jumped from eleventh place in foreign import tonnage to eighth position. The order of precedence for the leaders in this division is: For 1928-1929, New York, 17,052,452 tons; Buffalo, 4,797,000 tons; Baltimore, 4,760,007 tons; New Orleans, 4,614,927 tons; Philadelphia, 4,222,140 tons; Boston, 2,191,-885 tons; San Francisco, 1,179,551 tons. Los Angeles Harbor's foreign import tonnage for the 1928-1929 fiscal year is given as 645,810 tons. Portland, Me.; Detroit, Norfolk, Everett, Mass.; Charleston, S. C.; Seattle, Savannah and Mobile follow in the order named down to the sixteenth position, inclusive. Houston is in twenty-sixth place in this division in the period mentioned.

Lou Gehrig Drives Homer No. 35 with Two on Base in Sixth

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (AP)—Aided by some timely hitting by his team-mates, Herb Pennock won his tenth game of the season today as the New York Yankees clubbed out an 11-to-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox. The victory gave the Yanks their sixteenth triumph of the last twenty-two starts.

Pennock was hit hard, but was pinch with blows with men on bases and he did not give a base on balls. Lou Gehrig drove out his thirty-fifth homer with two aboard in the sixth, while Reynolds, who made four hits for the Sox, cleaned the bases with a double in the seventh. The honor of leading the Yankees attack, however, went to Ben Chapman, who pounded out four hits in five times at the plate.

Williams Breaks Into 'Big Four'

Hitchcock Switches Line-up of American Squad

Williams will Play Against Varsity Tomorrow

Entry of Williams Breaks up First String

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (AP)—Herbert W. (Rube) Williams, a Texas cow-puncher, galloped today right into the midst of the battle for positions on the "Big Four" of American polo, being groomed to meet the British for the international cup this September.

As a result of Williams's sensational performance among the substitute forces, reaching a climax in his brilliant play at Fort Washington yesterday, Capt. Tommy Hitchcock today announced a shake-up in the "Whites" or varsity combination by which Williams replaces Earl A. S. Hopping at No. 2 for the next test match, Wednesday afternoon, at the Piping Rock Club.

The entry of Williams to first-string company for the first time since the American test matches started marks the break-up of the quartet that has ridden successfully together for the past two weeks.

In this line-up, hitherto regarded by polo critics as the one likely to oppose the British, Hopping had teamed with Eric Pedley, Capt. Hitchcock and Winston Guest. The latter trio will retain their positions at No. 1, No. 3, and back, respectively, for the next test match. Hopping will ride at No. 2 with the "Reds" or "Jayvees," with "Pete" Bostwick at No. 1, Cecil Smith, another Texan, at No. 3, and Elmer Boeseke of California, at back.

Although rated only at 8 goals in the official handicap list, Williams's play has stamped him as the equal so far of such 9-goal performers as Hopping, Pedley and Boeseke, Hitchcock is a 10-goal man and the only one in the world at this maximum figure.

Williams has reached the height of his game, with apparently a bright chance to break into the "Big Four," at the advanced age of 39. He is nearly twice as old as Hopping, just turned 20, and five years older than any other outstanding candidate. Eric Pedley, the Californian, is 34, and Hitchcock is only 30.

CUBS MAUL PHILLIES TO CLIMB

Hack Wilson Slams 42nd Homer as Chicago Defeats Philadelphia, 17-3.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (AP)—The Cubs accomplished more constructive work on their job of building up a lead in the National League pennant battle today, mauling Philadelphia, 17 to 3, for their third straight victory in the series, and giving them a three and one-half-game margin over Brooklyn, which lost to Pittsburgh.

Perce Malone held the Phillies to eight hits and accounted for his fifteenth victory of the season. The Cubs belabored Hansen and Phillips for seventeen safeties. Woody English walked four times, hit once, and scored five Cub runs.

Hack Wilson slammed out his forty-second home run of the season to open a six-run rally in the eighth, and was only one circuit drive away from the league record set last season by Chuck Klein of the Phillies, who saw the drive sail into the bleachers. Malone also hit for the circuit, getting his with a man on in the fourth.

PERCE PAT MALONE is his name and he's a big 190-pound right-hander, who composes exactly one-third of Manager Joe McCarthy's "big three" on whom he can depend for reasonably frequent good performances. This triumvirate which won a total of fifty-nine victories for Chicago last year (all but thirty-nine of the club's total wins) has had to be supported and abetted now and then by Bud Teachout and Bob Osborn. Lately "Sheriff" Blake has been coming to the front, too, but in the latest pitching averages at hand it is your uncle Pat Malone who has the best record for the Wrigleyites, and if Pat can only take a new lease on life and finish the season as he did last year then the Cubs and A's will have it out again in the so-called "October classic."

In 1929 Pat Malone developed the best pitching year he had ever had in his life, and finally made the major league reputation which had been predicted for him when he first got a chance to display his skill under the "big top." Twenty-two victories were chalked up to the credit of Mr. Malone, as against only ten defeats, which was much better even than his sensational first-season record of 1928, when he won eighteen and lost thirteen. Pat worked in forty games last year, two less than when he was a freshman, but pitched 367 innings, as against 251 the year before, and struck out eleven more batters, while only allowing three more bases on balls.

But fame and happiness were not to come to Mr. Malone during the Cubs' first world series since 1918. In black and white, his record for the disastrous affair with Philadelphia reads: "W-0, L-2, Pct. .000." His first calamity occurred in the second game at Chicago, when he was removed in the fourth inning after allowing five hits and giving five passes. Then Malone was one of the five Cub hurlers who took part in that big ten-run rally the A's staged in the fourth game, al-

Los Angeles A. C. Team Finds Weather Warm on Trip to Pittsburgh

BY HECTOR DYER
Intercollegiate 220-Yard Champion

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 18.—Now that the thirteen Los Angeles Athletic Club track-and-field athletes, accompanied by Dean Cromwell, acting as coach and manager, are on their way to compete in the 1930 senior national A.A.U. championships, the major duties of Les Henry, Boyd Comstock, and Hugh Pinney, of the L.A.A.C., have been completed. The days of the practices, tryouts, outfitting and arranging for the trip are over. All that is left now are the results of the actual competition.

The weather experienced thus far has been warm, but not excessively uncomfortable nor enervating. This morning the traveling athletes donned their linen knickers and shed their coats. The Athletic Club team car, located conveniently next to the diner, is occupied by the thirteen team members exclusively, besides Dean Cromwell, with the exception of Mrs. Hinkle, who never misses a meet in which her husband competes. Mrs. Hinkle is the wife of Harry Hinkle, the defend-

Other Favorites Advance Easily in Newport Tourney; Werner Loses in Lone Upset of First Round

NEWPORT (R. I.) Aug. 13. (AP)—Big Bill Tilden, suffering from injuries that made every step a painful one, today called upon his great wealth of tennis experience to turn back Ellsworth Vines, rising young Californian, in the veteran's first match in defense of his Newport Casino invitational singles championship.

This match was the most thrilling encounter of the thirty-six first and second-round matches completed before an early evening shower put a stop to the play. The opening day gallery saw the seven-times national champion, who had been top seeded, limp through a fierce twenty-four-game battle with the cool youngster before overcoming him by margins of 9-7, 6-2.

Many times during the opening set Tilden appeared doomed to humiliating defeat. His injured hip prevented him from making any kind of an attempt to cover his court and during the early games he was forced to use all of his stroking skill to stay with Vines.

VINES SERVES

Service was held for a dozen games before Tilden's terrific service and returns became annoying to the Californian. The veteran's furious speed seemed to dull Vines's sense of accuracy, for there were many times when he belted an overhead smash, or the sideliner, catching Tilden off balance on either side of the court, but these shots failed to crash in scoring points by fractions of inches and it was the close "outs" that enabled Tilden to breaks through Vines' service in the fifteenth game and save his own in the following one for the set. Tilden's limp became more pronounced during the second set, but at this stage Vines was greatly upset by his narrow misses and he was completely overwhelmed by a grim veteran who broke three of his four second-set services.

All of the seeded players on the American list were able to survive their opening matches and the only unexpected setback was when John H. Millet, of New York, a newcomer to major tennis tournament, defeated Keith Werner of Los An-

Miss Nuthall, Americans Triumph in First Round of Title Tourney

BY TED VOSBURGH
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS (N. Y.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Betty Nuthall, with a bright red band around her head and all her strokes in beautiful control, led a parade of favorites through the opening round of the forty-third national women's tennis championship today on the turf of the West Side stadium.

Playing her first match in the United States since she was upset by Mrs. Molla Mallory in the quarter-finals of this event last year, the English challenger turned back Leslie MacFarland of Pasadena, Cal., 6-0, 6-3, in an encounter lasting less than half an hour.

Against her comparatively unknown opponent, Miss Nuthall employed the methods characteristic of Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, calmly outdriving her from the base line in a competent fashion that indicated this English girl is indeed a dangerous contender for the title Mrs. Moody has relinquished.

AMERICANS WIN

Two of Miss Nuthall's leading American rivals, however, won by scores as decisive as hers. Mrs. Anna Harper, the left-handed San Francisco veteran who was seeded first among the United States players,

CUBS BUY GEORGE KELLY AS GRIMM SUFFERS HURT

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Long George Kelly's baseball travels have brought him to Chicago where his famous uncle, Bill Lange, played more than thirty years ago for Cap Anson. George Lange Kelly today was obtained from Minneapolis of the American Association by the Cubs in a trade involving Malcolm Moss, left-handed pitcher, and another player to be named later this week. Kelly will report tomorrow and probably will be sent to first base to play until Charley Grimm recovers from a spike wound suffered Saturday. Kelly spent fourteen years of baseball in the National League, most of them with the New York Giants.

Jack Gaines Takes Lead in First Eighteen Holes of Spreckels Cup Play at Co

GIRARD GOLFER TWO OVER PAR

Shoots a 74 to Show Way in Links Tournament

Warner Edmonds Second with a 75 at Coronado

Qualifying Round will be Continued Today

CORONADO COUNTRY CLUB, Aug. 18.—Jack Gaines of Girard, winner of the A. B. Spreckels Cup in 1927, went into the lead of the field of eighty-four in the first eighteen holes of the qualifying round when he scored a 74, two over par, today. Gaines was one stroke lower than Warner Edmonds, Jr., La Cumbre Country Club, Santa Barbara.

JACK GAINES

Next in line came a group of three, Jack Mackey, Los Angeles Country Club, and Russell Osgood and T. A. Bowman, Jr., San Diego Country Club. Each had a 76. J. T. Hammon, elder of two brothers in the Paris (Tex.) family competing, which includes a father and two sons, and Clifford Little, Los Serranos, were next at 78 with E. F. Coombs, Virginia Country Club, and A. A. Mathewson of Coronado, tied at 79.

Scores were uniformly high in the field, with marks of 81 including the eighteen low in the field. Among the low-handicap golfers who slipped to scores above 80 were H. W. Hellman, Hillcrest Country Club; Leland Hamman, and Clark Somers, Jr., Los Angeles Country Club. Each had an 82.

Gaines had a chance to break par 72, but lost two strokes on a penalty when he picked out of a tree basin and again when his ball picked up a bit of mud on the green at the lip of the ninth cup, to hang almost half in and half out.

The second eighteen holes of the qualifying round will be played tomorrow.

crushed Darrance Chase of Boston, 6-0, 6-1, and Sarah Palfrey of Brookline, Mass., outplayed Laura Pittenger of Camden, N. J., 6-1, 6-0, despite numerous double faults.

In a busy afternoon of play witnessed by about 500 spectators the field was reduced from fifty-seven to thirty-two and among the survivors were all ten members of the seeded group, all but two of whom advanced in straight sets.

The two exceptions were Ethel Burkhardt, pint-sized San Francisco miss and Edith Cross, No. 3 ranking player of the United States, who hails from the same city. Miss Burkhardt finally won from Marjorie Sacha, Boston, at 8-1, 3-6, 6-3, and Miss Cross came back after a shaky start to beat Mrs. Phillip B. Hawk of New York, 6-8, 6-2, 6-0.

Mary Greef of Kansas City and Los Angeles scored a creditable victory over Anna Page of Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-4, and Catherine Wolf of Indianapolis, the western champion, also played good tennis to turn back Mrs. K. J. Scherber of England, 7-5, 6-4.

Penelope Anderson of Richmond, Va., kept the south in the running by overcoming Dorothy Andrus, a sturdy young player from Stamford, Ct., 11-9, 6-4, but the Far West and the East were the sections that captured most of the thirty-two places. Nine of California's best were still in the battle and intent on keeping the title in the Golden State despite the absence of Mrs. Moody and Helen Jacobs, the first and second ranking players of the country.

THREE HOPEFULS

Eastern hopes for the championship rested primarily upon Sarah Palfrey, Eleanor Goss, the New York veteran who easily subdued Eleanor Cottman of Baltimore, 6-2, 6-2, and Marjorie Morrill of Dedham, Mass., who drew a bye and will not see action until tomorrow.

Others who were not scheduled on the opening day were Josephine Cruickshank of Santa Ana, Cal., and Baroness Levi of Italy, the former Maude Rosenbaum of Chicago.

Tomorrow's featured matches to be played on the stadium center courts, follow:

1 p.m.—Miss Morrill, Dedham, Mass., vs. Clara Rinke, Cincinnati.

DOUBLES

4 p.m., first round—Mary Greef and Dorothy Weisel, Sacramento, vs. Mrs. J. Dallas Corbiere, Boston, and Edith Sigourney, Mahani, Mass.

4:30 p.m.—Betty Nuthall and Sarah Palfrey vs. Mrs. Hawk and Gladys Hutchinson, Bermuda.

In the draw for the national championship doubles which will start tomorrow the following four teams were seeded among the twenty-six that will compete:

1—Miss Nuthall and Sarah Palfrey.
2—Edith Cross and Mrs. Harper.
3—Josephine Cruickshank and Marjorie Gladman.
4—Penelope Anderson and Marjorie Morrill.

This title was won last year by an English team and Miss Nuthall hopes to take half of it back to England again.

Today's most important results:

First round—Catherine Wolf, Indianapolis, defeated Mrs. K. J. Sherber, England, 7-5, 6-4.

Mrs. R. F. Stens, New York, defeated Elsie Gabel, San Francisco, 6-2, 6-0.

Ruth Osgood, Cincinnati, defeated Mercedes Marlowe, Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-4.

Mrs. C. F. Muhl, New York, defeated Gladys Mutchins, Bermuda, 1-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Edith Marlowe, Los Angeles, defeated Jean Burritt, Toronto, 6-4, 7-5.

Penelope Anderson, Richmond, Va., defeated Dorothy Andrus, Stamford, Ct., 11-9, 6-4.

Dorothy Weisel, Sacramento, defeated Norma Taubele, New York, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.

Marjorie Gladman, Santa Monica, Cal., defeated Mrs. William M. Shedden, Boston, 6-2, 6-2.

Carolyn Roberts, New Rochelle, N. Y., defeated Theodosia Smith, Chicago, 6-2, 6-4.

Mrs. Mary J. Lamme, Rye, New York, defeated Mary Z. McHale, Dallas, 6-1, 6-1.

Carolyn Babcock, Los Angeles, defeated Virginia Cross, Providence, R. I., 6-1, 6-1.

Elizabeth D. Warren, Richmond, Va., won from Mrs. Beryl Cope, Bermuda, by default.

Edith Sigourney, Mahani, Mass., defeated Mrs. F. M. Letson, New York, 6-3, 6-4.

Betty Nuthall, England, defeated Louise McFarland, Pasadena, Cal., 6-3, 6-1.

Ethel Burkhardt, San Francisco, defeated Marjorie Sacha, Boston, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1.

Mary Greef, Kansas City, defeated Anne Page, Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-4.

Eleanor Goss, New York, defeated Eleanor Cottman, Baltimore, 6-2, 6-2.

Anna McGhee Harper, San Francisco, defeated Darrance Chase, Boston, 6-0, 6-1.

Sarah Palfrey, Boston, defeated Laura Pittenger, Camden, N. J., 6-1, 6-0.

Edith Cross, San Francisco, defeated Mrs. Phillip B. Hawk, New York, 6-8, 6-2, 6-0.

SENATORS RELEASE GOULD AND WARD

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 18.—Lewis Moreing, owner of the Sacramento baseball club, today announced the release of Pudgy Gould, pitcher, and Aaron Ward, second baseman, and formerly a star with the New York Yankees.

Gould, whose principal duties this season were performed as relief hurler, had been ineffective of late, the climax coming when he lost Sunday's game at Stockton by walking five men and hitting a batter to give Los Angeles three runs without a hit. Ward was cut loose because he did not keep in condition; he has not reported at the clubhouse for several days and when he does Moreing said he will be handed his release.

FRANK TROEH WINS TRAP CHAMPIONSHIP

DAYTON (O.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Frank M. Troeh of Portland, Or., won the Class AA championship of the thirty-first grand American handicap trap-shoot tournament at Vandalia Field near here today. He had a perfect score of 200.

More than 500 gunners took part in the class events, all of which called for 200 targets.

LONG STOPS MEREDITH

TOLEDO (O.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Charley Long, 160½, Los Angeles Negro, spoiled Lee Meredith's attempted ring comeback here tonight by pummeling the Toledoan unmercifully in the first round and part of the second until Referee Ollie Pecord stopped the bout. Meredith was down for two counts of nine in the first period.

MAYS KAYOS DI CARLOS

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (AP)—Harold Mays, Bayonne (N. J.) heavyweight, knocked out Amrando Di Carlos of Italy in the fifth round of their ten-round bout at Henderson's Bowl, Coney Island, tonight. Mays weighed 188; Di Carlos, 184½.

DENVER NINE TRIUMPHS

COLORADO SPRINGS (Colo.) Aug. 18. (AP)—Denver defeated Albuquerque, N. M., 9 to 1, today to win the regional championship of the American Legion junior baseball tournaments. Denver will participate in the all-western play-off here this week to determine the champions west of the Mississippi.

Ranking the Heavyweights

THERE are now just four heavyweights who figure in any way so far as the heavyweight situation is concerned. They are Max Schmeling, Young Stribling, Jack Sharkey and Primo Carnera.

It isn't what you would call an impressive lot. There hasn't been a consistent performer in the lot except Carnera, and he could hardly keep from being consistent against the puffballs thrown in his way. Yet they happen to be the only four in the spotlight. Campolo can hardly be included in this collection since in his last three important fights, more or less, he was outpointed by Phil Scott and by Johnny Risko. This doesn't give the South American much to work on. He may be the best of the lot, but he hasn't shown it.

Schmeling, the champion through a foul, looked to be the worst of the lot in his last appearance. But he got the big break in the big spot and that is about all anyone needs to arrive. It is practically like winning the championship through default.

Sharkey has drawn four stabs at the big title and he is now further away than he was at the start, just after he had beaten Godfrey, Wills and Maloney. Stribling has had the latest and largest spurt, and has to be ranked next to Schmeling. He is now closer to the title than Sharkey is. Carnera is still the big mystery—possibly the best or the worst fighter of them all. But he is at least the biggest drawing card, the main money man at the gate. Thrown in against a first-class opponent he will outdraw any of the others by a full pot of gold. There are still many who believe Carriera can clean up the lot without getting up a perspiration. The meeting between Sharkey and Campolo will be just a heavyweight fight, proving nothing in any direction. Either can win or lose without proving anything. The two main eliminations now in sight must take care of Stribling and Carnera. They may be flops. But they can't outflop the others to any great extent, including Max Schmeling, the champion.

Drawing Power

Carnera could be matched with Schmeling, Stribling or Sharkey and outdraw any other match that might be made by 30 per cent. He is at least something the crowd likes to watch—and the crowd isn't wrought up about any of the others. They have seen the others in too many foul fights, dancing contests and wrestling matches.

It is possible that any one of the trio might knock out Carnera. But here is where the big money is—and there isn't any big money anywhere else.

The Next Move

It is about time some of these heavyweights were proving something without tapping the public again. They all owe the public a lot of money, which probably isn't their fault as long as the public insists on building up the sucker list.

So far there isn't one left who has shown enough to ask more than $5 for a ringside seat. They have been putting on $2 and $3 fights for eight and ten times this amount and if they are not willing to prove that they have improved enough to demand more there may be a public revolt.

August 31

The Cubs have until the last day of August to build up their lead. After that they move out upon the road while the Giants and Dodgers finish at home through most of September. Under these conditions the Cubs will need a lead of three or four games to be reasonably safe—or fairly safe.

The Cub-Giant series this week may tell a big part of the story. Whatever the final finish, Cub supporters have been more afraid of the Giants than the Dodgers. They may be all damp in this reckoning. But that is the way they have felt. If the Cubs can handle the Giants as they handled the Dodgers, they will be pretty well out in the open with something better than an even chance. But if they start skidding in this New York series they will be in trouble the rest of the way.

It is quite apparent by now that Hack Wilson has no idea of giving up his pursuit of Babe Ruth. Hack is going to keep on hitting his home runs and let the Babe's fall where they may. He will be the first to lift the National League home-run record above fifty. And he may be the first in a long time to lead Ruth past the wire.

"Notre Dame," writes onlooker, "has her choice between getting ready for Southern Methodist in her first game or being ready for Southern California in her last. She can't do both. No team or squad can be ready for as hard a game as S.M.U. early in October and still be ready for as hard a game as U.S.C. two months later. Dr. Rockne will have to take his pick, for these will be two of the hardest teams of the year for any squad to beat."

Today's Golf Round-up

"You are always writing about the left hand in golf," suggests H. F. "I had an idea golf is a two-handed game."

It is. But most golfers don't seem to think so. They play it as a right-handed game where the left merely gets in the way. No one has to worry much about the use of the right hand. But to the average golfer the left is merely a handicap. He must learn to start the club back with the left and to start the down swing with the left in main control. In doing that he will have the basis of a golf swing. It will do no harm to start swinging a club with the left hand alone—in order to get the feel of a left-hand swing. Without a firm left hand and left wrist and left arm to hit against there is no guiding factor in any way—no feeling of control.

LUTZE READY FOR GEORGE

Nick Takes Final Workout for Tomorrow Night's Bout and Appears to be in Great Shape

In his final workout yesterday in preparation for his finish mat battle with Don George at the Olympic tomorrow night, Nick Lutze appeared to be in better condition than he had been for any match since his title battles here with Ed (Strangler) Lewis.

Lutze stated yesterday he had trained for this bout as if it were a title battle, and proved that he was in excellent shape and prepared to meet George's leg split and flying head-scissor attacks during the hour and a half he spent yesterday in working against the former national amateur champion's best holds.

NICK LUTZE.

With very few exceptions, Lutze's mat record shows that he has been able to beat most of his opponents in return matches. One of the outstanding cases of this kind here was his sensational victory over Joe Malcewicz, the mat panther. Malcewicz put Lutze in the hospital when he tossed the life guard on his head with a backward body slam. Lutze, however, learned enough about the Utican's wrestling style in that match to come back several months later and beat him two falls out of three.

Lutze beat Malcewicz by developing a backward slam of his own, and using a perfect defense against the Utican's head-smashing hold. During the past week that he has been preparing to meet George, he has worked on the same principle, it is reported. He is said to have developed several new holds, similar to those used by George, and at the same time perfected a defense against the young man's winning grips.

The Venice life guard expects to have little trouble tying George into knots. George's wrestling style is so different from that used by most of the top-notchers that it has been almost impossible for his opponents to use any kind of defense against him. His most effective grips are clamped on from behind and as he is able to get in back of his foes almost at will, he has managed to have things his own way in nearly every match he has had here.

Dick Daviscourt will clash with Joe Malcewicz in the one-hour time limit semi-wind-up of this mat program, while Lee Wycoff, the lanky Missouri mat star, is being given another chance to make good in the opener when he meets Pietro Bacini, Italian champion, in the other one-hour bout.

Wycoff claims that Dr. P. A. Mullikan, who refereed his match here with Bacini a few weeks ago, kept him from beating the Italian. Mullikan, Wycoff declares, stood in front of him when he was getting back into the ring after being tossed out. By doing this, Wycoff declares, he was unable to protect himself from Bacini's winning rush when Mullikan stepped away. Mullikan, according to the toe-hold artist, should have stood in front of Bacini until after he had entered the ring. This is expected to develop into a grudge match.

The time is passed writing letters, playing cards and reading; but mostly in discussing the coming track-and-field meets, namely: The nationals at Pittsburgh, the 22nd, 23rd and 25th inst.; and the dual meet in which the United States will meet the British Empire at Soldier Field, Wednesday, the 27th inst.

The men are arranging a pool on the points scored by the Mercury team at Pittsburgh in the nationals. Each entrant puts a quarter in the pool and draws a number ranging somewhere between twenty-nine and forty-five which is conceded to be the fairest range of the probable points to be scored by the club team.

Those making the trip for the L.A.A.C. are as follows: Ray Alf, 440-yard dash and relays; Dick Barber, broad jump; Herman Brix, sixteen-pound shot put; James De Mers, javelin throw; Hector Dyer, sprints and relays; Harry Hinkle, three-mile walk; Vaino Hoover, javelin throw; Henry Lasalette, high jump; Leo Lermond, mile run; Bob Maxwell, 220 low hurdles and relays; Bob Patton, hop, step and jump; Dick Pomeroy, 440-yard hurdles; Alma Richards, fifty-six-pound weight throw; Jim Stewart, high jump; Fred Sturdy, pole vault; Vic Williams, 440-yard dash and relays.

Of the group Lermond and Hoover are now in Pittsburgh and Alf will join the team at Chicago, where the team will take a short workout at Soldier Field before leaving for Pittsburgh.

PALACIOS POINTING FOR BOUT

Mexican Kid Out to Snag Limelight from McDonald Friday at Hollywood

Teddy Palacios will be a shortender Friday night at the Hollywood Legion Stadium when he faces Hector McDonald but the Mexican lightweight will not be without backers when he enters the ring. This much came from Palacios handlers yesterday who stated that the Mexican kid is out to break into the limelight locally and that he will try and knock out McDonald instead of just seeking a win by the decision route. Palacios is a dangerous puncher. He had Johnny Lamar on the floor recently and he believes if he gets McDonald going he will keep him there.

GOLDIE HESS

McDonald, however, is a more seasoned fighter than Palacios and on that and his past performances here will enter the ring about a 2-to-1 shot to beat the local kid. McDonald, although better known than Palacios, has not quite caught on locally. He came here to fight Goldie Hess and when the latter hurt his arm Palacios was substituted. The Northwestern boy will, if he beats Palacios, stay here and smoke Hess out, his manager states.

Gene Doyle, acting matchmaker at the stadium, in the absence of Tom Gallery, has lined up an attractive card for preliminaries Friday. In the semi-wind-up Leonard Bennett battles Freddy Hawkins while in the special event Wally Fraser meets Joe Goeders. Two four-rounders complete the card.

Robinson Cops Tennis Match

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18. (AP)—Seventeen men and six women emerged victorious today from singles matches in the opening round of the eighth annual public parks tennis championships of the United States.

Representatives from public-park courts of thirty-two cities and one from Honolulu are participating in the tournament, featured by the playing of women for the first time.

The first match to finish in the opening round of men's singles advanced Leo Kronman of Buffalo, who won from W. F. Graney of Perth Amboy, N. J., in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-1.

Stanley Robinson, San Diego, won from Leonard Dworkin, Cleveland, 7-5, 1-6, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3.

PAULINO SIGNED FOR THREE RING BATTLES

NEW YORK, Aug. 18. (Exclusive) Jeff Dickson, European promoter, has signed Paulino Uscudun for three fights, the first with Charlie Smith of England in London September 29; the second, with Criscuolo, the French heavy at Paris October 31, and the third at Barcelona, Spain, on or about November 30. Young Stribling may be the Basque's third opponent, but that is by no means certain.

Paulino refused a fight with Max Schmeling, according to Dickson, because he did not want to offend the Garden folk for whom he has a warm spot in his heart.

TRIO RELEASED BY MISSION BALL CLUB

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Outright release of Elliot Bigelow, outfielder, and Duncan McKay and Ken Douglas, pitchers, was announced today by Wade (Red) Killefer, president-manager of the San Francisco Missions. Bigelow, purchased from Chattanooga of the Southern Association, to replace Ike Boone, was a failure with the Coast League club. Killefer said McKay and Douglas lacked experience to carry on in Class AA baseball.

BEAR HARRIERS PREPARE FOR LOS ANGELES EVENT

BERKELEY, Aug. 18. (Exclusive) Track athletes of the University of California today started preparation for their first big event of the fall training program when W. W. Monahan, general manager of the Associated Students, announced that a three-cornered cross-country run in all likelihood will be held in Los Angeles the morning of the U.S.C.-California football game, November 8, next.

The University of Southern California has not yet definitely given word of its entrance into the event. Arnold Eddy, graduate manager, is in favor of the run for the Trojans.

It is felt that when Dean Cromwell, coach of the track team, gives his approval the event will be cinched.

U.C.L.A. is sure to take part.

One other step must be taken before the Golden Bears are positive of entering. An appropriation to meet the necessary expense must be voted by the executive committee of the Associated Students. Monahan believes this will be done.

The cross-country run is exciting considerable interest on the campus, particularly in track quarters, since this is the first interschool competition of this type in many years.

If the University of Southern California does not come in, there will probably be an eight-man team from both U.C.L.A. and California. U.C.L.A's. course will be improvised over bridle paths in the Westwood Hills.

SCHULMERICH AIDS ANGELS

Heavy Hitting of Outfielder One of Main Reasons for Brilliant Showing of Seraphs; De Lara Says He's Become Bill Tilden's Arch-Enemy

BY BRAVEN DYER

THERE are several reasons for the success of Jack Lelivelt's fast-going Angels, but none, at the moment, appears to be more outstanding than the timely and murderous hitting of big Wes Schulmerich, who used to be known as "The Iron Horse" when he was playing fullback for the Oregon State football team.

WES SCHULMERICH

JACK LELIVELT

After two weeks on the road, during which they won ten out of fourteen games, the Angels open against Portland here tonight. Schulmerich banged the ball so viciously during this period that he comes home with an average of .394. All Wes did was make twenty-two hits in forty-nine times at bat for a staggering average of .462. He clouted seven or eight home runs and now has an even twenty.

To Bob Ray, baseball writer for The Times, goes some of the credit for the Angels' showing for it was Bob, who last spring politely, but firmly, stated that Schulmerich should be in the line-up as a regular. Bob and Wes are close friends and the former knew Schulmerich's ability and his burning desire to make good. Once Jack Lelivelt inserted the Oregon apple knocker into the clean-up spot the Angels started going places and doing things and they have been afflicted that way ever since, for which J. H. Patrick is thankful.

Of course, Wes isn't the sole reason for the showing of the locals. Big Ed Baecht has a lot of credit due him. I don't know what the figures are on the most effective fingers in the circuit but Baecht must be the best or right close to it.

Johnny Moore can't be overlooked and the steady work of Harry Hannah, headed for the ash can several years ago, has also been of tremendous value.

The Angels and Stars have most of the leadership in the various departments of play this season. Gordon Rhodes tops the hurlers, and Fred Haney is way out in front among the bag pilferers. Carl Dittmar leads in sacrifices and Dave Barbee in home runs. Stairs has the most three baggers.

Ray Shirey, a red-hot football fan, comes out with an interesting and comprehensive pamphlet which will be popular with all grid followers. It contains schedules for practically every team of importance in the country and is filled with statistics on the sport which has no equal. The booklet is issued with the compliments of the Commonwealth Building and Loan Association of Long Beach.

Incidentally, Mr. Shirey has the temerity to step out and name the eight greatest football coaches. He lists them in this order: Knute Rockne, Howard Jones, Glenn Warner, Robert Zuppke, Alonzo Stagg, Fielding Yost, Clarence Spears and W. W. Roper.

Just at this point in my evening's labor Josephus Reddy, who doesn't care what happens in football as long as Notre Dame beats the Trojans, dropped in to see what his boy, Harold Lloyd, has just received special word from Rockne that the Irish would have another good team this season. Football is a great thing for Joe because when he starts concentrating on grid matters he immediately forgets how bad his golf game is.

Jack de Lara, Trojan tennis player now in the East, reveals that he was the linesman who aroused Bill Tilden's ire in the "championship" match with Frank Shields some time ago. In a letter to Al Wesson, Jack says: "I am now Tilden's arch-enemy. I was the linesman in his match against Shields last week at Southampton, when he blames for his defeat. He's been griping about my decisions ever since."

DeLara started play yesterday in the national municipal tourney at Washington. Next week he is entered in the national doubles play at the Longwood Club at Chestnut Hill, Mass. His partner will be Marcel Rainville, 1930 Canadian Davis Cup member, who is to be ranked No. 3 in Canada for 1930.

Goldie Hess and his manager, Harvey Pettit, left here yesterday for New York to fight Tony Canzoneri in an open-air engagement one week from tonight. Hess has been East before but ran into tough luck, his matches being canceled for one reason and another. Goldie plans to fly back in order to face Hector McDonald at Hollywood on September 5.

Only four of the seven foreign players were called on to play and three were strong enough to advance. E. R. Avery, young British collegian, gained the third round on a bye and a victory over Harry Pixmire, of Palo Alto, Cal., 6-3, 7-5 and Marcel Rainville, of Montreal, the Canadian Davis cup player, kept pace with him by taking a 23-game match from S. Howard Vospell, N. Y., by scores of 12-10, 6-4.

J. S. Cliff, England, overcame Harold McGuffin, Philadelphia, 7-5, 6-1, in another second rounder, but L. A. Godfree, captain of the British forces was eliminated in the first round by Harrison Coggeshall, of Des Moines, 6-3, 6-2.

George Lott, the Chicago member of the Davis cup team, seeded second, advanced easily over James Van Alen, Newport, 6-1, 6-2, and Wilmer Allison, his international team mate, took the first set from Bertram Hammill, of Ocean City, N. J., at love, and then had to wage a 26-game battle before winning the match set, 11-9.

Francis T. Hunter, seeded fourth, had an easy session, defeating Eliot Hobbs, Newport, 6-2, 6-0, just before the late shower broke. Johnny Doeg, husky California southpaw, and Davis cup substitute, overcame Richard Murphy, Utica, N. Y., 6-4, 6-3, after gaining the second round with a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Louis Hobbs, Newport.

WOOD SCORES

Sydney Wood, the young New Yorker and Pasadena player, who has played much sensational tennis this season, did not exert himself greatly to defeat the veteran Fred Baggs, another New Yorker, 6-4, 6-2. Gregory Mangin of Newark, N. J., seeded seventh, just below Wood, eliminated Donald Cram, Nashville, Tenn., 6-3, 6-1, and the other two favored players to see action, Clifford Sutter, intercollegiate and eastern grass courts champion, and Berkley Bell, the lively Texan, also managed to get into the third round before the rain fell. Sutter defeated Thomas Ridgeway, Jr., Philadelphia, 6-3, 6-3, and Bell overcame two opponents, defeating his fellow townsman, Robert Bacon, Jr., of Austin, Texas, 6-2, 6-2, and Harold B. Lauer, of New York, 6-2, 6-2.

MANDELL AND KANE NO LONGER PARTNERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 18. (AP)—Sammy Mandell, former world lightweight champion, and Eddie Kane, his manager for nine years, came to the parting of the ways today.

Mandell will continue to box, but not under Kane's management. Kane's contract with Mandell does not expire until July 6, 1931. He says he will enforce it to the extent of collecting his share of Mandell's ring earnings until the expiration of the contract.

Kane is authority for the statement Mandell has earned $400,000 during their nine years of association. Mandell plans to handle his own affairs, with the assistance of Teddy Bodkin, a friend.

Young Aquatic Stars Compete

Outstanding local junior swimmers and divers will hold the center of interest today at plunges throughout the city, as a series of children's aquatic meets are held as a feature of Los Angeles Swimming Week, which is being sponsored by the municipal Playground and Recreation Department.

Meets will be held today at ten municipal swimming pools, ending with a diving and swimming event at Elysian plunge tonight in which leading junior paddlers will take part. So that swimming week may launch many youngsters on the road to future championships, free instruction classes for children will be offered at all participating pools this week.

"Los Angeles Swimming Week" began officially last night at Bimini plunge, where Fred Cady's L.A.A.C. champion swimmers and divers performed in a meet witnessed by Les Henry, S.P.A.A.U. president, and leading local swimming coaches and officials.

ROLAND REINKE IN ARROWHEAD TOURNEY

A former Pacific Coast doubles champion will seek to regain his laurels the coming week-end at the invitational championship tennis tournament at the North Shore Tavern courts at Lake Arrowhead. This was revealed in the announcement by Hal Gorham, in charge of the events for the Southwestern Tennis Association, that Roland Reinke of Los Angeles was entered yesterday.

Reinke has been inactive so far as championship tilts are concerned for the last four or five years, although he has been doing considerable playing on public and private courts.

SMITH, ABENDINO MIX

An eight-round main event and four four-round preliminaries will be staged at the Compton club Friday night. Don Smith and Frankie Abendino, lightweights, will box the feature. The preliminaries are: Gordon Shephard vs. Frank Jones, 140 pounds; Paul Leach vs. Paul Chaney, 130 pounds; Rito Martinez vs. Joe Delvar, 124 pounds; Joe Bravo vs. Don Arnoth, 120 pounds.

Wolgast Makes Third Start in Local Ring Tonight in Clash with Newsboy Brown

Carl Dittmar Becomes Papa

Carl Dittmar, popular Angel shortstop, is receiving congratulations these days for being the proud papa of a bouncing 7-pound boy born Sunday night at the California Lutheran Hospital. According to Dittmar, the youngster has a nice pair of hands and looks like a great infield prospect. Both the mother and son are doing nicely, but Carl is still too nervous to do any short-stopping for the Seraphs.

sides of every flyweight champion for the last five years. If he had been pointed properly, the Newsboy could have handily been made the title-holder.

The Sioux City (Iowa) boy who came to Los Angeles to make his home has not been burned out with overwork although he is a veteran. More action would probably have kept him in better form than he is today.

There is determination written in Brown's face as he goes against the champion who has been more or less of a will-o'-the-wisp in his Dado and Robleto appearances.

Wolgast is gifted with more speed than any flyweight seen in the last ten or twenty years. He has specialized in showmanship while most 115-pounders have tried to be punchers.

This asset of jumping and whirling and throwing gloves has paid Wolgast well. By it he has won the championship of New York State and defeated all comers elsewhere with comparative ease.

If there is one little man in the business capable of slowing down th Philadelphia midget the Los Angeles fighter seems to have the best chance to do it.

BODY IS TARGET

There is little use to try to box Wolgast's bobbing head. His body is the bigger target and this is where Brown scores most effectively.

Brown holds a technical knockout over Dado. He held Fidel La Barba to two draws. He twice beat Frankie Genaro, N.B.A. champion. He won and lost to Izzy Schwartz. Many believe that if La Barba had met Brown at the flyweight limit he would have lost his title. Both of Brown's draws with Fidel were before George Blake's boy whipped Genaro for the title at Ascot Speedway.

Claude Varner, who breaks in at the Doyle arena in tonight's semi-wind-up against Charley Sullivan, is highly touted as a puncher. He is a Bakersfield rancher, 21 years of age. In thirty-two starts he has knocked out twenty opponents.

Steve Hamas will attempt to climb higher when he boxes Wally Fraser, Englewood high-school boy, in the special event. Several weeks ago a young fellow dropped into the Olympic offices with a letter of recommendation from Charley Harvey.

The letter said Hamas was just a green college boy from Penn State College with a yen for punching. Wadhams tried him out with Hugh Shropshire and Shropshire was on his back in a punch.

Shortly after Hamas came back against Steve Hayden, a fair country heavyweight who seldom loses. Hayden never got his hands up. Hamas cut him down quicker than he had done Shropshire.

Fraser is a good puncher, but has been hurried pretty fast for a young prospect. He figures to give Hamas a better test.

Warren Farrell of the Union Pacific shops meets Henry Rollins in another six-rounder. Hector Aguilar and Johnny Nichols box the curtain-raiser.

Cricket

LONDON, Aug. 18. (AP)—England completed its first innings today in the cricket test match with Australia, scoring 405.

Herbert Sutcliffe, who held the team together when collapse threatened on Saturday, carried his score from 138 to 161. R. E. S. Wyatt, England's captain, scored 64.

The tail-enders were soon disposed of and the Australians commenced their reply. Thirty-six runs for the loss of no wicket had been scored by lunchtime by W. M. Woodful and W. H. Ponsford, the opening pair of batsmen. At the close of play for the day Australia had scored 218 for two wickets.

REISTER, FERNANDEZ CLASH AT PASADENA

That famous old "acid test" is to be applied to Bobby Reister, Alhambra schoolboy lightweight sensation, Thursday night at Pasadena Arena. The Alhambra puncher, who carries dynamite in either hand and has won fourteen out of his sixteen professional bouts with knockouts, will be sent against the clever, hard-hitting Filipino, Ingacio Fernandes, far and away the classiest opponent Reister has faced to date. They are billed for ten rounds. Don Kennedy and Curley Muniz will meet in the four-round semifinal, 128 pounds. Other four-rounders will be: Judy Zuniga vs. Perfecto Mendoza, 118 pounds; Billy Papke, Jr., vs. Glen Thompson, 162 pounds; Morrie Mandell vs. Ritchie Par, 134 pounds; Young Mickey Walker vs. Luke Ebel, 180 pounds.

ERNIE TRIPLETT TO BE BACK IN HARNESS SOON

Ernie Triplett, well on the convalescent road following his recent operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital, paid a visit to the Legion Ascot Speedway offices yesterday afternoon. It was the Belvedere "bad boy's" first trip to the plant since he was stricken shortly following his arrival here from Altoona and the pilot took advantage of the occasion to announce that he expects to be ready for the races the 30th inst.

If he feels strong enough to return to the wheel, Ernie will replace Walt May at the seat of the Guiberson Special. The driving job on this mount belongs to Triplett because of his contract with Al Guiberson, owner of the machine. However, when Guiberson wanted to race the car as a two-seater at the track a couple of weeks ago, Ernie was in the hospital and Walt May was selected.

May, it is claimed, did a clever job of manipulating the huge chariot. The car was far too heavy for the saucer-like Legion oval and its size made it hard to handle on the steeply banked turns, which resulted in the inevitable wild skids. May took two twisters with the car, but on both occasions the Alhambra husky straightened his machine out without any damage and continued in the races. A less-experienced and capable driver than May would have caused a disaster by smashing the car into others on the track, according to officials of the Speedway.

The Guiberson, equipped with a powerful Miller motor, which Triplett drove at a speed of 118 miles an hour in qualifying trials at Altoona, is being remodeled into a slender speed bullet which will hereafter be better fitted for the steeply banked turns of the Legion saucer.

Abe Mitchell Gives Hot Tip for Direction

BY SOL METZGER

Picking the right direction line, the one along which you wish to send your golf ball, isn't the easiest thing in golf, judging by the numbers who hit them straight and far but into hazards or rough. Many of us use the tee markers to sight by. Often they are purposely placed at an angle to the line. So, that isn't a good policy.

The proper way, according to Abe Mitchell, who cracks them the proverbial mile, is to place the clubhead in position back of the ball with a straight left arm. Then adjust your stance accordingly. You can't miss if you follow this simple tip.

This straight left arm, which is never rigid, is the guide in playing your shots.

A new free illustrated leaflet on "The Art of Putting" has been prepared by Sol Metzger. Write for it. Address Sol Metzger, in care of The Times, and inclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

ANGELS TACKLE DUCKS TONIGHT

pert clout because the wind is always blowing against the hitter from that direction.

Secretary Boots Weber says that the Angels were playing great ball on the road, and predicts that there'll be no play-off because Leliveit's club is going to win both halves. Weber says that Statz was fielding like a demon at Sacramento, and that one of his catches was one of the greatest he'd ever seen. Art Koehler was the victim of the sensational catch and players back Weber's contention that Statz raced 100 yards to pull down the ball.

When Carl Dittmar was home awaiting a visit from the stork, Johnny Rawlings filled in at short for the Angels and looked great. Johnny got his share of hits against the Solon slabsters and did well in the field.

The Portland club, which has been playing good ball lately and climbed out of the cellar to sixth place in the last two weeks, gave the Seals a tough battle last week, but dropped the odd game of the series.

MAYS GONE

Carl Mays, who was released after his clubhouse battle with Junk Walters, will be among the missing Ducks on this trip. Most fans think that Maya's dismissal has something to do with the better showing of the Beavers. Homer Summa, who was the Ducks' leading outfielder, has been recalled by the Athletics, who sent Cramer, a hard-hitting youngster to replace him. Ray Keating is a new member of the Beavers, he having been obtained from Sacramento in a trade for Roy Chesterfield.

Oscar Vitt's league-leading Hollywood Stars leave the home lights of Wrigley Field for a week's sojourn at Oakland against the Acorns. The Oaks have been a disappointment this half, but they figure to give the Sheiks a tough series.

Other series on this week bring together the Indians and Seals at San Francisco and the Missions and Solons at Sacramento.

BAY CITY TO HOLD TEN-MILE MARATHON

The Italian-American Athletic Club, of South San Francisco is planning a huge program of sports as a part of the Bay City's Admission Day celebration. A ten-lap race over a course now being laid out is to be the feature of the program. More than a score of medals, along with team trophies will be awarded to the place winners. Among other attractions there is scheduled a soccer game, a tug of war and a greased-pig contest. Entry blanks may be secured by writing the Italian-American Club of South San Francisco.

George Earnshaw was credited with his nineteenth win of the season. Mickey Cochrane's eighth home run of the season started the winning rally in the eighth and was followed by three doubles and a single. Ralph Kress hit for the circuit in the sixth. Score:

ROBINS RUINED

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 18. (AP)—Dick Bartell's double to deep left in the ninth with the bases loaded sent Paul Waner and Adam Comorosky scampering across the plate with the runs that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-10-3 decision over the Brooklyn Robins today. As a result of the defeat the Robins' lead over the third place Giants, who were idle, was reduced to one-half a game.

COURTNEY SCORES KAYO

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 18. (AP) George Courtney of Tulsa, light heavyweight, knocked out Joe Packo, the Toledo Terror, in the second round of a scheduled ten-round bout at Western League Park here tonight.

Ford, Armstrong, McBride and Sterling, members of the 1929 backfield, will again be seen in action for the Mississippi, this year. The ship also has several former college and high school stars from eastern States who were assigned to the ship while she was at New York who will have regular berths on the first string during the coming season.

It has been announced that the battle first football elimination season will open at Trona Field on September 27, when the U.S.S. Idaho eleven tackles the battleship Maryland aggregation.

NAVY FOOTBALL ELEVEN TAKES FIRST WORKOUT

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 18. (Exclusive) First football practice of a Navy team at this base for the 1930 season was started today when Chaplain Maurice Whitherspoon, coach of the U.S.S. Mississippi eleven, brought his stalwarts ashore for a light workout at Trona Field.

More than sixty candidates for the ship's grid squad cavorted about the field for more than two hours and among them were several of the stars who played on the home ship eleven last year when the team annexed the battleship divisions football championship.

EXPECT LARGE TENNIS CROWD

Local Net Fans to Turn Out for Southwest Play

Large crowds for the annual Pacific Southwest tennis championships at the Los Angeles Tennis Club, September 19-28, next, were assured by Tournament Manager Perry Jones, who announced that this year's seat sale for the ten days' play will surpass any in the history of the tournament. Russell McD. Taylor of the Tennis Patrons' Association of Southern California also announced that only a few boxes remain to be sold—most of which were reserved, as early as last October.

Season ticket sale for club and tennis patron members will continue until next Monday, after which the season quests will be thrown on the public market. After September 6, singles, doubles and what season tickets are left will be sold as they are called for. The ticket office is on the local club grounds.

DOUBLE MAIN EVENT ON OCEAN PARK BILL

A double main event will be staged at Ocean Park tomorrow night. Joe Borola meets Rito Punay at 122 pounds and Sid Torren tackles Bobby Garcia at 120 pounds. Both bouts are tan-rounders. Pete Sarmiento, Filipino bantamweight meets Eddie Rubio in the six-round special. The four-round curtain-raiser is a rematch between Jimmy Hart and Tony Rockafort, a pair of 126-pounders who stole last week's show in a sensational battle.
